RFNL PREVIEW

Coolamon Hoppers v Leeton-Whitton Crows

Coolamon and forward Jerry Maslin fired against Turvey Park in round six of the competition, with Maslin kicking five at the Hoppers won 14.7 (91) to 11.6 (72).

The Bulldogs had been the big improvers of 2022, but the Hoppers were strong, and now sit in third on the Riverina League ladder, boasting four wins from six games.

On Saturday, Coolamon are back at home and host the winless Leeton-Whitton Crows in round seven.

The Crows were flogged 19.16 (130) to 7.3 (45) by GGGM when on the road in round six, and things only get tougher with another hard away trip.

This could get ugly if Coolamon continue to find their mojo.

Location: Kindra Park

Last time they met: Coolamon won 11.13 (79) to 9.8 (62) in round 12, 2021.

Prediction: Coolamon by 42 points

Collingullie-GP Demons v MCUE Goannas

Riverina League's match of the round will see the Collingullie-Glenfield Park Demons take on the Mangoplah-Cookardina United Eastlakes (MCUE) Goannas.

Trent Castles returned for MCUE in round six and kicked 11 goals when helping the Goannas to a 15.8 (98) 10.8 (68) win over the ever-improving Narrandera Eagles.

MCUE has also added former SANFL player Ben Fisher and are starting to welcome back more players from injury as they build into the 2022 season.

After suffering their first loss of the season when going down to GGGM 15.12 (102) to 15.2 (92) in round five, the Collingullie-GP Demons bounced back in round six, belting Wagga Tigers 16.9 (105) to 7.7 (49).

This is a big game for both sides, and it could very well go down to the wire.

Location: Crossroads Oval

Last time they met: MCUE won 16.10 (106) to 5.6 (36) in round 17, 2021.

Prediction: Collingullie-GP by 6

RFNL PREVIEW

Wagga Tigers v Griffith Swans

Could this be the week that the Wagga Tigers finally break their losing streak?

Through six rounds of the Riverina League, the Tigers are winless, and on Saturday they take on Griffith, who boast just the one win this season.

The Tigers were well handled by the Collingullie-Glenfield Park Demons 16.10 (105) to 7.7 (49) in round six, and they will need to be better to beat the Swans.

Griffith, who won their only game in round two when knocking off the winless Leeton-Whitton, are fresh off a bye for this match.

The Swans will welcome this game, after being forced to play Collingullie-Glenfield Park, GGGM and Turvey Park in rounds three, four and five.

It's another must-win Riverina League game, and it could very well be season over for the loser.

Location: Robertson Oval

Last time they met: Wagga Tigers won 7.9 (51) to 1.2 (8) in round 13, 2021.

Prediction: Griffith by 6

Turvey Park Bulldogs v GGGM Lions

Turvey Park were flying high in the Riverina League until they faced Coolamon in round six, with the Bulldogs going down 14.7 (91) to 11.6 (72) to the Hoppers.

It gets much harder for the Bulldogs in round seven, when hosting the top of the table and unbeaten GGGM Lions.

The Lions trounced Leeton-Whitton 19.16 (130) to 7.3 (45) in round six, and apart from a good contest against Collingullie-Glenfield Park in round five, no other sides have really come close to beating GGGM.

This will be a good test for the Bulldogs, but they will need to be at their biting best to be any chance of springing an upset win.

Location: Maher Oval

Last time they met: GGGM won 19.13 (127) to 2.2 (14) in round 11, 2021.

Prediction: GGGM by 24

'Coleambally chasing breakthrough win'

BY JEFF HANSON

It's no secret that the first seven rounds of the 2022 Farrer League competition have been a hard slog for the Coleambally Blues.

The Luke Hillier-led side remains winless, with a round two draw against Barellan their only bright spot.

It's not for a lack of trying though, with a particularly young group of players giving it their best week in and week out, even when missing a slew of senior players at different stages of the season.

"We are working hard and the boys are trying," said Coleambally Blues President Glen Tooth.

"It's just about getting the team to click together, and they are working hard to get it right.

"A few games haven't quite gone the way we wanted, and it takes a bit to get that confidence back."

Tooth is adamant that confidence, or more importantly finding some confidence, will be key to the Blues fortunes as the second half of the season fast approaches.

"Confidence is everything. When you're up and about and everything is going well, it's easy to play well and win games," Tooth explained.

"Unfortunately, when you miss a few, and a few tights ones don't go your way, it can be hard."

'Coleambally chasing breakthrough win'

BY JEFF HANSON

Despite their tough start to the season, Tooth hopes the experience is character building for a young group, who will only improve the more they play together.

"We are working together, and we have quite a few new fellas and young fellas too," Tooth said. "They are getting games under their belt, which is important and there is only one or two blokes over 30, and a majority of the team is under 25, and we just need to keep working at it and hopefully everything falls into place.

"This is definitely character building, and a lot of teams have been through it, and we will be better for it."

Luke Hillier has been trying his hardest to deliver Coleambally a win, and he earned the praises of his president.

"We probably haven't had a full team since round one, and against Temora, we had eight senior players out with Covid and that was a game we might have picked up," Tooth said.

"Still, the reserves stepped up and played well, and some blokes played two games.

"It's tough for him, but Luke is playing well and trying hard and the guys are doing their best."

Coleambally are at home in round eight of the Farrer League competition when hosting The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies and Tooth just wants to see the Blues play a good four quarters of football.

"If we can get four quarters together, it will all fall into place," Tooth said.

"We have played some great footy, but lapses have let other teams off the hook.

"We can win some matches and knock a few off, and I'm confident things will be turning around soon."

