Welcome Aboard Riverina Fresh

As part of the 2023 season launch in Wagga Wagga, AFL Riverina is proud to formally commence it's three-year partnership with Riverina Fresh.

Riverina Fresh is a Wagga Wagga based Australian owned independent dairy manufacturer, known for its premium milk, cream and yoghurts.

The company is celebrating its centenary in 2022/23 , and was recently recognised by the Finder Retail Award as the Top-Rated Fresh Milk Brand in Australia for the second year running. It was also the competition milk at the recent World Barista Championships held in Melbourne.

Like the AFL, Riverina Fresh is one of the most recognisable and trusted brands in the Riverina. Both organisations deliver high quality products for their community and are proud of their strong local links and history.

AFL NSW/ACT's Community and Competition Manager for Southern NSW, Joel Robinson, said: "AFL Riverina is pleased to partner with Riverina Fresh. For 100 years, Riverina Fresh has nourished our community and beyond, and it's a thrill to align with this iconic Australian company."

Rob Collier, CEO of Riverina Fresh, said: "Nothing is more Australian than Australian rules football and netball, and AFL Riverina has produced some of the best players the country has ever seen. We believe in supporting our communities and footy and netball clubs and leagues are the strongest communities out there. We look forward to kicking off a fantastic 2023 season and a long and successful relationship with AFL Riverina.

RFNL PREVIEW

Griffith Swans v Mangoplah-Cookardinia United-Eastlakes Goannas

MCUE will go into the round one clash with the unusual advantage of already having a win under their belt as they head to Exies Oval.

The Goannas took on Wagga Tigers in the Good Friday season opener last week and came from behind to score a one-goal win. Sam de Sousa, who made a surprise appearance, won't make the trip to Griffith, but the Goannas will welcome back co-coach Nelson Foley.

All eyes will be on the Swans, to see just how far they've come. Griffith were one of the prime movers over the off-season, highlighted by the addition of Rhys Pollock, Alec McCormick, Alex Page and Dean Simpson from Queanbeyan, plus the return of key forward Henry Delves from Ainslie.

Griffith have enjoyed such an influx of talent that it's only natural that it will take some time to come together. It will be interesting to see how much benefit that one game will prove for the Goannas, as they prepare to tackle the toughest road trip in the competition.

Prediction: MCUE by 6 points

Leeton-Whitton Crows v Ganmain Grong-Grong-Matong Lions

The tasks don't come much tougher for begin the year for the Crows as they prepare to welcome the reigning premiers to Leeton Showground.

The good news for the Crows is that, at least on paper, the Lions don't appear to be as strong as last year after losing some of their premiership stars. There is also some doubt as to whether the likes of Matt Hamblin and Jacob Olsson will be there early in the season.

Leeton-Whitton are continuing on their rebuilding path and will continue to blood the club's young talent. Crows coach Tom Groves is optimistic that the continued development of the next generation will have them making progress.

Round one might not be a bad time to get the Lions but GGGM should still begin this season the way they finished the last and that's with a win.

Prediction: GGGM by 66 points

RFNL PREVIEW

Narrandera Eagles v Collingullie-Glenfield Park Demons

Narrandera will unveil their new-look team at home with a clash against last year's losing grand finalists on Saturday.

The Eagles have strengthened their squad over the off-season with the addition of Jack and Tom Powell from Ainslie, along with the return of Blake Renet. With those guys, along with assistant coach Luke McKay, working under promising ruckman Brad Hutchison, Narrandera's midfield should be able to match it with most.

The Demons took great steps forward last year and with a young squad, natural improvement should mean they are better placed in 2023. They did not do a great deal of recruiting but did land talent in Kane Flack and Brodi Williams, along with extra size on Ferg Inglis and Sam Durnan.

Narrandera have been able to upset the Demons on the odd occasion over the last couple of years and it certainly would surprise many if they could do so again in this round one fixture.

Prediction: Collingullie-Glenfield Park by 34 points

Turvey Park Bulldogs v Wagga Tigers

What a way to start the year with the age-old rivalry between these two clubs.

Technically, it's not the start to the season for Tigers, who showed good signs before being overrun by MCUE in Good Friday footy last week. Tigers will be boosted by the return of coach Murray Stephenson, but lose Jackson Kelly, who is unavailable.

Turvey Park will be looking to start the year with the same momentum they finished last year, winning two finals on their way to a preliminary final appearance. The Bulldogs have added a ruckman in Antony Forato, while having the playing services of Luke Fellows for an entire season is another big boost.

