RFL PREVIEW

MCUE Goannas v Griffith Swans

MCUE will be smarting following their 10.10 (70) to 10.9 (69) loss to Turvey Park in round nine and the Goannas will be out to make a statement against the struggling Griffith Swans.

The Goannas sit in fifth place, just one game ahead of Narrandera, and if they want to consolidate their finals position heading into the second half of the season, they will need to win well.

Griffith on the other hand have just the one win to their name in 2022, and they were belted by Wagga Tigers and Coolamon in rounds seven and eight before an improved showing when going down to the Narrandera Eagles (86) to 10.12 (72) in round nine.

The Swans have a tough task at hand, visiting Mangoplah Sportsground, and if they don't show up, it could be another long day on the paddock.

Location: Mangoplah Sportsground.

Last time they met: MCUE defeated Griffith 9.12 (66) to 7.5 (47) in round one, 2022.

Prediction: MCUE Goannas by 60.

Wagga Tigers v GGGM Lions

The Wagga Tigers bounced back from five consecutive losses by winning two of their last three games, beating Griffith in round seven and Leeton-Whitton in round nine.

On Saturday, they face their toughest test for the remainder of the 2022 RFL regular season when hosting the unbeaten and top of the table Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions at Robertson Oval.

The Lions have proven to be the RFL juggernaut many pundits expected them to be in 2022 but following the June long weekend and a round nine bye, the competition favourites enter this match without a game under their belt in three weeks.

If the Tigers are to spring a surprise it will be this Saturday on their home turf, but it is a mountain of a task ahead of Murray Stephenson's men.

Location: Robertson Oval.

Last time they met: GGGM defeated Wagga Tigers 17.10 (112) to 6.9 (45) in round one, 2022.

Prediction: GGGM Lions by 30.

RFL PREVIEW

Turvey Park Bulldogs v Collingullie-Glenfield Park Demons

The round 10 RFL match-up between the fourth-placed Turvey Park and second-placed Collingullie-Glenfield Park should be the game of the round.

The Bulldogs accounted for MCUE 10.10 (70) to 10.9 (69) in round nine, proving to themselves and pundits that Turvey Park are the real deal in 2022.

It is a big game for Turvey Park too, who trail the Demons by six points on the competition ladder, meaning a win here keeps them in touch with the top three, while a loss could see them drop 10 points, or two and a half games, off the pace.

Collingullie-Glenfield Park are fresh off a 9.10 (64) to 9.10 (64) draw with the third-placed Coolamon. The Demons have played well in 2022, and they will be up for a good match against the Bulldogs as they look to consolidate their top three position.

Location: Maher Oval.

Last time they met: Collingullie-GP defeated Turvey Park 17.11 (113) to 10.7 (67) in round one, 2022.

Prediction: Collingullie-GP Demons by 12

Coolamon Hoopers v Narrandera Eagles

The Narrandera Eagles won their third game of the year when beating Griffith 13.8 (86) to 10.12 (72) in round nine of the competition, finishing the first half of the 2022 RFL season on a high.

The Eagles are now just one win outside of the top five, but in order to be considered a genuine finals contender, Narrandera need to beat a good side, and Shaun Brooker's men will hope to knock off Coolamon at Kindra Park on Sunday.

The third-placed Hoppers belted the Eagles 15.20 (110) to 5.4 (34) in round one, and they are fresh off a 9.10 (64) to 9.10 (64) draw with the Collingullie-GP Demons.

All being fair the Hoppers should do away with the Eagles on Sunday, but Narrandera are on the improve and this contest could end up being a good match-up.

Location: Kindra Park.

Last time they met: Coolamon defeated Narrandera 15.20 (110) to 5.4 (34) in round one, 2022.

Prediction: Coolamon Hoopers by 24.

'Tigers focusing on development and improvement'

BY JEFF HANSON

2022 hasn't gone the way the Wagga Tigers wanted.

The proud Riverina Football League (RFL) club started the season off on the wrong foot, going through the first six rounds winless.

