RFNL PREVIEW

Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions v Narrandera Eagles

The Lions' continued their build into the season with a big finish over Mangoplah-Cookardinia United-Eastlakes on Sunday. They kicked the only two goals of the final term to get home by four points.

Unfortunately that was the final appearance of Tom Banuelos, who now heads overseas. He capped off his five-game stint with a three-goal, best-on-ground performance in the win over the Goannas.

Narrandera had the bye last weekend and will be looking to try and find some form. It's not exactly an easy time to do so, with games against GGGM and Wagga Tigers before the general bye but that's the nature of this year's Riverina League competition.

Luke McKay and Jack Powell have been strong contributors for Narrandera in the first part of the season but they need to gain a few more friends if they are to trouble some of the top teams.

The Lions should continue on their winning way here.

Prediction: GGGM by 70 points

Mangoplah-Cookardinia United-Eastlakes Goannas v Turvey Park Bulldogs

When Turvey Park downed Mangoplah-Cookardinia United-Eastlakes in last year's elimination final it was viewed as an upset. But the Bulldogs have not looked back since then and now sit on top of the Riverina League ladder after six rounds of the new season.

The Bulldogs face another test of their legitimacy when they travel to Mangoplah Sportsground on Saturday to face the Goannas. Turvey Park have enjoyed their fair share of success over the Goannas in recent times and probably have never been travelling better than they are now.

A fully fit and firing Brad Ashcroft has made a big difference as he's returned and wound the clock back to his 2019 form. He kicked another five goals in the win over Griffith last weekend and has himself out clearly in front in the league goalkicking.

MCUE's undefeated start to the season came to an end last week with a narrow four-point loss to Ganmain. The Goannas panicked at some key moments late and GGGM's experience shone through, knowing how to get the job done.

The Goannas would hope to get Ryan Turnbull back this week, along with Jono Male. The Bulldogs too have had their fair share of players missing but continue to get the job done.

Every week is important and presents opportunities and this game is no different. Turvey Park can entrench itself at the pointy end of the ladder with a big win on the road, or MCUE can bounce back and show they rightfully belong in the top three as we edge towards the halfway mark of the season.

Prediction: MCUE by 6 points

RFNL PREVIEW

Wagga Tigers v Collingullie-Glenfield Park Demons

A touch of AFL's indigenous round will arrive in the Riverina League on Saturday when Wagga Tigers celebrate Sir Doug Nicholls at the local level.

An undermanned Tigers got the job done on the road at Leeton last Saturday, scoring a solid 74-point win in what was a big day for the club, landing a clean sweep. Tigers should get the Kelly boys back this week, along with Shaun Flanigan. They will be welcome injections as they prepare for a tough clash against the Demons.

Collingullie found form last Saturday in the shape of a six-goal win over Coolamon. Nick Perryman will be hoping it is a win that can get their season going. Perryman was exceptional leading from the front in last week's crunch game and was well-supported by his brother Joe. Matt Klemke also reminded the competition of his importance to the Collingullie team with a strong game in the midfield.

The stakes are high here with the winner all but assured to be in the top five at the end of round seven, while the loser will find themselves outside and losing touch with the top teams. Both teams have shown that their best football is certainly good enough and this contest should go right down to the wire.

Prediction: Wagga Tigers by 1 point

Griffith Swans v Coolamon Rovers

Sunday football takes us to Exies Oval for another cracking contest.

The Swans lost few admirers last weekend when suffering their first loss of the season in the shape of a three-point loss to Turvey Park at Maher Oval. They should get James Toscan back this week and be hard to beat on their home turf.

What to say about Coolamon? The pre-season premiers favourites haven't lived up to the billing. The Rovers have copped some key injuries but haven't been able to perform against the rest of the pack and are still yet to claim the scalp of a contender.

Coolamon were held goalless in the opening half last weekend, and could only manage five majors for the day, something that is hard to fathom with all the attacking weapons they boast on their list. The Rovers also appear unsure of what their best 21 looks like as they continue to throw the magnets around in search of their ideal line-up.

They face an almighty task here in travelling to take on a fit and firing Griffith team on their home turf but it might be just what is needed in a bid to turn their ailing season around.

Prediction: Griffith by 36 points

'Local Youth driving exciting new vibe at Northern Jets'

AS Dennis Denuto famously once put it 'it's the vibe.

"It's the vibe of it. It's the constitution. It's Mabo. It's justice. It's law. It's the vibe and ah, no that's it. It's the vibe. I rest my case."