Both these teams go into the season with aspirations of finals and beyond so it will be a hotly-contested four points on offer at Maher Oval, with little separating both teams on paper.

Prediction: Wagga Tigers by 2 points

Women's team add another chapter to GGGM's success story

"THE locals say there is no secret remedy to the success at Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong.

The Lions added another chapter to their proud history last Thursday night when their women's football team went back-to-back in the Southern NSW Women's League grand final.

It was the club's third premiership in the past 12 months, with the two women's flags complimenting the men's Riverina League grand final success in September.

The rise of GGGM's women's team is a remarkable one given it was only a little more than three years ago that there was no such thing as a ladies football team at Ganmain Sportsground.

After watching the competition begin, the Lions put the call out to their local ladies and entered a team for the first time in 2021, taking on some already established clubs and footballers.

GGGM lost two of their first three games as they looked to find their feet but the rest now is history. They have not lost since, winning 24 of 26 games, capturing two undefeated premierships in the process.

The women's football success is the latest chapter in an incredible story at GGGM where winning has become a habit. The Lions have won 12 senior Riverina League flags since 1982, the most of any club alongside Wagga Tigers.

So what is the secret to the success at GGGM? Luke Walsh played in eight premierships as a player and has coached the women since their formation. If anyone should know, it's him.

"This is just my opinion, I think having great community support is one thing. Footy means a lot to people in the community," Walsh said.

"There's a few factors but when you have community support and a committee that is very selfless and drives high standards and is willing to chip in to make playing footy and netball easy, getting players on the court and the field where they can basically just play and worry about performing and preparing through the week.

"I think that's one thing, because just thinking of my time as a footballer, we're very well looked after, and that kind of does two things. It allows us to worry about playing and playing well but it also puts a bit of an onus on the playing group to I guess reciprocate the effort that's put in for us.

Women's team add another chapter to GGGM's success story

"It gives us the opportunity to do it and it also holds us accountable to make the most of the opportunities we've been given and that's probably one thing that sticks out in my mind."

GGGM president Jason Hamblin went as far as to reveal the secret. He says it's hard work.

"I reckon it's how everyone's invested in the same thing," Hamblin said.

"Everyone's pulling their weight, everyone's pulling in the right direction and the players see that and all of a sudden think these blokes here are working that hard to facilitate a game for me, all of a sudden they're saying if they're working that hard then I'm going to work bloody hard and if they're working that hard, we're getting success. That's where it comes from. It starts from the top and filters its way down.

"It's just hard work and the hard work that is done at the top is reflected as you work your way down to the first grade to the seconds to the 17s. It's the old adage, what you put into it is what you get out of it. "There's no secret remedy. It comes down to culture. It's all about culture and self belief."

The women capped off their latest perfect season with a 4.6 (30) to 0.5 (5) win over Coolamon in front of a big crowd at Maher Oval.

On their way to the premiership, GGGM conceded just four goals in the nine games for the year, kicking 77 of their own at the same time.

Walsh is not only incredibly proud of the team for their efforts, but more so the way they go about getting the job done.

"The home and away games blew me away with how well they were playing and what they were achieving each week," he said.

"What I was probably most pleased about was, as well as they were going during the home and away, they never got arrogant or ahead of themselves or anything like that. They stayed head down, kept working hard and played whatever was in front of them.

"The pressure from East Wagga in the prelim and then Coolamon stepped it up again in the grand final, it was tough footy and for them to be able to withstand that pressure and still execute and kick a winning score was excellent.

"Among other things, that ability to absorb it all, the physical pressure and also physiological pressure too, a team that hasn't lost in a couple of years so for them to absorb it and still execute and get the job done, that's probably one of the things I'm most proud of the girls.

"They're just a great group of girls to coach, good people, never got ahead of themselves, kept coming to training and working hard and learning. It makes it fun. Everything you try to put into practice, they take it on and execute."

RISING STAR

Football - Jakob Taylor

It's with great pleasure that the GGGMFNC nominate Jakob Taylor as our rise star for 2023.

Jakob is a promising junior who has already shown strong form at first grade level. He is someone that possesses a unique blend of endurance and speed which makes it difficult for the opposition to contain him.

After finishing runner up in last years u/17's league medal, Jakob will look to cement his place in first grade and become a permanent fixture in 2023.

We can't to watch Jakob breaking the lines and giving our forwards great service this year .