FFNL PREVIEW

Northern Jets v Temora Kangaroos

Old foes meet when the Northern Jets host the Temora Kangaroos at Arianh Park Recreation Reserve in round eight of the Farrer League on Saturday.

This match is set-up to be an entertaining top-five contest, and with such a compact ladder, it quickly becomes a big match to win for both sides.

Temora fell to Barellan 10.11 (71) to 10.7 (67) in round seven after leading by three goals at half time, and they will be looking for more consistency against the Jets.

The Northern Jets also lost in round seven, going down to the top of the table Marrar 8.15 (63) to 8.6 (54).

The Josh Avis-led side have played well in 2022, but consistency has to let them down, and in what should be a good contest, they will want to get one back over the Russell Humphrey-coached Roos on Saturday.

Location: Arianh Park Recreation Reserve

Last time they met: Temora won 19.7 (121) to 13.14 (92) in round 16, 2021.

Prediction: Northern Jets by 6

Barellan Two Blues v EWK Hawks

Saturday's round eight Farrer League fixture between Barellan and East Wagga-Koorringal (EWK) has the potential to be the match of the round and one of the more entertaining games of the season thus far.

The second-placed Hawks are level with Barellan on points but ahead due to a superior percentage.

With Marrar on the bye, whoever wins this game will move to a clear and outright second behind the Bombers, while the loser will have a handful of teams breathing down their neck.

The Two Blues proved their worth when coming from behind to defeat Temora 10.11 (71) to 10.7 (67) in round seven, and EWK are fresh off an 8.11 (59) to 5.5 (35) win over CSU and will be up for this tough contest.

Location: Barellan Recreation Ground

Last time they met: EWK Hawks won 17.10 (112) to 7.6 (48) in round 16, 2021.

Prediction: EWK by 2

Coleambally Blues v TRYC Magpies

The winless Coleambally Blues are back at home this week and they will be chasing their first win of the season when hosting TRYC Magpies in round eight of the Farrer League.

The Blues fell to North Wagga 12.20 (92) to 2.4 (16) in round seven, and they meet another strong outfit in the form of the Magpies, who are fresh off the bye.

The week off came at a good time after back-to-back tough encounters where the TRYC were beaten 9.10 (64) to 9.5 (59) by EWK in round five, then drew with North Wagga 10.14 (74) to their 11.8 (74) in round six.

It is a must-win game for the Magpies, who only have the two wins to show for their efforts during the 2022 season.

Location: Coleambally Sportsground

Last time they met: TRYC won 16.13 (109) to 13.12 (90) in round 11, 2021.

Prediction: TRYC by 30 points

CSU Bushpigs v North Wagga Saints

The Saints finally came marching in against the Blues in round seven of the Farrer League, with North Wagga belting the winless Coleambally 12.20 (92) to 2.4 (16).

It was the Saints second win of the year, after what was a very slow start, and coach Cayden Winter will be hoping his side can register a third against the CSU Bushpigs in round eight of the competition.

The Bushpigs bounced back in round six, beating Temora, but in round seven they were well-handled by EWK, losing 8.11 (59) to 5.5 (35) in a low-scoring affair.

With the halfway mark of the season only just around the corner, this is a must-win game for both Wagga sides, and there will be plenty to play for at Peter Hastie Oval.

Location: Peter Hastie Oval

Last time they met: North Wagga Saints won 8.14 (62) to 2.7 (19) in round 16, 2021.

Prediction: North Wagga by 24 points

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Volunteer of the Year Nomination: Damian Mannes

Damian Mannes is a great Club supporter and volunteer for CFNC. He is a reliable member of our club who shows up early, leaves late and gets the job done. Damian has been involved with CFNC since 1982 when he played under 14's footy for CFNC and continues to work hard behind the scenes for our club. Damian was coach of CFNC Reserve grade for 333 games and played 323 Senior games for CFNC. He was also a part of the 1993 and 2005 premierships teams and was Senior best and fairest in 1995.

In 2022, line marking of the oval is just one of the many thankless tasks that Damian does for our club. He is always the first to volunteer as goal umpire and is also involved in our Clubs fund raising activities. He sees benefit in supporting our small community and the time he dedicates to the Coleambally Community Demonstration Farm as the CFNC representative goes unnoticed to most players and supporters, but is a large part of the club's community contribution. It's this club and community spirit that makes Damian worthy of this nomination.

Volunteers like Damian who get in and get the job done create a great family club atmosphere where the players supporters and parents enjoy to be.

The Club thanks Damian for all the volunteer hours he does for our club and for being a great role model for players and volunteers.

RISING STAR NOMINATIONS

NETBALL NOMINATION: ASH HATWELL

Position: WD

Ash is a dynamic and valuable member of the Coly blues A grade team. Ash brings to the team energy, enthusiasm and her positive encouragement both on and off the court. Ash commenced her netball career at the blues in 2022 after making the shift from Leeton crows.

Being her first season at CFNC bringing her outstanding talents, attributes, skills and ability has been a huge assist to not only the team but the club as well! We look forward to see what the rest of the season unfolds for you Ash.

Congratulations Ash!

FOOTBALL NOMINATION: LIAM HORTON

Liam is a dedicated and motivated young man he's always first at training and first to ask questions. His willingness to want to learn the game and improve his skills is second to none.

With only a handful of games under his belt and these attributes he carries the more senior games he plays the sky is the limit.

The improvement he has shown this year already makes him a prime candidate for this award, his hard work on and off the field leaves me full of confidence that his improvement each week will have him continue to grow as a footballer.

Congratulations Liam