The memorable line from The Castle comes to mind when talking to the young leaders at Northern Jets as there is a common theme when discussing the environment at the club this year.

The vibe.

It's what everyone mentions as the club rides a wave of youth, fresh energy and enthusiasm.

The Jets held a 'crisis meeting' back in November after the 2022 executive stood down and no fresh faces emerged.

Looking back, now, it was a turning point for the proud club as the youth from the Ardlethan and Ariah Park communities answered the call to step up and take charge of their football and netball club.

"The club had been building so well the year before, I didn't want to see all that good work come undone," new president Jack Fisher said.

"I just thought, well, if I can give a little bit extra of my time to help out a club that has given so much to me, I just thought it was a no brainer."

Fisher, 27, answered the SOS to take on the presidency. Holly Walker, 26, accepted the secretary's role. Jack Harper stepped up to take on the football coaching position at just 23. Sharnie McLean is in her second year as A grade netball coach at 23 also.

"I took the job on and it's been nothing but rewarding," Fisher explained.

"We've got a massive group of young people, probably between the ages of 16 and 22 or 23, then a few older blokes and older ladies at the netball and it's just created a massive vibe around the club. Everyone's willing to do their bit.

"We've gone from having last year, at best, having 15 to 20 blokes at training and netball was the same, now we've got 60 netballers at training and 50 footballers.

"I think it's just that everyone is so young and they can see we're having fun. There's a really good vibe around at the club at the moment. Obviously winning games of footy helps too."

Walker admits she was hesitant to take on the secretary's position initially but six months in and she is glad she took it on.

"Jack and I, we were thrown into it but because we're so new and we've never done anything like this, everyone's come behind us too," Walker said.

"Even game day, people come up and offer help and that never happened with the other people because they assumed everything was right. I think now there are a lot more people happy to volunteer, happy to help. It's really changed the vibe of the club.

"Local Youth driving exciting new vibe at Northern Jets"

"Jack (Harper) and Sharnie (McLean) are younger than us. We've kind of almost skipped a generation of people. But I think it actually proves there are no set rules as to who should be what. If I can do it, anyone can do it.

"I think it's been good for the club. It's kind of turned it on its head."

Not only are young locals leading the club on and off the field, but they fill predominantly all of the positions in the netball and football teams.

The Jets adopted a more local approach a couple of years ago and this year were boosted by several talented former juniors returning to play for the club.

In last Saturday's big win over East Wagga-Koorringal all but two first grade players were one-point players, and one of them resides in Ardlethan.

"The boys who have played juniors, some of them have gone away, guys like Jerry Lucas and he's come back. They're pretty much playing their junior team but up in the second and first grade now," Walker said.

"It's really good to see that they've all come back. It's kind of revitalised our club I think.

"Right at the start we had the crisis meeting, we were essentially going to fold, we've come back and numbers aren't an issue."

Harper said it is an honour to coach his home club.

"If you get asked to do a coaching gig, let alone at your junior club, it's more of an honour than anything," Harper said.

"For them to put some trust in you and to have some faith in you to put the club in the right direction is a massive honour. Once I got asked, it was a no brainer really.

"We're built by young locals. We've recruited locals back to the club and they want to be here. Jack Fisher as president is doing a fantastic job, Holly Walker as secretary, it's really instilled quite a bit of excitement and the buzz around the place is absolutely fantastic.

"You can't fault the club for what they've been able to do this year so far."

McLean has worked her way up the coaching ranks at the Jets and loves her position at the club.

"I started when I was 16 in C grade and worked my way up. I coached for three years in A reserve and then in 2020, we couldn't really find a coach so I thought it could be a fun opportunity," McLean said.

"So I was meant to coach that year but the season got cancelled. I love leadership and that type of thing so I thought it could be cool to play and coach. It's definitely difficult at times but it's a very rewarding role.

"I've been here since juniors and all the way through so it's really good.

"It's a very good vibe this year with all the young ones."

The Jets are confident the future looks bright for their club.

"We all can't wait to see what the future holds," Walker said.

RISING STAR

Netball - Georgia McCormack

Georgia made her A grade debut as a 14 year old in 2022, her first year in senior netball. She has since become a pivotal part of our defence. Her tenacity for the ball, versatility of positions and uncanny ability to read an intercept makes her an invaluable member of the team. Georgia has a bright future ahead.

