RFNL PREVIEW

Collingullie-Glenfield Park Demons v Griffith Swans

It's crunch time for Collingullie-Glenfield Park, who need to beat Griffith on Saturday to keep their finals hopes alive.

The Demons took it right up to Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong but fell five points short last weekend. The scoreline flattered the home team somewhat, as the Lions did prove wasteful in front of goal. Not having coach Nick Perryman or captain Matt Klemke out there is hurting the Demons and they need some of their senior players to stand up. It was again their younger players that led the charge last week in Ed Perryman, Noah Harper, Tom Howard and Harry Wichman.

Griffith are certainly beatable if the Demons are good enough. Collingullie failed badly when going down by 72 points in Griffith earlier this year. But the Swans are only just travelling at the minute. They put away Narrandera comfortably last weekend, but not without a fight from the Eagles. They lost their two before that, to Coolamon and GGGM, so they would want to find some improvement quickly if they want their presence to be felt come finals.

Griffith need to win to keep their top three hopes alive. They finish with a home game against Wagga Tigers and could finish as low as fifth and they don't bank a win. How they perform on at Crossroads Oval on Saturday will tell us a lot about what to expect from the Swans over the next few weeks, and how long they'll be around for.

Prediction: Griffith by 2 points

Wagga Tigers v Narrandera Eagles

Wagga Tigers produced some great football in their 15-point win over Coolamon at Kindra Park on Sunday. Murray Stephenson continues to prove time and time again how valuable he is to Tigers when he's out on the paddock. He kicked six against his former club and he may well hold the key to how far Tigers go this year.

Tigers need to win here to keep their finals dream alive and they should do that against the winless Eagles. Narrandera debuted three youngsters last week and took it right up to Griffith in the early stages, before the Swans ran away to win by 79 points.

Jared Lane won the Jim Quinn Medal in 2018 as coach of Narrandera in a winless season. Could assistant coach Luke McKay repeat the feat this year? He's been simply outstanding for Narrandera in tough circumstances and the club will be hoping they can keep him on board for next season.

Tigers will win this one and quite comfortably but hopefully Narrandera can start well and stay in the contest for a while.

Prediction: Wagga Tigers by 80 points

RFNL PREVIEW

Mangoplah-Cookardinia United-Eastlakes Goannas v Leeton-Whitton Crows

The first of the dead rubbers for the season with both teams being out of the finals hunt.

What a disappointing season from Mangoplah-Cookardinia United-Eastlakes after it promised so much at the start of the year. It's unfortunately been the same old story for the Goannas over the past couple of seasons so it will be interesting to see what approach Nelson Foley takes in 2024 when he takes over the reins as coach solo.

Leeton-Whitton had one of their darker days last week. The Crows were held scoreless for the first three quarters on their way to a 159-point loss to Turvey Park. That came after the club forfeited reserve grade. The Crows are obviously going through a rebuilding stage and have enjoyed two good wins over Narrandera. But the kids need some more experience and talent put around them.

The Goannas will now be looking to build some momentum and excitement heading into next season and they should be able to do that here.

Prediction: MCUE by 95 points

Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions v Coolamon Rovers

What a local derby awaits this time around.

The games between these two arch-rivals are top notch any time, let alone when they are both up and about and competing for a flag.

Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong have won six on the trot, with their latest in the form of a hard-fought win over Collingullie-Glenfield Park. It's hard to fathom that they lost their grip on the minor premiership in the process, as Turvey Park improved their percentage by just under 20 per cent with a big win over Leeton-Whitton.

So the Lions will play in the qualifying final in the first week of finals, and a win over Coolamon on Sunday will see them go into that clash on the back of seven consecutive wins. Pending other results during the round and they could also relegate Coolamon to the elimination final in the process.

Coolamon will be out to bounce back after a disappointing display against Wagga Tigers last week. The Rovers have shown their best is good enough but the gap between that and their worst is too big. Coolamon would hope to get back Al Clarke and BJ Glyde for the clash, while Joe Redfern would have to be nearing a return to first grade after a few games back in the twos.

This one shapes as a cracker.

Prediction: GGGM by 5 points

'It's Hard to say Goodbye'

EAST Wagga-Koorindal say they are a better club for having Matt Hard walk through the door.

