RFNL PREVIEW

GGGM Lions v Leeton-Whitton Crows

The Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions will be aiming to keep their unbeaten record alive when hosting the Leeton-Whitton Crows in round six of the Riverina League.

Following five rounds, the Lions have been the team to beat, and they proved that on Sunday when accounting for the second-placed Collingullie-GP Demons 15.12 (102) to 15.2 (92). It could get ugly on Saturday though when taking on the winless Leeton-Whitton Crows.

The Crows were thrashed 21.12 (138) to 8.1 (49) by the MCUE Goannas in round five, and they haven't really looked like winning in recent games. If Leeton-Whitton are to go close in this contest, they will need to find a gear or three if they are to compete with, let alone beat the Lions.

Location: Ganmain Sportsground

Last time they met: GGGM defeated Leeton-Whitton 17.23 (125) to 4.2 (26) in round 4, 2021.

Prediction: Lions by 72.

MCUE Goannas v Narrandera Eagles

The MCUE Goannas turned a tough run of games around on Saturday when belting the Leeton-Whitton Crows (138) to 8.1 (49) in round five of the Riverina League and they will want to keep the winning run going when hosting Narrandera on Saturday.

The Goannas have players returning and look to be building but they come up against a Narrandera side that is hard to get a read on.

The Eagles defeated Leeton-Whitton in round three to secure their first win of the season before falling to the Collingullie-GP Demons by 103 points in round four.

In round five, Narrandera registered a surprise win against the Wagga Tigers, getting the job done 10.10 (70) to 9.12 (66), suggesting they are in the midst of turning their fortunes around. MCUE will be a tougher task, but if they Eagles can fire, they could cause the Goannas a few headaches.

Location: Mangoplah Sportsground

Last time they met: MCUE defeated Narrandera 10.17 (77) to 6.9 (45) in round 15, 2021.

Prediction: Goannas by 18

RFNL PREVIEW

Collingullie GP Demons v Wagga Tigers

Not many Riverina League pundits would have predicted the Wagga Tigers to go through the first five rounds of the 2022 competition winless, but that is the predicament facing coach Murray Stephenson and his side.

The Tigers fell to the Narrandera Eagles 10.10 (70) to 9.12 (66) on Saturday and only sit ahead of the last-placed Leeton-Whitton on percentages.

Things get tougher for the Tigers, who take on the second-placed Collingullie-GP Demons on Saturday in round six.

The Demons fell just 10 points short of the high-flying Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions on Sunday, and a repeat of that effort would have them winning this contest with ease.

Still, a trip to Robertson Oval is never easy and the Tigers will be up for the contest.

Location: Robertson Oval.

Last time they met: Collingullie-GP defeated Wagga Tiger 8.5 (53) to 5.11 (41) in round 9, 2021.

Prediction: Demons by 36

Coolamon Hoppers v Turvey Park Bulldogs

The Coolamon Hoppers host the Turvey Park Bulldogs in what should be the match of the round in the Riverina League.

Coolamon have learned to win ugly in the early stages of 2022 and following close wins over Wagga Tigers in round three and MCUE in round four, the Hoppers are fresh off the bye in round five and meet the Bulldogs with fresh leg on Sunday.

Turvey Park have been the surprise packets of the 2022 competition and sit second after losing just one game in the opening five rounds.

The Bulldogs certainly know how to score some points too, but they will experience the ultimate test when taking on a Coolamon side known for suffocating offences.

Either way pundits look at this contest, both teams appear to be major players this season and the match could very well go down to the wire.

Location: Kindra Park.

Last time they met: Turvey Park defeated Coolamon 9.6 (60) to 7.12 (54) in round 10, 2021.

Prediction: Hoppers by 12.

'Coolamon happy to fly under the radar'

BY JEFF HANSON

The Coolamon Hoopers might not be blowing teams out of the water through the first five rounds of the 2022 Riverina league, but they have made winning a habit and sit in fourth place, equal on 12 points with the second-placed Turvey Park, third-placed Collingullie-GP Demons and fifth-placed MCUE Goannas.

The Mark Carroll and Jake Barrett-led Hoppers were good against Narrandera in round one, winning easily in the season opener, before losing to the Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions in round two.

