RFNL PREVIEW

Collingullie-Glenfield Park Demons v Mangoplah-Cookardinia United-Eastlakes Goannas

Both teams will be desperate for the four points when they come together at Crossroads Oval on Saturday.

The Demons were given a wake-up call last Saturday when Turvey Park ran right over the top of them in the second half. The amount of goals they are coughing up to the opposition would be an area of concern for coach Nick Perryman.

The Goannas got the job done against Narrandera in comfortable fashion. They are yet to lose but weren't overly convincing the first two weeks so this will give an indication of how both teams are travelling early in the year.

A win for MCUE would cement them up the top end of the ladder after a tough opening month, while a loss well and truly puts them back among the pack. The Demons need a win to stay in touch, with both teams having a bye the following week to stew over the result.

Prediction: Collingullie-GP by 6 points

Wagga Tigers v Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions

It's only round three but already it's make or break time for Murray Stephenson's men.

Tigers have been beaten by Mangoplah and Turvey Park, two teams they are fighting against for a top five spot, and can't afford to drop another against the Lions. Jackson Kelly, Brady Morton, Lahn Shephard and Shaun Flanigan should all come back in for Tigers, along with hopefully, Stephenson.

The stakes are high for the reigning premiers as well after getting a touch up from Griffith last Saturday. It had been a long time since the Swans had enjoyed success at Ganmain Sportsground. The Lions have been disappointing to start the year and Sam Martyn will be looking for a response.

Tom Banuelos showed good signs in his first outing for GGGM last weekend and Matt Hamblin continues to fire, while Ben Walsh will be a welcome return. The Lions will need some more contributors however if they are to down Tigers on their home turf.

Prediction: Lions by 2 points

RFNL PREVIEW

Turvey Park Bulldogs v Coolamon Rovers

Match of an absolute belter of a round takes place at Maher Oval where the two early season front-runners go head-to-head.

The much anticipated first outing of Coolamon took place last weekend and they were slow to start but eventually did enough in an 82-point win over Leeton-Whitton. Tim Oosterhoff announced his arrival with a seven-goal haul, while Nick Fleming and Chase Grintell showed they are certainly worth having back at the club.

Turvey Park have been the most impressive team of the early rounds, backing up their strong finish to last season. Not only have they beaten Wagga Tigers and Collingullie-GP but it's the manner in which they have done so, producing big second halves to win by big margins.

Having Luke Fellows available full-time is already paying off, while Brad Ashcroft's return to fitness has been huge as he looks like getting back to his 2019 form and even better.

The Bulldogs come in with the form on the board but it will be interesting to see just how good Coolamon are at their first big test.

Prediction: Coolamon by 18 points

Narrandera Eagles v Leeton-Whitton Crows

Narrandera and Leeton-Whitton will both get their first looks at a win after tough starts to the year.

The Eagles have been disappointing, going down by roughly 100-point margins to both Collingullie-GP and Mangoplah-CUE after what had been a reasonably productive off-season.

The Crows have surprised a few with how competitive they've been, sticking it to Coolamon and GGGM early before eventually being overrun.

Narrandera, judging by the names on paper, would go in as favourites. They will need the likes of Luke McKay, Jack and Tom Powell and Blake Renet to fire to get the points.

With the likes of Mason Dryburgh and Kabe Stockton leading from the front, expect the Crows to give another good account of themselves and watch out if they get a sniff of victory.

Prediction: Narrandera by 10 points

'Maher Oval looking a Million Dollars'

LIFE has become a lot easier at Turvey Park this season thanks to a million dollar upgrade to Maher Oval.

The Bulldogs are enjoying the benefits of a new-look Maher Oval complex after just under $1 million was spent upgrading the facilities by The Rules Club.

Turvey Park Football Netball Club, along with the juniors, were both contributors to that and are proud of what they have been able to achieve by working in with The Rules Club.

Getting all junior and senior netball teams on court for training is now a walk in the park, while the wider football community saw the benefit of the lighting upgrade when Maher Oval hosted the Southern NSW Women's League grand final earlier this month.

