RFNL PREVIEW

Coolamon Rovers v Leeton-Whitton Crows

The highly-anticipated first hit-out of the much-hyped Coolamon team will happen at home at Kindra Park on Saturday against the Crows.

Few teams have recruited more strongly than Coolamon over the off-season, headed by the arrival of Tim 'Rooster' Oosterhoff from Newcastle. The Rovers have also welcomed back Max Hillier, Nick Pleming and Chase Grintell, while adding in Reilly Mitchell, Daragh Mullen and Charlie McCormack.

Leeton-Whitton surprised a few in the opening round, keeping in relative touch with Ganmain for the opening three quarters before it blew out late. Mason Dryburgh led the way for the Crows, while young Taj Doyle also impressed.

The last time these two teams met, the Crows failed to score. The Rovers appear a more formidable outfit now but hopefully Leeton-Whitton can continue on from last week and make this game a contest for as long as possible.

Prediction: Coolamon by 90 points

Mangoplah-Cookardinia United-Eastlakes Goannas v Narrandera Eagles

MCUE fell just short of maintaining a perfect start to the season, backing up a win over Wagga Tigers with a draw on the road against Griffith last week.

The Goannas led for most of the game but could not see it out as the Swans managed to level late. It was the returning Tristan Wheeler who impressed most for the visitors.

Narrandera might have been doing some work on the defensive side of their game during the week after conceding 29 goals against Collingullie in round one. They managed to score 10 goals of their own, which was good, but they will need to tighten up a lot more if they are to upset the Goannas.

Narrandera will need big games from the guys of Luke McKay, Tom and Jack Powell, Blake Gleeson and Blake Renet if they are to get one over MCUE here, who boast enough talent to ensure they don't slip up here.

Prediction: MCUE by 70 points

RFNL PREVIEW

Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions v Griffith Swans

GGGM's premiership defence got off to a slightly underwhelming start but they fired up late in the contest to run out 69-point winners over Leeton-Whitton.

Matt Hamblin showed not even surgery over the off-season could slow him down with a dynamic first-up effort, while new key forward Tom Banuelos is expected to make his first appearance for the year against Griffith.

The Swans have been touted as big improvers on the back of a strong recruitment drive and they would take plenty of confidence out of their round one draw with MCUE. Marquee recruit Rhys Pollock showed his class in his first outing for the Swans and he is one man the Lions will be looking to keep quiet on Saturday.

It's hard to go past the reigning premiers on their home turf but it will be interesting to see just how far Griffith have come and for how long they can push the Lions.

Prediction: GGGM by 10 points

Collingullie-Glenfield Park Demons v Turvey Park Bulldogs

The two most impressive winners from round one meet in a mouthwatering showdown at Crossroads Oval on Saturday.

The Demons piled on a cricket score against Narrandera in round one, booting 29 goals, but will be a little concerned at the defensive aspect, allowing 10 the other way. Sam Stening is one Turvey Park will be putting some work into after an eight-goal haul, while Ed Perryman kicked five in a best-on-ground performance.

The Bulldogs put an understrength Tigers team away by 67 points. Turvey Park of a couple of seasons ago probably wouldn't have gone on with that result so there are some good early signs at Maher Oval, including the form of Luke Fellows, who was best-on-ground in round one. They should also get highly-touted ruckman Anthony Forato in for his first game this week.

Collingullie, on the strength of last season form, and what they showed in round one deserve to go in favourites here but the Bulldogs, especially now with some confidence, would not surprise to see them take it right up to the Demons here.

Prediction: Collingullie-Glenfield Park by 16 points

Changing the guard at Marrar

Many would have balked at the prospect of replacing Shane Lenon as coach at Marrar.

Lenon decided mid-season that 2022 would be his last as senior coach at Marrar and it was only fitting that the Bombers went on to capture the Farrer League premiership later that year.

It sent Lenon out with a 'perfect 10' premiership as senior coach, including three out of a possible four grand final wins during his time at Langtry Oval.

