Turvey Park Bulldogs v Mangoplah-Cookardinia United-Eastlakes

If they're not gone already, this is absolutely the last chance for Mangoplah-Cookardinia United-Eastlakes to salvage their season when they travel to Maher Oval on Saturday.

With their season on the line against Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong last Sunday, the Goannas could not have been much more disappointing with what they offered up, going down without any real fight, losing by 50 points. If MCUE are to save themselves from a deeply disappointing season, they need to upset Turvey Park on Saturday.

The task is not out of the question, especially with the Bulldogs having lost their past three. Losses to Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong, Coolamon and Griffith have dropped Turvey Park to second spot and questions are suddenly appearing about the validity of their premiership aspirations.

They haven't been far off in their three losses and their loss to Griffith on the weekend was gallant and good enough form to take care of MCUE in their current shape. The ruck battle between Sam de Sousa and Antony Forato should be a cracker and may have a big bearing on the result. Can MCUE produce another twist in an intriguing season or will it be all over for them?

Prediction: Turvey Park by 24 points

Collingullie-Glenfield Park Demons v Wagga Tigers

The resurgence of Collingullie-Glenfield Park gathered further momentum with a big win over Coolamon last Saturday. The Demons have now won the past four on the trot to draw a game within fifth spot.

The return of Matt and Jayden Klemke has played a huge part in Collingullie's resurgence and they again played a big role in the win over Coolamon. Sam Stening has returned to his best form and is playing a huge role up forward, while Steve Jolliffe and the Perrymans are also in good touch.

Wagga Tigers did what they were supposed to with a win over Leeton-Whitton to maintain fifth spot. A loss here would see them drop out of the top five with a month to play and suddenly their destiny would be out of their own control.

Tigers should get coach Murray Stephenson back, which will be a huge addition to a team that appears to be gathering steam at the right time of year. A win would not only all but assure them of finals, but also keep their chances alive of a top-three finish. However there aren't many teams in better form at the moment than Collingullie and it will take a big effort to topple them on their home turf.

Prediction: Collingullie-Glenfield Park by 2 points

RFNL PREVIEW

Narrandera Eagles v Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions

Narrandera resume from a week off with a home game against the reigning premiers.

The Eagles were quite competitive when the two teams met earlier this year, pushing the Lions until late in the game. Brad Hutchison enjoyed a day out on that occasion and Narrandera will be hoping he's back to help give their midfield first use.

GGGM have enjoyed three good wins in succession now with the likes of Matt Hamblin really starting to fire. Expect the Lions to continue on their winning way here.

Prediction: GGGM by 85 points

Coolamon Rovers v Griffith Swans

It was the corresponding game earlier in the season that helped turn Coolamon's season around and they will be looking to use the Swans again to help them get back on track.

Although the game is in Coolamon this time around, Griffith again shape up as a difficult proposition after winning their last five to hit the top of the ladder. Their last loss, in fact, was when Coolamon came over and showed them up at Exies Oval.

Coolamon coach Jake Barrett will be looking to lead the charge for the Rovers after he had a rare quiet game in the loss to Collingullie. Selection will again be intriguing at Kindra Park with assistant coach Allister Clarke and Bailey Wood among those impressing in reserve grade last weekend.

Griffith claimed the scalp of Turvey Park last weekend, in a victory that has them well-placed to take the minor premiership. Rhys Pollock again highlighted his class with a best-on-ground display, while fellow Canberra-based recruits Alec McCormick, Alex Page and Dean Simpson all showed their worth.

Coolamon at their best are capable of downing Griffith but consistency is the issue with the Rovers at the moment. You know what you're getting with the Swans more often than not so they deserve favouritism on that alone.

Prediction: Griffith by 6 points

The Rock looking good on and off the field'

THE Rock-Yerong Creek are flying through the Farrer League season but it's not just on field where things are looking good.

The home of the Magpies, The Rock Recreation Ground, has undergone a transformation over the last few years to now be one the most attractive, well-equipped facilities in the competition.

