RFL PREVIEW

Griffith Swans v Coolamon Hoppers

It shapes to be a lop-sided contest when Griffith and Coolamon do battle in round eight of the RFL. Griffith have simply struggled in 2022, winning just one game while only scoring 298 points in six appearances.

The Swans suffered a huge defeat on Saturday to the previously winless Tigers, going down 23.15 (153) to 2.8 (20), and it only gets harder against a Coolamon side that boasts the best defence in the league.

The third placed Hoppers have conceded a league lowest 303 points this season and are coming off a huge 17.23 (125) to 0.3 (3) win over Leeton-Whitton. Could another 100-point drubbing be on the cards?

Location: Griffith Ex-Servicemen's Fields

Last played: Coolamon defeated Griffith 16.12 (108) to 8.6 (54) in round 15 2021.

Prediction: Coolamon by 60

Leeton-Whitton Crows v Collingullie-Glenfield Park Demons

This could be another lop-sided contest with the winless and bottom of the table Leeton-Whitton facing off with the second-placed Collingullie-Glenfield Park in round eight.

The Crows suffered their worst loss of the year in round seven when losing to Coolamon 17.23 (125) to 0.3 (3) in round seven.

Barring the odd game, Leeton-Whitton haven't looked likely, and they take on a Demons outfit that many consider the second-best team in the RFL this year and GGGM's biggest threat to the flag.

The Demons proved their worth in round seven, defeating the MCUE Goannas 12.7 (79) to 7.9 (51) and they will be looking to put a big score on the struggling Crows on Saturday.

Location: Leeton Showground

Last played: Leeton-Whitton defeated Collingullie-Glenfield Park 13.8 (86) to 10.8 (68) in round 16, 2021.

Prediction: Collingullie-Glenfield Park by 60

RFL PREVIEW

Turvey Park Bulldogs v Wagga Tigers

In the match of the round, Turvey Park host Wagga Tigers in round eight of the RFL at Maher Oval. Turvey Park sit in fifth place, but are fresh off back-to-back defeats, going down to Coolamon 14.7 (91) to 11.6 (72) in round six before losing to the GGM Lions 9.16 (70) to 8.6 (54) in round seven.

That loss against the unbeaten Lions will give the Bulldogs confidence when playing arch-rivals, the Wagga Tigers.

The Tigers, who started the season winless through the first six rounds, bounced back in round seven when demolishing the Leeton-Whitton Crows 23.15 (153) to 2.8 (20).

This is a big step up for the Tigers, but the Wagga derby rarely fails to deliver, and they will be up for a big match against Turvey Park.

Location: Maher Oval

Last played: Turvey Park defeated Wagga Tigers 9.9 (63) to 8.8 (56) in round 17, 2021.

Prediction: Turvey Park by 18 points

Narrandera Eagles v Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions

An improving Narrandera run into a very hot Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong in round eight of the RFL. The Eagles have been one of the surprise packets of the 2022 season, and despite a rough start, they aren't too far off the pace.

They weren't terrible went going down to the MCUE Goannas 15.8 (98) to 10.8 (68) in round six, and they had the bye last round, meaning they enter this match on fresh legs.

The Lions are a different beast though, and after a dominant and unbeaten start, they are coming off a good win over Turvey Park.

The Lions don't look like losing a game, and despite playing in Narrandera, the Eagles will do well to stay within six goals of the competition leaders.

Location: Narrandera Sportsground

Last played: Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong defeated Narrandera 28.11 (179) to 4.2 (26) in round 10, 2021

Prediction: Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong by 42 points.

Rivalry match 'must win' for Bulldogs

BY JEFF HANSON

There will certainly be no love lost when the Turvey Park Bulldogs and Wagga Tigers write another chapter into their fierce Riverina Football League (RFL) rivalry at Maher Oval on Saturday.

While the Bulldogs (3-3) have enjoyed a much better start to their 2022 RFL campaign than the Tigers (1-5), coach Michael Mazzocchi was expecting anything but a walk in the park.

"It doesn't matter where Turvey Park or the Tigers are on the ladder, it is always going to be a fierce contest," Mazzocchi said.

"It's a big game, and one that both teams desperately want to win."

The Tigers were winless through the first six rounds of the RFL, but they turned their fortunes around in round seven, belting Griffith 23.15 (153) to 2.8 (20).