It's a record that puts him at the top of the tree in AFL Riverina and will see him go down as arguably the greatest coach of this generation in the region.

So, when the Bombers approached assistant coach Cal Gardner about stepping up and filling Lenon's shoes, you wouldn't have blamed him for being a little hesitant.

But having only knocked back a coaching job elsewhere 12 months earlier, Gardner jumped at the chance to coach Marrar.

"It's funny. I get asked that question a lot actually," Gardner said when asked whether he was at all hesitant to be the man to replace Lenon.

"A lot of people do see it as big shoes to fill and high expectations to live up to but I guess I just viewed it as a positive, as a platform that he laid for the club and set up. And I've been obviously able to learn from him as well so I'm also implementing what I've learnt from him.

"There's certainly no pressure from the club whatsoever. I think everyone's fully aware of the change of players that we've had and they've fully backed me in with playing our young guys and providing them with experience and backed me in with how we want to play footy."

Gardner was part of that grand final success in September, coming off the bench to play his part in what had been another injury-plagued season for him personally.

Little did he know when he took the job that come round one the next year, only eight players from that premiership team would take the field.

Yes, a few are injured and are expected back shortly but there has been a significant turnover in playing personnel to go with the changing of the guard at the top.

Gardner has taken it in his stride.

Changing the guard at Marrar

"It hasn't really made me re-think the way I want to go about it, I guess you just have to be a bit more forgiving with young blokes and have more teaching moments to help them improve their footy," Gardner said.

"You just have to be understanding that they are going to make mistakes but they are also going to be better for it."

And while Marrar have a vastly different look in 2023, that doesn't mean they have shelved any aspirations to continue their success.

"Yeah absolutely and I think not just me, but the whole group, there's a belief there that our best footy is good enough," Gardner said

"With a high turnover of players and a young group, I just think we're going to get better and better as the season goes on."

Lenon remains at Marrar in a newly-created director of coaching position. In typical Lenon style at Langtry Oval in round one, he stepped in to coach under 17s in the morning, umpired reserve grade and then observed the ones.

Gardner was assistant to Lenon for four years and says he learnt an enormous amount.

"Off the field he taught me how to manage different people. Different people respond to different things in different ways, and he taught me that," Gardner said.

"In terms of footy, something he was really big on the group with is just basic footy and getting the basics right and that's something I took into my own game so that's something I'm going to keep driving at the club as well."

Gardner has quickly learnt how big a job the senior coaching position is. But he has no regrets.

"It's a lot of work but I'm loving it," he said.

"It's rewarding, especially with a young group, it's even more rewarding probably but I'm loving it so far."

New Marrar president Pat Knagge said the club was proud to have Gardner in charge.

"We're really proud to see someone who joined the club as a 17-year-old take on the senior coaching role," Knagge said.

"The buy-in from the playing group has been immense and that was evident over the pre-season where we averaged 30 to 35 players a session.

"Cal obviously had the perfect apprenticeship under Sparks but has bought in his own game plan and style and we're excited to see it come to fruition as the season progresses."

RISING STAR

Football - Blake Walker

Blake has been playing with the Bombers since 2017, and made his First Grade debut in 2019 as a 16 year old. He represented WDJFNL in Under 13's and Under 14's, and FFNL in Under 17's.

After an injury interrupted couple of years, Blake has had a strong pre season and looks set to have a big impact this year.

His positional change to centre half forward allows him to use his work rate to his advantage. He provides a strong marking target and uses the ball well.

We look forward to seeing the growth that Blake will continue to show this year.

Netball - Bella Hoffert

In her third year at Marrar, Bella has cemented herself a spot in our A Grade team.

Predominately playing defence, she is a versatile player that has already made a big impact.

After having a big year in 2022 and taking out the Club A Reserve Best and Fairest, Bella is set to step up her game a notch and is definitely a player to watch in the future.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

SCOTT SANBROOK

It is with great pleasure we submit Scott Sanbrook as our Volunteer of the Year nomination.