More than $500,000 has been spent on upgrades, made possible by the support of Lockhart Shire Council, state and federal grants under the Stronger Communities Fund, Local Roads and Infrastructure grants, Drought Communities Program, Riverina Water County Council, the local progress association, The Rock Recreation Ground management committee and the club's fundraising efforts.

Since 2018, The Rock Recreation Ground has seen the construction of a second oval, complete with an in-ground watering system.

The main oval has been resurfaced, complete with a picturesque white picket fence surrounding the ground. A new electronic scoreboard has been installed, the driveways surrounding the ground are now all bitumen, with the removal and replacement of all the surrounding trees. The heating and cooling in the clubrooms has been upgraded, the ground's lighting is being replaced, there's a new storage shed for equipment, a second water storage tank and the umpires and netball changerooms have been upgraded.

Netball hasn't missed out either. The club has built two new netball courts with a cover over the western court.

The facility also now boasts an all abilities playground with barbeque facilities, toilet and baby change rooms. There's even an electric car recharging station.

TRYC president David Pieper said the club is proud of the work that has gone into the facility.

"It's amazing," Pieper said.

"A lot of the country grounds around now are unreal. Narrandera have had a massive upgrade there, then you've got Marrar, Collingullie, it's unbelievable.

"There's been a lot of work done and there's still a lot of things in the pipeline, too, which is not official but we're keen to keep improving the facility.

"We took advantage of the COVID time to upgrade the main ground while there was no footy and now with the white fence, it makes such a difference.

"The place is looking great."

Pieper said while there has been great support driving the upgrades, he singled out Gail Driscoll and Mo Marsden as the two responsible for making it happen.

'The Rock looking good on and off the field'

"Gail Driscoll has worked tirelessly and been the driving force behind obtaining these grants. The other contributor being Mo Marsden," Pieper said.

"It's just about having the right people in the right places, knowing what grants are available because a lot of time and effort goes into it because there is a lot out there and if you've got the right people, we're very lucky we've got Gail Driscoll and Moe Marsden, they do the work for us for those grants.

"It started because we've been pushing for same-day footy and netball for so long so we thought we would need the second ground for that. It's come a long way."

The only thing that tops a newly renovated facility is enjoying an undefeated season with one.

Pieper credits the work done by co-coaches Heath Russell and Brad Aiken and their astute recruitment from Canberra.

"Rusty and Brad have found the right blokes," he said.

"Those few Canberra blokes out there, they've hung around, most of them are one pointers now and there's a no dickhead policy. Sometimes you don't know what you're going to get when you go to other leagues but they've really done a great job to get good footballers but also good people."

Overall, there is a good feeling out at The Rock and it's not hard to see why.

"It's good to be in the top half with the footy but off the field has been really good as well," Pieper summed up.

RISING STAR

Netball - Chloe Aiken

Chloe has come through the ranks at The Rock Yerong Creek, with her first coming to play with us in our U17's netball side. Since then, Chloe has progressed through to our A Grade with an amazing senior netball career. At just 17 years of age, Chloe is a talented goalkeeper who has shown to have the ability to read the play whilst under pressure, all while being able to drive the ball down the court with precision. Chloe's rebounds and her relentless never give up attitude shows why she is an essential part of our A Grade side. Chloe's maturity on and off the court is to be admired. We look forward to watching her grow in our club and also in our A Grade side for many years to come.

Football - Cam Terlich

Cam started playing senior football at The Rock Yerong Creek in 2021 at just 15 years of age as there were no junior teams available for him to play in. He made his 1st grade debut in 2022 and played 3 games that year, kicking a goal in his first game. He has made 2 first grade appearances so far in 2023. Cam is an extremely reliable player who is blessed with excellent kicking and hand balling skills. He also defends well beyond his years and weight. We expect Cam to part of our first grade team on a regular basis in the years to come.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Anthea Stephenson

Anthea Stephenson nee Driscoll is an integral member of the great Driscoll dynasty that has been part of The Rock Yerong Creek sporting and community activities since before The Rock popped up out of the ground. Her achievements with the club include a 10 year tenure as Treasurer – ongoing, Netball Co-ordinator, Club Committee member, Social Committee member, Merchandise Co-Ordinator, Canteen Volunteer for both Senior and Juniors and a consistent A grade netballer, having won a League Medal and been runner-up on three occasions. Much of Anthea’s work is behind the scenes with a minimum amount of fuss. Throw in 3.75 kids and a full-time job, it is an absolute credit to Anthea that she is able to contribute so much to our great club.