"Now they have a bit of form after beating Griffith by 120 points, they will be up for it and full of confidence," Mazzocchi said.

"It doesn't matter that we have been playing well; we will need to be at our best to beat them."

Turvey Park started the seasons strongly, putting big scores on Narrandera, Leeton-Whitton and Griffith, and were sitting with a 3-1 record after five rounds.

Since then, the Bulldogs have been tested, losing to Coolamon by 19 points in round six before pushing the unbeaten and high-flying Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions all the way in round seven when before eventually losing 9.16 (70) to 8.6 (54).

Despite their most recent loss, Mazzocchi was happy with what he saw in the contest against the Lions.

"I was pretty happy with that result, because I was concerned with where that game could have gone, knowing who we had out," Mazzocchi said.

"We really lack height and we lost our three tallest guys before that match, and last year, when we played them both times, it was evident they were too big for us, and they were both 100-point floggings.

"Despite missing some players, our boys showed improvement and confidence and even though Ganmain kicked the first two goals against us, our boys were able to hang in for the fight and make a contest of it."

Rivalry match 'must win' for Bulldogs

BY JEFF HANSON

Mazzocchi believes his side had every chance of winning the game, which he sees as a turning point in the club's direction.

"I probably have mixed emotions, and thought it was a game we could have won, but when you're playing a team like Ganmain, who is a very good and undefeated side, you quickly see why they have that record," Mazzocchi said.

"Still, I think this could be a bit of a turning point for us, and not just for this season, but moving forward.

"Turvey Park hasn't had a lot of success, and it has been like that for 10 years, and that Ganmain game showed the boys we can compete with the best teams."

The Bulldogs will host a fired-up Tigers outfit on Saturday and Mazzocchi believes it is a must-win match for his group.

"If you drop these sorts of games against teams that aren't in the top five, you won't be playing finals," Mazzocchi said.

"We will be going into this game with a do-or-die attitude; it is a must-win game for us."

With the rivalry match set to draw a big crowd, the club will also host Ladies Day, with the club celebrating their triumphant 1992 A-Grade and C-Grade premiers and 2002 A-Grade premiers.

East Wagga-Koorinal Hawks v Northern Jets

This could very well be the match of the round with the top of the table EWK Hawks taking on the fourth placed Northern Jets in round nine of the Farrer League competition.

The Hawks came from three goals down at quarter time to record an impressive 12.7 (79) to 8.5 (53) win over Barellan in round eight.

EWK suffered injury concerns in the loss, but Matt Hard's team dug deep, and they will need to find something again on Saturday when playing the Jets.

The Northern Jets are fresh off a 29-point win over arch-rivals Temora, when winning 14.8 (92) to 9.9 (63) win at Aria Park.

The Jets have been hot and cold in 2022, and at their best, they can match it with any side, and Josh Avis and his group of players will need to be firing to beat the Hawks at their own nest.

Location: Gumly Gumly Oval

Last played: East Wagga-Koorinal defeated Northern Jets 13.9 (87) to 8.8 (56) in round 17, 2021.

Prediction: Northern Jets by 6.

North Wagga Saints v Barellan Two Blues

It could be a tough game to pick between the North Wagga Saints and Barellan Two Blues in round nine of the Farrer League competition.

North Wagga have won two from eight and are fresh off a 12.1 (73) to 7.12 (54) loss to the CSU Bushpigs.

Accuracy in front of goal cost the Wagga side against the Bushpigs and they will need to be better against a Barellan side that will be keen to bounce back to winning form.

The Two Blues pushed the EWK Hawks but went down 12.7 (79) to 8.5 (53), and if they want to be considered a top-three side, the Alex Lawder-led Barellan need to bounce back in this match.

Location: McPherson Oval.

Last played: North Wagga defeated Barellan 13.8 (86) to 2.4 (16) in round 14, 2021.

Prediction: Barellan by 18.

Temora Kangaroos v Marrar Bombers

Another rivalry match will see Temora host Marrar in round nine of the Farrer League. The Kangaroos started the season strongly, but have since lost three games on the trot, including a round eight loss to the Northern Jets when going down 14.8 (92) to 9.9 (63) at Aria Park.

Temora face a tough task against the Bombers, and with a bye in round 10 before facing the top of the table EWK Hawks in round 11, if they don't bounce back against Marrar, it could be a dry and lengthy spell for the Blue and Whites.