Murray Stephenson's side bounced back in round seven, belting Griffith 23.15 (123) to 2.8 (20) before landing a second win in round nine of the competition when accounting for Leeton-Whitton 14.7 (91) to 6.8 (44).

While he wasn't willing to write the 2022 season off just yet, hinting the Tigers still had every chance of playing finals football, Stephenson did have one eye on the future.

"This year we still want to be playing finals and we want to be successful, but we need to be realistic about where we go to from here," Stephenson said.

"Right now, we want to be as competitive as possible, but we also need to focus on that development and improvement because that is what has to happen to get the success we want."

Stephenson is coaching a young squad that is dealing with the ups and downs of top-flight country footy, but he was excited for the future of this current crop and the Wagga Tigers club.

"That is what this season is about; getting a whole squad, whether that is 30 or 35 players deep, to play senior footy and getting them to develop to the stage where they can handle a game, handle playing finals type football and handle playing the better sides," Stephenson said.

"The nuts and bolts of it are there. We have invested a lot of time into that core group, and especially in that 17 to 22 age bracket, and it is quite exciting because if we keep these players for the next 10 years, we don't know what can happen.

"Still, things can change pretty quickly too, and in 2018 we might have finished last, but in 2019 they added a couple of players and won a premiership, so it can change quite quickly, and we need to be aware of that and ready for that."

'Tigers focusing on development and improvement'

BY JEFF HANSON

As the Tigers gear up for the second half of the RFL season, Stephenson wasn't looking ahead at certain games being 'must-win', but instead, he wants to use the final nine rounds as a stepping-stone to bigger and better things, whether that be finals football in 2022 or their 2023 campaign.

"In terms of goals and wins and losses, we are not circling games and saying these are games we want to win," Stephenson said.

"We want to develop and get better, and we are treating each game as a way to improve what we are doing.

"Of course, we want to win any game we play, but in that game against Griffith, yes it was a dominant performance, but it was never about the result, but more about playing good footy and that will be the goal each week.

"The long game for us is that we want to produce and work towards something that is viable for the next few years.

"We want to be developing a game style and game plan and have everyone play a role."

The Tigers host the unbeaten Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions at Robertson Oval in round 10 and Stephenson merely viewed the fixture as another chance for his side to play their best footy.

"It's still about going out there and trying to win and trying to fire for all four quarters," Stephenson said.

"On a week-to-week basis, you go into every game wanting to think you can win and you never know what can happen.

"I know if we can play our best footy for four quarters, we can match it with those teams like Ganmain, but it is a matter of doing it on the day and playing for the entire game."

FFNL PREVIEW

Northern Jets v TRYC Magpies

The Rock-Yerong Creek have been creeping under the radar with the Magpies beginning to hit their straps.

Following a round six, 74-all draw with the ever-improving North Wagga Saints, The Rock-Yerong Creek have won three on the trot, defeating Coleambally, CSU and most recently Barellan.

In a tough contest at Victoria Park, the Magpies held off the fourth-placed Two Blues, winning 11.4 (70) to 7.8 (50) and they now sit in outright third on the Farrer League ladder.

On Saturday, they take on a Northern Jets side that has fallen to seventh place.

The Jets have lost back-to-back games, going down to East Wagga-Koorungal in round nine before being belted by North Wagga 14.16 (100) to 6.6 (42) in round 10.

The Magpies trounced the Jets 14.9 (93) to 4.1 (25) back in round two but it will be tougher going for The Rock-Yerong Creek when playing in Ardlethan on Saturday.

Location: Ardlethan Sportsground.

Last time they met: TRYC defeated Northern Jets 14.9 (93) to 4.1 (25) in round two, 2022.

Prediction: TRYC Jets by 12

Barellan Two Blues v Coleambally Blues

The local derby between the Barellan Two Blues and Coleambally Blues could be the match of the round in week 11 of the Farrer league.

Barellan will want to consolidate their top five spot by belting the winless Coleambally, but they will need to play better football if they are to get the job done.