Football - Nate Doyle

Nate is a 19 year old that has shown huge progression in his early senior football career. He is a leader amongst our senior group and an integral part of our defensive unit. He has a strong ability to read the play. He contains the qualities of a great footballer, and he is only just getting started.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Sherie Brown

Sherie Brown is an integral part of the Northern Jets community. Without her enthusiasm and commitment to the club the netball would not run as smoothly.

She has held many positions within the club over the past few years including but definitely not limited to junior (2018 and 2019) and senior (2022 and 2023) netball secretary where she took on the immense task of registrations, umpire coordinator, organising social functions (juniors) and in her spare time writing a few grants.

Additionally, she has also volunteered her time to be an under 15's coach in 2017 and became a member of the CMC for one year. Currently she has taken over the role of netball umpire mentor, where her guidance and expertise are essential to the local umpires.

FFNL PREVIEW

Charles Sturt University Bushpigs v East Wagga-Koorringal Hawks

CSU were staring down their season at three-quarter-time last week but scored a morale-boosting come-from-behind win over Barellan to breathe some life into their season.

The win puts them on the cusp of the top five and now they get an opportunity to prove they can be more than just a team that potentially makes up the numbers with a clash against the fourth-placed Hawks.

EWK are coming off their biggest defeat in 11 years when going down to Northern Jets by 85 points last Saturday. It was a performance unlike the Hawks of recent times as they let the Jets run right over the top of them.

Injuries didn't help and seem to be a reoccurring theme at Gumly Oval. They still have enough talent out there however to be getting the job done at Peter Hastie Oval.

Liam Hard has shown good signs in his first fortnight in EWK colours, while Wes Clark and Xavier McDevitt have both proven they will be handy acquisitions for the club.

Dusty Rogers, Lachie Holmes, Trent Cohalan and Lachie Moore have all been in good form for the Bushpigs and will need to continue that for the Bushpigs to get the win here.

Prediction: EWK by 30 points

Northern Jets v Coleambally Blues

Northern Jets bounced back with an emphatic 85-point win over fellow flag contender East Wagga-Koorringal last Saturday in a result that sent shockwaves through the competition.

Matt Wallis was in full flight up forward with eight goals, while Chris Bell continued his outstanding start to the year with a five-goal haul.

There's plenty to like about the Jets at the moment with Lachie Jones now firmly establishing himself as the premier ruck in the competition. The midfield brigade of Jack Harper, Mitch Hadrill, Jack Fisher and Jerry Lucas rival any in the competition, while their backline is often underrated.

Coleambally will also come into this game full of confidence despite not getting the result against the undefeated The Rock-Yerong Creek side last week. They led up until the last quarter before the Magpies eventually got on top to win by 10 points.

Stanley Tipiloura continues to be one of the recruits of the season, while Kyle Pete and James Buchanan have also been in great form for the Blues.

The trip to Aria Park is one of the tougher assignments in the competition at the moment so getting the win will prove difficult but hopefully Coleambally can give another good account of themselves.

Prediction: Northern Jets by 70 points

FFNL PREVIEW

Temora Kangaroos v Barellan Two Blues

An important battle in the make up of the Farrer League season will take place at Nixon Park on Saturday.

Barellan could have firmly planted themselves in fifth position with a win last week against CSU but were held scoreless in the final term and were beaten by seven points. It may well prove one that got away as CSU and Temora are now equal on points and breathing down the Two Blues' necks.

Temora weren't too bad against Marrar a fortnight ago despite suffering a 40-point loss. It was only a slow start that separated the two teams and the Kangaroos have since had a bye to freshen up.

Barellan will want big games from the likes of Dean Schmetzer, Hugh McKenzie, Jason Taylor and Riley Irvin if they are to come out on top, while Jack Cullen, Joe Morton and Riley Hubbard will be Temora players they will be looking to limit the influence of if they are to come away with the four points.

Prediction: Barellan by 3 points

The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies v North Wagga Saints

It's first versus last out at Victoria Park but neither team is probably going as well or bad as their ladder position suggests.

The Magpies have had to work hard to overcome Coleambally and CSU at their past two outings, taking until the final term to get over the Blues last weekend.

North Wagga beat Coleambally earlier in the year so should take confidence from that result. The Saints finished the better against Marrar last week too and have been quite good in passages at different stages of the year.

Riley and Noah Budd, along with Matt Parks should return for the Magpies, in what will strengthen their spine. The Saints were without Tom Nejman and Matt Thomas last week and they have been arguably their best two players this year so hopefully they can get back to help North Wagga in what is an incredibly difficult assignment.

Prediction: TRYC by 86 points
