FFNL PREVIEW

Coleambally Blues v Barellan Two Blues

After another disappointing outing last week, you can bet Coleambally have this weekend's clash with Barellan circled as potential four point game to help kick start a season that is perilously close to collapse. Both Coly and the Two Blues have just one win to their names so far this season, both against likely wooden spooners Temora, yet in a Farrer League in which no team has staked a strong claim on fifth spot, a win in this game could be important to any finals aspirations.

Barellan were formidable for patches against East Wagga but the 53 point scoreline could have been much worse if not for some wayward kicking, meanwhile Coleambally is out to bounce back from a largely uncompetitive showing against Marrar that yielded just 24 points.
Neither team possess a clear strength at any position on the field nor the recent track record to inspire confidence in any tips. That being said, Barellan has been more competitive in recent weeks and should take the four points on the road.

Prediction: Barellan by 18pts

EWK v Northern Jets

East Wagga-Kooringal has been ravaged by injuries, but to the Hawks credit, they keep stacking up wins and currently find themselves in a good position to make a serious run once players return throughout the season. That being said, the Northern Jets aren't the team you want to play when you're a few quality players down. Josh Avis' team has seldom been out of any contests this year and received some reward for effort last week thanks to a 30 goal showing against the struggling Temora Kangaroos.

The Jets have a history of playing well at Gumly Oval and if they can find a way to nullify the impact of key big men Kyle North-Flanagan and Nick Hull, they should have the depth in the midfield and firepower up forward to put up a winning score on the road.

Once again, the Jets take down a powerhouse at their home ground in what would be an upset if it hadn't happened already against North Wagga.

Prediction: Northern Jets by 10pts

FFNL PREVIEW

North Wagga v TRYC

In a year of firing key forwards, North Wagga's Daniel Jordan has been the forgotten man until the Saints big man kicked eight last week. Jordan will need to hit the scoreboard again if the Saints are any chance of knocking off a Magpies team loaded with forward line firepower with a proven track record of putting up winning scores.

The Magpies head into the game fresh off the bye, meanwhile North remain undermanned but with enough depth and run to keep games close against the better teams in the competition. Cayden Winter would be delighted with his team's trouncing of CSU last week but the 15.20 scoreline is something that will need to be rectified against a visiting side that has certainly shown the ability to make teams' pay for their mistakes.

While the Saints may be finding multiple avenues to win on a weekly basis, at this point in the season, The Rock-Yerong Creek possess too great a challenge for the home side.

Prediction: TRYC by 28pts

Temora Kangaroos v CSU Bushpigs

A tough year continues and the silver linings are seemingly more and more difficult to find for the embattled Temora Kangaroos. Big losses have been commonplace, but a 139 point loss to bitter rivals the Northern Jets may just be the low point for the Roos.

While the CSU Bushpigs are coming off arguably their worst loss of the season too, there's hope for an instant return to form with the university side set to capitalise on their youthful exuberance and run and carry against one of the slowest teams in the competition.

Not much to say about this one. The Roos could capitalise on the Bushpigs youth early on but it's hard to see the home side staying with the uni side for any more than a half of footy.

Prediction: CSU by 48pts

THE LONG WAY BACK

BY NED BALME

Games aren't won on paper.

It's a common catchphrase in footy circles and one that couldn't ring truer for Coleambally.

Following a resurgent 2019 season that saw the Blues return to finals competition for the first time since the 2016 Grand Final, as well as a litany of signings from reputable competitions far and wide, the Blues were pegged by many as contenders in the Farrer League's return season.

Among the signings, key forward Jade Hodge, who unfortunately for the Blues has been among the few healthy players for the club in disappointing start to the season.

"We've had some challenges with injuries," Hodge conceded.

"We just can't seem to get our full team on the park and haven't had a game with our best side yet, which is a challenge in of itself"

The Blues currently find themselves languishing at seventh on the ladder, two games out of the finals picture and with just a solitary win against last placed Temora to their name.

Upcoming games against the Barellan and the Northern Jets present an opportunity for the luckless club to mount an assault on an unlikely finals berth and Hodge isn't mincing his words about the fortnight ahead.

"If we're fair dinkum, we need to win them. It's as simple as that," he said.

You can't hide from it. These are conversations we're having internally and the reality is if we want to give ourselves an opportunity, we need to win these two games.

THE LONG WAY BACK

BY NED BALME

We need to make a run soon or we're going to make our run too late. If we can scrape into finals, I certainly think we'll be better off for overcoming the issues we're facing but it's a long way back."

But a goal without a plan is merely a pipedream, and the former Leeton-Whitton coach turned Blues spearhead believes there are ample areas of improvement if the eventual run is to become a reality.

"Decision making has been a problem," he admitted.

When we make that decision, we're probably doing it a little too slowly and not pulling the trigger when we should.

It's one thing to put a gameplan in place, and we think we have a good one, but our execution has been to a point where we haven't even been able to get it going"

Hodge has been a bright spot in an otherwise dim first half of the season.

14 goals from five matches has been a solid return for the forward, but it's the defensive side of the game that has caused the greatest headaches.

Marrar's James Lawton ran rampant with 12 goals against the Blues last week, and in a Farrer League brimming with forward talent, the lack of pressure will only yield similar results if left unaddressed.