Then in rounds three and four, Coolamon defeated the Wagga Tigers by six points before edging the MCUE Goannas by five points, which were both low-scoring affairs.

While Coolamon didn't set the world alight against either side, Carroll was just happy to see his Hoppers winning, and he believes their recent wins are character building results.

"We have been good over the last two games against Tigers and Mangoplah. We weren't quite at full strength, and they were two pretty important wins," Carroll said.

"Mango is always a tough game, and to come away with a win there is always good and it's a result we are pretty proud of."

Coolamon have been missing players here and there, although Carroll said it was the same for all clubs, with injury and illness part and parcel of the 2022 season of Riverina League football.

"I suppose we have had a few injuries, but not heaps," Carroll said.

"We have three or four out, and we have lost a few with a bit of Covid stuff and the flu, but all clubs have gone through that this season."

'Coolamon happy to fly under the radar'

BY JEFF HANSON

Following a bye in round five, Coolamon have a chance to make a statement against Carroll's old club on Sunday when hosting the Turvey Park Bulldogs at Kindra Park.

The Bulldogs are in good form and have really turned it on at times in 2022, recording some big wins over Narrandera, Leeton-Whitton and Griffith, and Carroll admitted that his side will need to play well to beat Turvey Park.

"Turvey Park are a very good team," Carroll said.

"They have recruited very well, and it is going to be a challenge for us no doubt.

"We have a bit of work to do to catch the top teams, and Turvey Park are one of the top teams this season, and they are playing good football at the moment and hopefully the boys are up for it."

Carroll hopes his side can land a win over the Bulldogs, but he still believes Coolamon has some way to go before they can be considered a contender.

"I think we have got a lot of improvement in us," Carroll said.

"We are a bit behind the top ones; teams like the Ganmains, the Gullies, the Mangoes and the Turvey Parks.

"We have done well to win those games we have, but we just need to keep improving and get tougher, fitter and harder and just try and improve as the season goes and see where that leads us."

FFNL PREVIEW

East Wagga-Koorringal Hawks v CSU Bushpigs

This round seven Farrer League fixture showcases two Wagga teams boasting winning form, with the high-flying East Wagga-Koorringal Hawks hosting the CSU Bushpigs.

The Hawks sit second on the ladder and are fresh off a huge 77-point win over the struggling Coleambally Blues, saluting 16.13 (109) to 4.9 (32).

It was the Hawks second win on the trot, after accounting for The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies in round five, and the Wagga side will hope to make it three in a row against the Bushpigs on Saturday.

CSU put a run of three losses behind them on Saturday when surprising the Temora Kangaroos 13.7 (85) to 4.8 (32) at home in round six of the competition.

The Hawks will be a tougher task, especially at Gumly Gumly Oval, but in the all-Wagga derby, it should be a solid game, with both sides out to make a statement.

Location: Gumly Gumly Oval.

Last time they met: Hawks defeated Bushpigs 18.15 (123) to 6.5 (41) in round 18, 2021.

Prediction: Hawks by 24 points.

Marrar Bombers v Northern Jets

The top of the table Marrar Bombers takes on rivals and fellow Farrer League heavyweights the Northern Jets in round seven of the Farrer League.

The Bombers made a statement in their first verse second clash against Barellan on Saturday, winning 13.13 (91) to 5.6 (36), and they will be firing at home against the Jets.

In contrast, the Ardlethan side is fresh off a bye and will head into the contest ready and raring to give the Bombers a run for their money.

Northern Jets have been good at times in 2022, although consistency has cruelled their season, which was evident back in round five when well beaten at home by the Barellan Two Blues.

A week off should boost their chances, with fresh legs taking the field, but the Bombers are shaping as the team to beat in 2022 and this is a tough contest.

Location: Langtry Oval.

Last time they met: Bombers defeated Jets 12.11 (83) to 7.10 (52) in round 10, 2021.

Prediction: Marrar by 12 points.

North Wagga Saints v Coleambally Blues

North Wagga cannot take a trick in 2022, and following six rounds of the competition, the usually strong club boasts just one win in seniors.

The Saints were staring down yet another defeat against The Rock-Yerong Creek on Saturday, trailing by a goal until Josh Thompson booted a near-50 metre major on the siren to level the scores 11.8 (74) to the Magpies 10.14 (74).