Marrar on the other hand enter this match following four consecutive wins, and after a round eight bye, they will be ready and raring for a trip to Nixon Park on Saturday.

Location: Nixon Park.

Last played: Marrar defeated Temora 8.6 (54) to 4.10 (34) in round 14, 2021.

Prediction: Marrar by 24.

The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies v CSU Bushpigs

This is an interesting match, with both The Rock-Yerong Creek and CSU sitting on three wins as they prepare for their round nine Farrer League fixture.

The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies were spruiked to be Farrer League favourites by many pundits before a ball had been kicked, but an inconsistent start to the season has been disappointing.

The Magpies did win in round eight, but they were made to do it the tough way when defeating the winless Coleambally Blues 10.10 (70) to 8.7 (55).

While in stark contrast, CSU have proven to be a thorn in other team's side, and they are there abouts as the competition nears the halfway point.

If the Wagga club wants to be considered a finals threat and work their way into the all-important top five, they will want to beat the Magpies when on the road on Saturday.

Location: Victoria Park.

Last played: The Rock-Yerong Creek defeated CSU 9.14 (68) to 4.7 (31) in round 15, 2021.

Prediction: The Rock-Yerong Creek by 6.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Volunteer of the Year Nomination: Joanne Hughes

Jo has been on the Turvey Park Committee since the AGM in 2015. Jo answered the call and came on committee when the numbers within the Club were low and she took on many roles to ensure the club could continue to rebuild after nearly going into recess. Jo was an active member of the Junior Club prior to graduating into the Senior Club.

For the past 5 years Jo has undertaken (and continues to do) many roles within the club. The list is exhaustive and includes:

- Treasurer;
- Merchandise Coordinator which includes allocating jumper numbers and making sure the entire club is well dressed in Club merchandise;
- Jo washes the footy jumpers each week and attends all training and games throughout the year;
- Jo welcomes all new players and makes sure she gets to know everyone and make them feel welcome at the club;
- Jo was instrumental in getting our inaugural Women's AFL team off the ground. She attended every training and game they played and made sure the girls were looked after;
- Jo organizes the ticketing and table decorations every year for our Red, White and Blue Ball and Presentation night;
- Jo is now ordering all the products for our canteen for home games;
- Jo organises the food for all BBQ's at the club and makes food to be sold in the canteen;
- Jo is the first one to arrive and last one to leave our home games and works all day in various roles;
- Jo coaches two junior netball teams each Sunday and has done for the past 5 years.

Jo devotes Tuesday's, Thursday's, Saturday's and Sunday's all through the season to the Turvey Park Football and Netball Club and has done for many years. Jo goes over and above what would be expected of a volunteer.

If all of that isn't enough, to top off what makes Jo so unique and special to our club is she doesn't currently have a child playing for our Club. Jo is the only active committee member without a child playing football or netball in our club. Whilst we hope this changes in the future, we all can't but help admire Jo's dedication and without her we would need several additional committee members to be able to fill the void she would leave.

Another admirable quality of Jo is that she doesn't expect or want gratitude for her work and she always recognises the "big picture" of where we want to go as a club and will actively work towards achieving our shared goals.

RISING STAR NOMINATIONS

NETBALL NOMINATION:

Georgia Hallam

Position: GD/GK

Age: 18

Georgia is an exciting player in Turvey Park A Grade for 2022. She debuted in 2021 with a strong and promising year and has continued to shine in her second season of A Grade. She has established herself a key defender in our team, and the competition, through her hard work, determination, and strength on and off court.

Georgia is an agile and talented netballer, who always plays with skill and intent. She has the ability to contest and turn over balls in the air and on ground as well as being a steady team player all over the court. She always plays her role and is such a valued member of our team.

Our team is lucky to have Georgia, and we look forward to the rest of the season as a team.

FOOTBALL NOMINATION:

Baxter Wallett

Position : Full Forward

Age : 18

Baxter has been in the Red, White and Blue since he was 5 years old. He is a young developing footballer in his first full year of Senior Football, who has taken on the role of a key position player and is performing at a very high level, in the first 5 games of the season Baxter has kicked 21 goals. He takes a great pack mark, is a reliable shot at goal and works hard defensively. Baxter is always willing to listen and learn how to improve his game. This year he is the Captain of the Mater Dei Carroll Cup Team this year.

Baxter is a great young man who is Turvey through and through, Congratulations Bax we look forward to watching for many more seasons.