"The atmosphere there was just amazing," Turvey Park Football Netball Club president Simone Harmer said.

"There were over 1000 people there and under lights, it just looked very good. So going forward, it does mean we will look towards twilight matches to showcase the ground and whole complex.

"It's a pretty good ground to watch football at."

For the Turvey Park community, the completion of the new netball courts have had an immediate impact.

"It's massive. Before there were five senior teams and seven junior teams trying to use the one court. And that court really served Turvey Park and the community well for over 30 years but it just needed that extra upgrade," Harmer said.

"It was a little bit short, it wasn't the standard size so now we've got two big massive courts side by side.

"If they want to run matches at the same time, they can do that, and once this light is up, they can have four or five netball teams training, which before they couldn't do that. The juniors for years couldn't get on there. It was a real issue. There was a push to get all of the teams on there so they could train.

"It's really, really good for the netballers."

While Harmer explained that Turvey Park's contribution was only small in the grand scheme of things, she could not be happier with how the relationship with The Rules Club at the moment.

"Between the juniors and seniors, we were only a tiny percentage obviously but we're really proud of the partnership Turvey Park and The Rules Club have at the moment. We just work really well together and we're really grateful of the spend on the infrastructure at the moment," Harmer said.

'Maher Oval looking a Million Dollars'

Both Craig Rodham, the president of the juniors and myself speak to Jack Jolley probably once a fortnight. Last year we would have meetings monthly to sit down and make sure we're on the same page.

"Obviously Darren Wallett and Blair Campbell are part of the Turvey Park committee as well but we've got other members of the board who are really supportive and we work together with the bowlers and everyone else, it's a really good connection."

The Rules Club general manager Jack Jolley said servicing the Australian rules community was what the club is all about.

"Maher Oval has been obviously a big part of The Rules Club complex for a long time and it's just more recently that we've been able to implement these improvements," Jolley said.

"We haven't been in a position to do that in the past. With the help of the Turvey Park Footy Club and the help of AFL NSW-ACT we've been able to get things done, those improvements, so we're really pleased with that.

"Not only is it a benefit for the Turvey Park Football Netball Club but it's a benefit for AFL Riverina and all those involved generally. It's something that could be used by other clubs, which Maher Oval was in the past. It might be better for other clubs with these new facilities, it will improve the exposure to the general public of the AFL in the area as well. If the Wagga crowd can have a five minute drive to Maher Oval for some of the more important games, it's going to help the code overall."

The Rules Club recently obtained a $500,000 grant to build new women's AFL change rooms that will be added either side of the Tony Hart complex. That will only add to the recent investment by The Rules Club.

Jolley said the improvements are a result of a good relationship with Turvey Park.

"We do appreciate the relationship we have with Turvey Park as well. They've been fantastic to deal with, especially through this period of change with the facility," Jolley said.

"We look forward to many more years of an association with them."

As everything comes together off field at Turvey Park, things have started just as well on field with the Bulldogs two from two in first grade and establishing themselves as a genuine premiership contender.

"It's all positive," Harmer said.

"Things are going well and it's showing on the football field. Not only with facilities but we're going pretty well with (Mick Mazzocchi), he's really professional."

RISING STAR

Football - Luke Fellows

Luke is in his third season with our club, the first 2 years he was involved with the GWS Giants Academy and played limited games. Season 2023 will see Luke 100% committed to Turvey Park.

Luke is an extremely classy football who stands around 190cm however his running power and agility is his Number 1 weapon. Luke is a midfielder who can work up and down the ground all day and his strong overhead marking makes him a very good goal kicker when pushing forward.

Netball - Leila Campbell

At 16, Leila Campbell is lining up for her second season of A Grade in 2023. Coming off a strong 2022, Leila's work ethic, determination and skill have proven her to be an important part of our team. She's grown before our eyes, and provides drive and intensity every time she steps on the court.

Leila already has a strong netball resume with years of Wagga Representative Netball and Southern Sports Academy under her belt. She jumped straight from juniors into A Grade last year, and will continue to be an important part of the team into the future.