We are extremely grateful.

Coleambally Blues v East Wagga-Koorringal Hawks

This loomed as a potentially tricky trip for East Wagga-Koorringal a fortnight ago but results of the past two weeks would have only shortened the Hawks' odds.

EWK got back on track with a 45-point win over North Wagga a fortnight ago, with Brenton Roberts answering a SOS to help guide the Hawks home. Importantly, EWK didn't add any players to the casualty list in the process. They should start to welcome back a number of key personnel as they look to ramp up their preparation heading into finals.

Coleambally's form has started to drop off somewhat as well. After enjoying a 55-point win over North Wagga, the Blues have since copped a 99-point loss to Temora and a 106-point defeat from Barellan. The concerning part is that they're the two teams directly above them on the ladder.

Importantly, Coleambally return home this week, where they are undoubtedly a much better side. They finish the year with games against the top four teams so hopefully they can give a spirited performance here to generate some confidence for the weeks ahead.

Prediction: East Wagga-Koorringal by 60 points

Charles Sturt University Bushpigs v The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies

It was at a similar time at the same venue last year that CSU stunned the competition with a comprehensive victory over the Magpies. It would probably create even bigger shockwaves this time around given how well The Rock-Yerong Creek are travelling.

The Magpies made it 12 straight with a seven-point win over Northern Jets in last week's top of the table clash. Many gave the Jets a good chance of ending TRYC's unbeaten run but the Magpies used the occasion to send a reminder as to just how good they are. The end margin probably flattered the Jets, with TRYC wasting some opportunities and taking the foot off the pedal late. Curtis Steele made a surprise return and showed how dangerous he will be for opposition teams at the business end of the season.

CSU come in off a disappointing showing against Marrar, where they went down by 45 points. After winning five straight, the Bushpigs haven't been able to measure up against the Jets and Bombers. They weren't expected to win either but some would have expected them to get closer than what they did.

With their finals spot not yet secure, they will want to find some better form against the top teams in preparation for a couple of crunch contests that will decide their fate.

Prediction: TRYC by 45 points

FFNL PREVIEW

North Wagga Saints v Barellan Two Blues

Another important must-win game for Barellan if they are to be any chance of breaking their Farrer League finals drought.

They enjoyed their biggest win since returning to the Farrer League when putting Coleambally away by 106 points last week. There was no shortage of good players but Ryan Best, Hugh McKenzie and Dean Schmetzer continued their strong seasons with fine displays.

North Wagga showed more good signs, opening up a handy lead over Temora before eventually being overrun. That was the second time this year the meeting between those two teams has unfolded like that.

The Saints will again hope to get their running game going and use the pace among their youthful group to cause some headaches for the Two Blues. Barellan got the job done comfortably at home earlier this year but should expect a stronger challenge from the Saints at McPherson Oval.

Prediction: Barellan by 30 points

Temora Kangaroos v Marrar Bombers

Temora made it two wins from their last three outings with a come-from-behind win over North Wagga last weekend. The wins have come against the bottom two teams but they've managed to kick big scores and begun to click in regards to what they can do with ball in hand.

Jimmy Godde's impact cannot be understated, while the likes of Liam Sinclair, Joe Morton and Jack Cullen are having top seasons for the young footballers they are. Riley Hubbard again showed plenty in attack and kicked four goals, despite his ongoing struggle with an ankle injury.

They meet tough opposition in Marrar. The Bombers have won four straight and are building nicely at the right time of year. They put away CSU by 45 points last week and are starting to welcome back key personnel at the right time of year.

Players like Toby Lawler, Liam James, Josh Staines and Bryce Mann are stepping up and making the Bombers a more even, well-rounded team. Temora should put up a fight on their home turf, especially with some renewed confidence from last week's win, but anything other than a Marrar victory will surprise here.

Prediction: Marrar by 40 points