The Two Blues faltered during a tough run of matches, going down to East Wagga-Koorungal, North Wagga and most recently, losing to The Rock-Yerong Creek 11.4 (70) to 7.8 (50) in round 10.

Coleambally are searching for their first win, and they nearly beat Barellan back in round two when the game ended as a 61-all draw.

The Blues will get their chance on Saturday, and they will want to be the thorn in Barellan's 2022 Farrer League finals hopes.

Location: Barellan Recreation Ground.

Last time they met: Coleambally 9.7 (61) drew with Barellan 8.13 (61) in round two, 2022.

Prediction: Barellan by 24.

Marrar Bombers v North Wagga Saints

Marrar fired in round 10 of the Farrer League, belting East Wagga-Koorringal 13.7 (85) to 6.9 (45) in their top of the table clash.

The strong win has proven to most pundits that Marrar are the team to beat in 2022. On Saturday, they host North Wagga, who they beat 14.7 (91) to 11.5 (71) way back in round two.

The Saints started the season slowly, but have since found good form, which was highlighted during their dominant 14.16 (100) to 6.6 (42) win over the Northern Jets in round 10.

In fact, North Wagga have jumped up to fourth place on the ladder, and they are now stalking TRYC and East Wagga-Koorringal as they look to continue their mid-season surge.

Location: Langtry Oval.

Last time they met: Marrar defeated North Wagga 14.7 (91) to 11.5 (71) in round two, 2022.

Prediction: Marrar by 18.

Temora Kangaroos v EWK Hawks

After five rounds, the Temora Kangaroos were sitting pretty in the Farrer League top five following a terrific start to the season.

Since then, the Roos have not won a match, going down to CSU, Barellan and the Northern Jets, before being belted by the Marrar Bombers 15.16 (106) to 2.5 (17) in round nine.

Temora enjoyed a bye in round 10, and Russell Humphrey will be hoping his men can rekindle their good form when taking on East Wagga-Koorringal Hawks in round 11.

The Hawks will be smarting following their round 10, 13.7 (85) to 6.9 (45) loss to Marrar, and Matt Hard's team will be out to make a statement against the Roos.

Still, Nixon Park is a tough place to visit at the best of times, and if Temora find their best form, this match has the potential to go down to the wire.

Location: Nixon Park.

Last time they met: EWK defeated Temora 10.12 (72) to 3.12 (30) in round two, 2022.

Prediction: EWK Hawks by 24.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Volunteer of the Year Nomination:

Julie Post

Wagga Tigers would like to acknowledge the hard work of Julie Post in nominating her for the Volunteer of the Year.

Julie is an absolute joy to work with, does everything with a smile and a will do attitude, whether it's a working bee or game day duties.

Julie boldly took on the role as club registrar this season, which of course as everyone knows this means learning the ins and outs of the new PlayHQ platform, which she now is a master of.

Congratulations Jules and thank you for your dedication!

RISING STAR NOMINATIONS

NETBALL NOMINATION:

CLAUDIA WHEATLY

Claudia is an athletic, versatile defensive player who is not afraid of a hard ball get. Her agility and closing speed is a huge asset to any team she plays in. The improvement she shows every week, along with the increase in her confidence, is very exciting not only for our club but for the league.

She has won an A res league best and fairest in 2020 before stepping up into A grade in 2021 where she was named most consistent. She has been a representative player since a young age and has recently been picked to train/trial for state teams after a massive state championships this year.

Congratulations Claudia!

FOOTBALL NOMINATION:

PADDY RYAN

Paddy has progressed into his second year of senior footy seamlessly. A member of the GWS academy program, Paddy has put in a large amount of work in the off season to add some physical size, strength and larger endurance base. Paddy's strengths as a player are his speed, evasiveness and willingness to embrace the contested side of the game despite only being 17 years of age. Paddy has a bright future as a footballer if the trend of constantly improving is maintained and as a football/netball club we are really excited to see Paddy's best footy in front of him.