It's a pleasure to see Leila shine on court, particularly so far in 2023.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

KATIE WOODS

Katie Woods took up the call over 3 years ago to join our Netball Committee where she has worked tirelessly to ensure our netball competition runs smoothly. Katie organises the Netball merchandise, including brand new Dresses for the 2023 season. She does the rostering for our Netball Umpires and has been a driving force with the Sponsorships and fundraising for the new Netball Courts. It was Katie who was one of the main workers at Canteen days, Pie Drives, Krispy Kreme's Fundraisers and organising Ladies Day to help raise over $80,000 to go towards our new Courts.

She also does the Rosters for the whole Club and is the first one to arrive at our home games to set up the Canteen.

Katie is true Turvey Bulldog, she is always happy to lend a hand wherever needed and is one of those people who is a pleasure to have around the Club.

Thank you for everything that you do Katie.

FFNL PREVIEW

Temora Kangaroos v Northern Jets

All eyes will be on Nixon Park for the one-off appearance of former AFL star Jeff Gartlett for Temora.

A former leading goalkicker at both Melbourne and Carlton, Gartlett plays with Albury Tigers in the Ovens and Murray League but will spend his bye weekend in Temora, where he is sure to prove a dangerous commodity inside forward 50.

The Kangaroos have been disappointing over the past couple of weeks, suffering big defeats to The Rock-Yerong Creek and East Wagga-Koorngal. The loss of Will Reinhold certainly won't do them any favours.

The Jets meantime are flying, having won all three of their games in impressive style. Matt Wallis should return for the clash against his former club, which will only help the Jets chances.

The derby between these two clubs can produce some funny results. There is certainly no love lost between the two teams and despite the differing form lines, you can count on Temora rising to the occasion and giving a good account of themselves.

Prediction: Northern Jets by 15 points

North Wagga Saints v Coleambally Blues

Coleambally opened their account by outlasting Charles Sturt University in hot conditions last Saturday. It backed up an honorable loss to Temora in the opening round.

Full credit to Jamie Bennett, who doesn't have the talent available to him as previous years at Coleambally but is already starting to get better results as he gets the best out of the playing group.

The Blues will look to the likes of Kyle Pete, Dean Bennett, Blake Argus and Dean Pound for big games.

While North Wagga's results haven't been great, they will take confidence in the fact they've been able to string together some really good quarters and patches. The Saints won't get too many better opportunities for a win this season so expect them to give this one everything.

Prediction: Coleambally by 8 points

FFNL PREVIEW

East Wagga-Koorringal Hawks v Marrar Bombers.

East Wagga-Koorringal continue to just keep getting it done and after three from three after a 45-point win over Temora last Saturday.

The Hawks will be keen for this one given they haven't beaten the Bombers since the 2019 finals series and they won't get many better opportunities.

Just after losing key forward Brad Turner for what looks to be a season-ending knee injury, the Bombers have now lost Jordan Hedington for half the year. Both players had been in fine form and give some much-needed leadership and experience to a young Marrar team.

The Bombers gave it their all but just fell one-point short against The Rock-Yerong Creek last week. A similar effort would put them right in this contest but with Luke Cuthbert and Daniel McCarthy coming back in for EWK, among others, the Hawks should hit their bye four and zip.

Prediction: EWK by 36 points

The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies v Barellan Two Blues

Barellan is next in line for the all-conquering The Rock-Yerong Creek as they host their first home game of the season.

The Magpies were given a big scare last week when they were forced to come from behind and grab a one-point win over Marrar in the ANZAC Challenge. Co-captain Curtis Steele showed his value to TRYC with an inspired performance, while Dean Biermann was huge when it mattered.

Barellan also come off a thriller against Marrar, but two weeks ago after having the bye last week. The Two Blues led for the majority of the game against the Bombers, and had two chances to deal a win in the dying minutes but were unable to.

The positive is, again it shows the Two Blues that they can push the top teams. Then after seeing Marrar come out and give TRYC a big shake, the form line reads well for Barellan, who were able to down the Magpies early last year.

Prediction: TRYC by 60 points
