RFL PREVIEW

Griffith Swans v MCUE Goannas

The MCUE Goannas make the road trip to Griffith on Saturday, and the Goannas are tipped to be one of the teams to beat in 2022.

Fourth-year coach Jeremy Rowe is still in charge and will welcome back Nick McCormack, Isaac Damme, Matt Collins, Connor Quade, Tim Smith and Zac Wiencke as the Goannas look to make a genuine tilt at winning the RFL flag.

On Saturday, they play a Griffith side that struggled with two wins in 2021.

Coach Greg Dreyer will have to make-do with local talent, with the Swans unable to land any major recruits in the preseason, although there have been good signs in preseason hit-outs.

Still, this is a tough first-up test for Griffith against a very strong Goannas outfit.

Location: Griffith Ex-Servicemen's Fields

Last time they met: MCUE won 14.10 (94) to 7.7. (49) in round 12 2021.

Prediction: MCUE by 36 points

Narrandera Eagles v Coolamon Rovers

It could be a tough hit-out for Narrandera in the opening round of the RFL when facing Coolamon.

Premiership winning coach Shaun Brooker is back for his third stint as coach of the Eagles, and he has welcomed Shannon Randell and Ben Jamieson in what has been a relatively quiet preseason for the Blue and Gold, who finished with just two wins and the wooden spoon in 2021.

Youngsters have shown their worth in preseason trials though and the Eagles will look to build their talent and depth throughout 2022.

Narrandera take on a Coolamon team expected to be RFL heavyweights in 2022.

The Hoppers, led by Mark Carroll and Jake Barrett, have added Shae Darcy and Allister Clarke, as well as Leeton-Whitton recruit Bailey Wood.

Coolamon finished fourth in 2022, and the Hoopers should be thereabouts again come finals.

Location: Narrandera Sportsground

Last time they met: Coolamon won 15.30 (120) to 2.7 (19) in round 9, 2021.

Prediction: Coolamon by 30 points

Collingullie GP Demons v Turvey Park Bulldogs

The Brett Somerville-led Demons are expected to be one of the big RFL improvers in 2022, following the return of Steven Jolliffe, plus the addition of key forwards Andrew Clifford and Sam Stening.

Collingullie finished fifth in 2021, and according to most pundits, they will be pushing for a top-three finish this season.

Turvey Park boasts good pre-season trial form, beating both CSU and North Wagga, with former Eagle Corey Baxter kicking six goals in his debut game against the Bushpigs.

Andrew Emery, who returns to the club in 2022 after a Hume league stint, also looked good and Tim Doyle is expected to make an impact in the Michael Mazzocchi-led side.

It's a tough first-up match for the Bulldogs though, making the trip to face the Demons.

Location: Crossroads Oval

Last time they met: Demons won 11.6 (72) to 5.8 (38) in round 14, 2021.

Prediction: Collingullie by 24 points

GGGM Lions v Wagga Tigers

This shapes as a terrific match between last season's Minor Premiers, the GGGM Lions, and the third-placed Wagga Tigers.

The Lions will again be led by Sam Martyn

Connor Krebsler, Mitch Taylor, Jethro Peck and Jeremy Piercy add to what is already a strong Lions line-up that is one of the favourites to win the 2022 RFL flag.

The Wagga Tigers will be hard to beat again in 2022 but haven't been as busy on the recruitment front.

Following the key losses of Brendy Myers, Charlie Bance and Hamish Gilmore, the Tigers will also be without Lewis Waters, who is sidelined with a broken jaw, which he suffered in a preseason hit-out.

Jesse Manton returns, and the club have welcomed Ben Gould from Culcairn, but coach Murray Stephenson will be hoping young talent can fill the remaining voids.

Location: Ganmain Sportsground

Last time they met: Tigers won 12.12 (84) to 10.9 (69) in round 15, 2021.

Prediction: Lions by 12 points

Jets happy to own Farrer League Underdog tag

BY JEFF HANSON

The Northern Jets have kicked off their 2022 campaign in the best possible fashion, beating the North Wagga Saints in round one of the Farrer League competition.

Hosting the Saints at Aria Park Recreation Reserve, the Jets were more accurate in front of goal, scoring 7.6 (48) to the Saints 5.16 (46).

Key forward Matt Wallis delivered the winning points, with a clever goal to put his side in front in the final minute, before a behind with his final kick secured the win.

Jets President Simon Gaynor was thrilled to see his side upset the competition heavyweights in an exciting contest in front of a large and boisterous home crowd.

"We had a big turnout and to have the whole crowd on tender hooks and coming from behind to win; it was great," Gaynor said.

"Matt Wallis can make unbelievable things happen, and he did it again scoring a goal to take us ahead and to win was unbelievable."