Netball - Emily McPherson

The 16-year-old will make her debut in A Grade this season after coming off the back of an extremely strong season in our U17s side for 2022, winning the premierships.

Emily is an exceptionally strong player bringing amazing skills and experience from representative and academy teams.

She has come into the 2023 season firing and is establishing herself as a strong asset in our A Grade side.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

HOWARD MARTIN

It is with great pleasure that we nominate Howard Martin as our 2023 volunteer of the year.

Howard has been an integral part of the Ganmain Grong Grong Matong football & netball club over the last 10 years, Howard has done a huge amount of work for our club as he strives to achieve the best environment for our footballers & netballers.

The list of jobs Howard does for the club is long. He is the first one to put his hand up for a working bee, he volunteers as the head curator of the main oval, he oversees the seeding, mowing, watering & spraying of the oval & the surrounding areas.

Howard arrives to every home game bright & early to man the gate. Howard is also a part of the recruiting committee that run multiple player interviews during the year to give each player a voice in the running of the club.

With all of these achievements, our club is very proud to nominate Howard Martin as our Volunteer of the year.

FFNL PREVIEW

Barellan Two Blues v Marrar Bombers

It's unusual territory for the Bombers as they head into round two winless for the first time since 2019. Marrar were overrun in the final quarter by an impressive Northern Jets outfit and will be desperate to bounce back at Barellan.

The Two Blues are also winless heading into round two after going down to East Wagga-Koorringal by 33 points. Barellan stuck with the Hawks before running out of gas late in the contest.

Barellan will look to lay the platform in the midfield with their traditionally hard, contested brand of footy. This is where the Bombers were found out against the Jets and are currently light on and waiting to get some reinforcements back.

Barellan gave Marrar their biggest scare of the second half of last season and are capable of pushing them. The Bombers will be hoping to have just enough class to get them home.

Prediction: Marrar by 15 points

North Wagga Saints v East Wagga-Koorringal Hawks

There is never much between these two cross-town rivals and this game could be just what the Saints need.

North Wagga went down to CSU by 10 goals in round one in a game full of momentum swings. New coach Damien Papworth will take confidence from the fact they were able to pile on five straight goals during the contest, showing when they click, it can be dangerous.

The Hawks backed up a promising pre-season with a 33-point win on the road at Barellan. They did it minus some key personnel as well so EWK are ticking along just nicely early in the season with the likes of Nick Hull and Jackson Hughes showing they are going to valuable additions.

The Saints boast a good record against the Hawks and that will be put to the test here. Hopefully they can rise to the occasion and push EWK all the way. That will leave them in good stead for what is a rebuilding year.

Prediction: EWK by 55 points

FFNL PREVIEW

Northern Jets v Charles Sturt University Bushpigs

This should be a cracking contest with two impressive round one winners going head-to-head at Ariaiah Park.

The Jets could not have done much more on the back of an exciting pre-season, downing the reigning premiers by 29 points on their home turf. Mitch Haddrill announced his return with a best-on-ground performance while the role of Lachie Jones in the ruck often goes unheralded but he played a big part in the win, as did coach Jack Harper.

Trent Cohalan made a decent arrival of his own, kicking 3 goals and collecting 30+ touches from the midfield in his first outing for the Bushpigs. This shapes as a bigger test for CSU and we'll learn a bit more about them against the Jets.

There has been no love lost between these two teams since the last time they met so expect a fierce contest. Both teams' strength arguably lies in the midfield so the winner in there will go a long way towards grabbing the four points.

Prediction: Northern Jets by 24 points

Temora Kangaroos v The Rock-Yerong Creek

The highly-anticipated first outing of The Rock-Yerong Creek will take place at Nixon Park on Saturday.

The Magpies have been the spruik team of the Farrer League off-season and for good reason after welcoming back Tom Yates and adding Curtis Steele, Don Roberts and Matt Parks. They backed that up with three impressive trial victories over Narrandera, Wagga Tigers and Howlong.

Temora won't be any rollovers however and have the benefit of already having a proper game under their belts, when scoring a three-goal win over Coleambally in round one. Will Reinhold made an immediate impression with a best-on-ground performance, while Isaac Pattison and Ben Cooper showed they too will be handy additions to the Kangaroos.

The Magpies will be keen to kick off their season with a statement at Temora, but don't expect it to happen without a fight from the resurgent Kangaroos on their home turf.

Prediction: TRYC by 25 points