"We don't defend for long enough or consistently enough and that shows on the scoreboard because at the moment we're a side that gets scored against heavily and concedes goals pretty quickly."

Whether or not the Blues have the capability - let alone the healthy players – to turn the season around remains to be seen but this weekend's clash with Barellan has all the makings of an unheralded classic, in what is quickly becoming one of the earliest 'do or die' clashes the Farrer League has seen in years.

RFNL PREVIEW

Leeton - Whitton v Collingullie GP Demons

After some strong recent showings, Leeton-Whitton disappointed in last week's clash against Turvey Park, instead succumbing to the Bulldogs by a whopping 65 points. The Crows now season long trend of lacking scoring options reared its head again against the Dogs as they managed just 12 scoring shots for a total of 37 points.

Collingullie is coming off the bye and will be hoping to build on the momentum of their two point win of the week prior. That being said, the Crows and Demons should match up well with each other as both teams look to continue to blood youngsters into the side and turn into finals calibre teams by the end of the year.

Expect this one to be closer than many expect but the Dees should have the depth and attacking options to outlast the home side.

Prediction: Collingullie by 12pts

MCUE Goannas v Turvey Park Bulldogs

The Mangoplah train kept on rolling last week against Narrandera, as the Goannas racked up their fifth straight win despite not being nearly at full strength for the road clash against the Eagles.

Trent Castles continues to prove why he was such a valued signing down at the Plah' and currently holds a 14-goal lead in the goal kickers tally despite missing a game and is fresh off an 11 goal outing last week. Turvey Park will take confidence into the game thanks to a big win against Leeton-Whitton and will back themselves to be young and hungry enough to upset the premiership favourites and assert themselves as one themselves.

That being said, the Bulldogs will need more than just a 'can do' attitude if they're to not only match, but exceed, the most complete team in the entire Riverina League and until the Goannas show any chinks in the armour it's hard to pick against them, especially at home.

Prediction: MCUE by 32pts

RFNL PREVIEW

Wagga Tigers v Narrandera Eagles

For a team with definite finals aspirations, the Wagga Tigers would be disappointed with last week's showing against Ganmain. The reigning premiers were on the back foot from the opening whistle, and a five-goal half time deficit was well and truly blown out thanks an eight goal haul for the Lions in the third quarter. The Tigers over reliance on coach Murray Stephenson up forward is becoming apparent, and while the former SANFL star is doing his part (another three goals last week) more contributors are needed across the board for the Tigers.

For Narrandera, they're showing improvement and last week's 80-point loss to a powerhouse Mangoplah side shouldn't dishearten them too much as they prepare to travel to Wagga and inflict an upset against a vulnerable home side. If the Eagles can nullify Stephenson and keep the game within arm's length, there's every chance they could shock the league but recent years have proven it's hard to pick against the Tigers, especially when they're on the ropes.

Prediction: Wagga Tigers by 27pts

Griffith Swans v GGGM Lions

Griffith may have just one victory to its name so far this season, but you'd be hard pressed to find a better one-win team in recent years than the ever-dangerous Swans. The MIA powerhouse came within 11 points of shocking Coolamon (and the competition) at Kindra Park, and despite leaving empty handed should carry plenty of confidence back to Exies Oval as they welcome the second-placed Lions.

As for Ganmain, they showed last week they're capable of winning from all over the ground. Key forwards Riley Corbett and George Alexander were one of many players to hit the scoreboards, and the club's diminishing reliance on the tall duo would be a source of confidence for coach Sam Martyn.

Despite Griffith's recent showing, the Lions have displayed time and time again (save one poor outing against the Goannas) why they're among the handful of genuine premiership contenders in the competition and should prove why again in a big win on the road.

Prediction: GGGM by 42pts

RISING STAR

Football

NAME: James Buchanan

James has cemented his spot in our senior team this year and continues to impress each week he plays ! With only 5 senior games under his belt he has earnt a spot starting in our midfield and as a 17 year old shows a ability to find the footy and be super clean with the ball in hand for a player far beyond his experience. James trains super hard and has such a commitment to wanting to improve and wanting to help the team, he holds himself very well for a young man and shows attributes of a great leader and one that can lead our club going into the future as he matures and continues to learn.

Netball

NAME: Giaan Cullen

Giaan has cemented herself in a mid court position for Coly, as a 16 year old she has gone above and beyond with her commitment to fitness and training. She has starred in her first 5 A Grade games demonstrating her strength and physicality. She has established herself as an integral part of the team.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Adrian Hayes

Adrian Hayes is a great Club supporter and volunteer for CFNC. He is helpful, reliable member of our club who shows up early, leaves late and gets the job done. It doesn't matter what the job is, Adrian is happy to help. Adrian has been involved in some way with CFNC since his kids played junior footy with this being Adrian 7th season being our friendly barman and canteen helper.

Adrian dedication to our Club is show in his involvement in our external catering events including funerals, clearing sales and fund raising activities. It's this club and community spirit that makes Adrian worthy of this nomination.

Volunteers like Adrian who get in and get the job done create a great family club atmosphere where the players supporters and parents enjoy to be.
The Club thanks Adrian for all the volunteer hours he does for our club .