Scott has been part of our Club for many years, being involved in most every section of it. From working behind the barbeque, to timekeeping, to holding down the Executive position of Secretary.

Scott continues to be our First Grade team manager, being Shane Lenon's right-hand man throughout his tenure as coach, and has been an integral part of the recruiting committee for many years.

Scott has made himself an irreplaceable member of our team, and we are honoured and privileged to have him in our Club.

FFNL PREVIEW

Coleambally Blues v Charles Sturt University Bushpigs

Coleambally lost no admirers with a gallant three-goal loss to Temora in the opening round but will eye this an opportunity to get on the board at home after the past two weeks off.

The Bushpigs will be out to bounce back after a disappointing loss to Northern Jets last week. They showed good signs in a big win over North Wagga the week before and will be keen to prove they are a top five team by getting back on track here.

CSU will welcome back co-coach Dusty Rogers to help stiffen their defence this week but it is the midfield where the Bushpigs will look to get on top on the back of the work by Lachie Moore, Trent Cohalan and Lachie Holmes, while Hayden Wooden has proven a handy addition from Wagga Tigers.

Coleambally's new recruits impressed in the opening round and the home team will be looking for them to shine even brighter this week if they are to upset the Bushpigs.

Prediction: CSU by 25 points

Marrar Bombers v The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies

The Magpies announced their arrival in 2023 with a 90-point thrashing of Temora at Nixon Park and what a way it was to start the year.

League medallist Riley Budd dominated back at centre-half-back, while Curtis Steele, Don Roberts and Tom Yates were all among the Magpies' better players, showing how much they will improve them this year.

Marrar managed a great escape against Barellan for the second consecutive occasion. The Bombers had the better of play for most of the day but couldn't capitalise and that's something they will need to work on after also failing to convert in the third quarter against Northern Jets in round one.

The last time these two teams met resulted in a 39-point victory to the Bombers in last year's grand final. That scoreline flattered the Magpies in what was a one-sided affair. Expect TRYC to show just how far they've come as Marrar take some time to find their feet.

Prediction: TRYC by 45 points

FFNL PREVIEW

Temora Kangaroos v East Wagga-Koorringal Hawks

After the season started brightly for Temora, they were brought crashing back to earth by TRYC last week to the tune of 90 points.

New coach Jimmy Kennedy experimented with a few positional changes, which didn't work against the might of the Magpies. Fifteen-year-old Bayley Blackwell showed some great signs, kicking three of Temora's four goals in just his second game of senior footy.

EWK have begun the year very nicely, boasting wins away from home over Barellan and North Wagga. The Hawks smashed the Saints by 127 points last week, with forwards Jarrad Boumann, Brocke Argus and Daniel McCarthy all cashing in.

The Hawks should welcome back Nick Hull for the trip to Temora, in what will only provide coach Matt Hard with more options around the ground. EWK look fitter this year on the back of a good pre-season and the results are showing. Expect another positive one here as we look to get another gauge on just how far Temora has come.

Prediction: EWK by 34 points

Northern Jets v North Wagga Saints

Northern Jets will arrive at round three with a real spring in their step after downing two top five teams from last season in the opening two weeks and could have hardly been more impressive in doing so.

While much has been made of the return of Mitch Haddrill and Jeromy Lucas, and rightly so, new coach Jack Harper and big ruckman Lachie Jones have been arguably most impressive with two very strong performances to open the year.

North Wagga suffered their worst loss in more than 10 years last week when crashing to a 127-point loss to East Wagga. That was after leading early in the second term. It would have been the manner in which the Saints stopped working for each other that would have worried Damien Papworth, as he knows there will be some tough periods this year as the club embarks on a rebuilding period.

The Jets should make it three from three to start the year with a win on their home turf at Ariaiah Park but a lot of interest will be in the Saints and how they respond to last week and how much fight they show.

Prediction: Northern Jets by 85 points