Gaynor envisioned a very close 2022 Farrer League and while he conceded the Jets weren't considered heavyweights, he said a youthfully exuberant side would own and take pride of their 'underdogs' tag this season.

"This is the best competition I have probably ever seen in the (Farrer) League," Gaynor said. "We have The Rock (Yerong Creek) next week, and they will be hungry for a win, and they will be favourites, and it will be like another grand final for us, but we don't mind being the underdogs."

Jets happy to own Farrer League

Underdog tag

BY JEFF HANSON

For the Jets, they rely on a strong local base, and Gaynor explained it was no different in 2022, with coach Josh Avis and club-leader Mal Douglas guiding a young but exciting list.

“We are locally based, and we rely on our juniors coming through and filling our seniors,” Gaynor said.

“We are not about trying to take players from other clubs, but about building our local footballers and securing our future.

“All we ask from our players is that dedication and commitment and Josh and Mal are doing a great job with the group.”

The Jets finished fifth in 2021, winning nine games in the process, and Gaynor believed 2022 would be a bigger and better year for the club.

“There were 46-odd players that went through first-grade last year as we were bleeding youngsters and they will all be better for it,” Gaynor said.

“They will make mistakes, and be ball hungry, but with education, they will play to our team plans and play quality football for the four quarters and give those big clubs a run for their money.”

The Jets face The Rock Yerong Creek on Saturday, in what is a big day for AFL Riverina, with their 2022 season fully underway with round two of the Farrer League to be played, while the Riverina Football League officially kicks off.

FFNL PREVIEW

EWK Hawks v Temora Kangaroos

The Hawks drew with the Marrar Bombers in round one and the Wagga side will be looking forward to landing their first win at home on Saturday.

East Wagga showed good signs against Marrar, leading comfortably before the Bombers fought back, and they will be better for the game when taking on the Temora Kangaroos, who had a bye in round one.

Russell Humphrey takes charge of Temora following the departure of Jacob Wooden, and new and returning players Sam Jensen, Tim Shea, Kieren Shea, Justin Galloway, Dan Leary, Charlie Boynton and Pat Walker are expected to take the Roos to finals in 2022. Still, the Hawks could prove an imposing first-up challenge for the Blue and Whites.

Location: Gumly Gumly Oval

Last time they met: Hawks won 9.12 (66) to 6.6 (42) in round 12, 2021.

Prediction: Hawks by 18 points

North Wagga Saints v Marrar Bombers

Another very good game of Farrer League action will see both the Saints and Bombers chasing their first win of the 2022 season on Saturday.

North Wagga fell to the Northern Jets on the road in round one, but they are back at home on Saturday.

Accuracy in front of goal cost the Saints, who kicked eight more scoring shots than the Jets, but that included a woeful 15 behinds as they went down 7.6 (48) to 5.16 (46), and they will need to be more accurate to beat the Bombers.

Goal-kicking accuracy also cruelled Marrar on Saturday, with the Bombers kicking 10 behinds when drawing 7.10 (52) with the East Wagga-Kooringal Hawks 8.4 (52). In a match that is hard to pick, accuracy in front of goal will no doubt make all the difference.

Location: McPherson Oval

Last time they met: Marrar won 10.8 (68) to 5.6 (36) in round 13, 2021.

Prediction: Marrar by 12 points

TRYC Magpies v Northern Jets

This match shapes to be the game of the round, with the highly touted Magpies hosting the giant-killing Northern Jets.

The Rock Yerong Creek were surprise losers to Barellan in round one, but they are back at home on Saturday.

In an interesting contest, the Magpies will be better for the hit-out, but the Jets have a habit of playing well against the top teams, and with many pundits expecting The Rock to be thereabouts at the season's end, it would be no surprise to see the jets land their second shock win in a row.

Location: Victoria Park

Last time they met: Jets won 15.6 (96) to 10.11 (71) in round 14, 2021.

Prediction: Jets by 6 points

Coleambally Blues v Barellan Two Blues

Barellan enter this match fresh off a surprise 9.5 (59) to 7.12 (54) win over The Rock Yerong Creek in round one of the competition, which was sealed by a James McCabe goal on the siren.

The Two Blues have recruited well, and they proved many doubters wrong on Saturday, landing a good win over the Magpies.

Barellan take on rivals Coleambally on Saturday in a match that is sure to evoke plenty of emotions. The Blues were well beaten by CSU 10.12 (72) to 5.4 (34) before the game was called off at three-quarter time due to an injury to Bushpigs' midfielder, John Bowie.

Coleambally will need to improve to beat Barellan at home.

Location: Coleambally Sports Grounds

Last time they met: Barellan won 11.9 (75) to 7.6 (48) in round 17, 2021.

Prediction: Barellan by 18 points