Hard's six-year tenure as senior coach of East Wagga-Koorindal will come to an end at the end of the Hawks' campaign.

The appointment of Hard in October 2017 was hailed as a coup at the time and although the partnership is yet to reap any silverware, the Hawks couldn't be happier with what the experienced mentor has instilled at the club during his time.

"Matt has coached our club through the most difficult times that Covid presented and the challenges post-Covid to put together a playing group after many players lost the passion to play," EWK president Darren Cuthbert said.

"His commitment, passion and professionalism is unsurpassed by anyone. He quite often goes above and beyond of what is expected from a coach which shows how much he cares."

Cuthbert said the way the whole Hard family all brought in to the Hawks says everything you need to know about them.

"Matt brought his whole family to the club which are all valuable, dedicated members of the club," he said.

"EWKFNC extends our gratitude to Matt for the incredible dedication and contribution he has made to make our club a better both on and off the field.

"Matt is not only a great coach, he is a great bloke and has made lifelong friends at the club.

"We would also like to thank Nicole Hard for allowing Matt the time he puts in. Nicole knows more than most the highs and lows of what coaching brings.

"We sincerely hope Matt and Nicole are around the club supporting Ash, Gemma & Maddi with football and netball. Thankyou Matt from everyone at EWKFNC."

While Hard's tenure is coming to an end, it certainly isn't done, highlighted by a 53-point win over Charles Sturt University last Saturday. Both teams are more than likely to go head-to-head in the elimination final next Sunday.

The seniors will be one of five teams representing EWK in the Farrer League finals.

What the club is most proud of is the fact three of those will be netball teams, including A grade who will end a finals drought.

"We would like to congratulate all grades, both football and netball who are playing finals this year," Cuthbert said.

'Its Hard to say Goodbye'

"For netball it has been a phenomenal turn around having three grades playing finals! An incredible effort from Claudia Barton for making this happen."

The success on field this season is just one of a number of components that has the Hawks excited about the future.

The work the club has done in a number of spaces in recent years is matched by a desire to continue to improve across all areas.

"Going forward the club is in a fantastic position to be successful and flourish for many years to come," Cuthbert said.

"We are always looking to improve and grow both on and off the field/court.

"In recent times we have added women's AFL team and junior girls AFL. Amy Coote has been the major driver and does a tremendous job.

"Junior football and netball has been a major focus for us. Brad Miller along with all the junior volunteers and coaches are striving to achieve growth and improvement.

"The outcome is success and enjoyment!"

Cuthbert added that the club's success would not be possible without their biggest supporters.

"We would like to thank our major sponsors Koorringal Hotel, Harrison & Higgins, Supermix Concrete and Quarries, RSM Australia, Carpet Court and Paul Bourne Homes," he said.

"Our club is a better place because of your support."

RISING STAR

Netball - Poppy Hulm

Position: GD, WD

Poppy is one of the Hawks, exciting young players coming to the club this year. In her first year at EWK, Poppy has cemented her spot in the A grade side at the age of 14. – What an achievement!

Poppy has applied herself, week in week out, and continues, to go from strength to strength.

Poppy applies a high work ethic to the team and brings many important skills to the group, Poppy's Versatility, Speed, Eagerness to learn, and overall confidence, has proven a key asset to the team structure and has boosted our defensive pressure.

Poppy most recently represented Wagga in the U14 Junior State Titles, where Poppy was named one of the team captains, leading a successful campaign coming home with the trophy.

We are so excited to have Poppy out at EWK and cannot wait to see what the future holds for her not only in the Brown and Gold, but all other avenues and competitions Poppy is a part of.

Football - Ryan Bourne

Ryan has had a breakout season playing predominately midfield / forward role. Ryan is highly skilled and plays with courage beyond his years.

Ryan is a natural footballer and can hit targets on both feet and generally clean with his hands and makes good decisions.

Being an EWK Junior and into his 3rd year of Senior Footy we are seeing his talent really blossom and we look forward to seeing more for many years to come, Ryan has the potential to be a future leader of the club.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Peter Amos

Peter came to our club when his son, Julian, started playing football in U17's in 2005.

For the past 18 years Peter has been actively involved with the club as a committee member and club secretary for many of them.

Peter stepped down as secretary at the end of last year but that didn't mean he had walked away from assisting with duties involved in running the club.