The Saints will be hoping the draw is a sign their season is turning around and on Saturday, they host a winless and struggling Coleambally Blues.

The Blues were thrashed 16.13 (109) to 4.9 (32) by the East Wagga-Koorringal Hawks in round six, and to be completely honest, it is hard to see them winning a game in the near future.

The Saints have struggled, and this still be Coleambally's best chance of victory in some time, but they will have to be at their best to match it with the Wagga club on their home track.

Location: McPherson Oval.

Last time they met: Saints defeated Blues 16.7 (103) to 5.6 (36) in round 12, 2021.

Prediction: North Wagga by 24 points.

Temora Kangaroos v Barellan Two Blues

Another good rivalry match arrives here in round seven of the Farrer League, with the Temora Kangaroos hosting the Barellan Two Blues.

Both sides will be smarting after tough losses in round six, with Temora surprised by the CSU Bushpigs 13.7 (85) to 4.8 (32), while Barellan were beaten 13.13 (91) to 5.6 (36) by the Marrar Bombers in their top of the table clash.

Temora have been the surprise packets of 2022, and if they want to be considered contenders, they need to beat Barellan on Saturday, especially when playing at home at the always tough Nixon Park.

The Two Blues will get another chance to fly away from home, and they will be expected to beat the Kangaroos and maintain their lofty position on the Farrer League table.

Location: Nixon Park.

Last time they met: Kangaroos defeated Two Blues 12.9 (81) to 11.7 (73) in round 15, 2021.

Prediction: Barellan by 6 points.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Volunteer of the Year Nomination: Cameron Lewis

Cam Lewis is the sort of member that every Club needs. He's genuinely a jack-of-all-trades and a master of a few as well, and puts no boundary on how he contributes to the Hoppers. His support in the juniors is enormous.

If he's not setting up the registrations and managing PlayHQ, he's organising footy jumpers for the various sides, setting up game sheets for Team Managers and supporting the coaches with off season and in season programs.

But it doesn't stop there. Even though he has no kids in the senior footy ranks yet, you can guarantee Cam's putting his hand up to operate the scoreboard, never, ever misses a Club working bee and consistently reaches out to offer support. Every, single, week.

By Thursday the phone starts to beep with 'what do you need done this week mate?', taking pressure of game day organisers in any way possible and just trying to ease the load on others. Thanks for all your support Cam!

RISING STAR NOMINATIONS

NETBALL NOMINATION:

MOLLY SLOAN

Aged: 18 years

Position: GA

Molly is a dynamic and valuable member of the Hoppers A Grade team. Molly brings to the Hoppers team energy and enthusiasm and is well-known by her teammates for her positive encouragement both on and off the court. Molly commenced her netball career with the Hoppers as a junior player and has progressed to the senior ranks. She made her A Grade debut in 2021 and has become a prominent and consistent team member of the 2022 A Grade team, continuing to display the same talents, attributes, skills and ability that she has throughout her netball career with the Hoppers. Well done Molly!

FOOTBALL NOMINATION:

NICK BUCHANAN

Aged: 20 years

Number : 3

Position : Half Back

Nick has been with the Hoppers since his Auskick days, and although he dominated as a lead forward in juniors, he has really developed as a key half back in the Hoppers First Grade team. He had a massive off-season after injury caused a premature end to his 2021 campaign and with his hard work rewarded with selection in Round 1, he now plays a vital role in the Hoppers back six. Nick loves a challenge and already has great respect from his opponents for his ability to read the ball well in flight and consistently nullify opposition raids forward. He's also managed to max out his teammate's respect as well, on the back of toughness around the footy, attitude to gut run and willingness to take on Jerry Maslin in the mullet competition. Into his fourth season of first grade footy, Nick has already played over 30 first grade games and is destined for a long term stay at the top in the green and white. Well done Nick!

MILESTONES

Send your club milestones to:
RIVERINARECORD@AFL.COM.AU

It's National Volunteering Week,

so AFL RIVERINA wants to say a massive thanks to everyone who volunteers in football.

This year's theme is Better Together, and with without volunteers, footy wouldn't be able to operate.