Peter continues in many roles including Game day operations, Pub raffle and wears many other hats when needed.

We are extremely grateful to have Peter and thank him for all his hard work.

FFNL PREVIEW

Coleambally Blues v Marrar Bombers

Coleambally will look to finish a gallant season on a high when they host Marrar for their final game of the home and away season on Saturday.

The Blues would be happy with their efforts this season, climbing off the bottom of the Farrer League ladder despite losing a stack of experienced talent over the off-season. First-year coach Jamie Bennett did a terrific job getting the most out the list, they just simply lacked some top end talent of rival clubs, and depth.

The recruitment of the four footballers from Tiwi Islands was a success with Stanley Tipiloura proving one of the players of the competition this year. He should find himself in the Farrer League Team of the Year, and would be stiff not to take out the club best and fairest. Kyle Pete, James Buchanan and Darcy Mader are others to have enjoyed fine seasons.

Marrar make the trip fresh from the bye, looking to register their seventh straight win. The Bombers haven't been a side to put teams away by big margins so Coleambally would take confidence in that. Marrar do however expect to be virtually full-strength, so a week out from finals you'd expect them to be firing on all cylinders.

Prediction: Marrar by 65 points

Charles Sturt University Bushpigs v Temora Kangaroos

There is still just a little bit riding in this one as Charles Sturt University need to get the job done to ensure there is no chance they get knocked out of the top five.

The Bushpigs were as disappointing as they have been in some time last week when they failed to measure up against East Wagga-Koorngal. The 53-point margin was their second biggest loss all year, and came at a time when their form had never been better. It's important that a few CSU players get their confidence back before finals hits and another clash against the Hawks await.

Connor Kelly's absence was felt in defence last week and CSU should get him back, while Hamish Warwick and Dylan McPhail are hopefully not too far away either. When it comes to ins, Temora will be hoping Joe Morton and Riley Hubbard can get back for the final round and cap off what has been very good seasons individually.

Temora, despite the return of Jimmy Kennedy and inclusion of Tim McAuley, were still unable to get near Barellan last week. It's been a disappointing season from the Kangaroos, but given they only had Will Reinhold for two games, the same with Tim McAuley, and prized ruck signing Brayden Burgess never played a game due to injury, they have excuses.

The Kangaroos will be looking to finish the year off with a notable performance, while for CSU, it is important they regain form ahead of another crack at finals a week later.

Prediction: CSU by 36 points

FFNL PREVIEW

Northern Jets v Barellan Two Blues

Expect Barellan to make the trip to Ardlethan and give it everything they've got given the faint finals chance they still have rests on an upset of the Jets.

That is what is left of Barellan after a tough win against Temora last week. The Two Blues played the final quarter out one man down due to injuries. Shaun Bouchier and Emerson Cody both went down with knee injuries, while Jason Taylor and Mick Fiore won't play after copping heavy knocks.

Northern Jets, meantime, will be close to full-strength with Hamish Gaynor the only one expecting to be missing. If Chris Bell returns it will be his 300th first grade game for the club and that is a milestone the Jets' won't want to let him down on. Bell has been a fantastic servant of the club and Farrer League and still has plenty more to look forward to this season.

Barellan will come and give it their all but it's hard to see them knocking over the Jets, who will be ready and raring to go for their first finals series in quite some time.

Prediction: Northern Jets by 52 points

The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies v East Wagga-Koorringal Hawks

An interesting final round clash where two finals teams go at it.

While both teams' equations won't change with the result of this game, in a way they both have everything to play for. A final round loss would be the last thing the Magpies want as they prepare for a massive finals series. And East Wagga-Koorringal, they wound back the clock last week with one of their best efforts of the year. They will want to build on that momentum, not have it quashed on the eve of finals.

EWK will be without captain Luke Cuthbert, but should get Trent Garner back. Liam Hard showed he could be a real X-factor come finals with a strong return last week, while Jarrad Boumann's capabilities were well and truly on display.

TRYC get Dean Biermann back from his overseas jaunt for the final round, while Curtis Steele, among others, may also come back for it. It's all about balancing the need for preservation and maintaining form for the Magpies. And to a similar extent, the Hawks as well.

Prediction: TRYC by 30 points
