CUP CHALLENGE

SATURDAY 15TH JULY, 23

2.10 PM

Riverina Bluebell would like to welcome everyone to our annual Riverina Bluebell Cup challenge where the home club Coolamon take on Collingullie on Saturday 15th July, 2023. The format for the day is that scores from all football and netball matches are added and the club with the highest aggregate will win and hold the cup for a year. Everyone from the youngest junior to the most senior players all contribute to the result.

Riverina Bluebell is a locally based volunteer mental health awareness organisation that has been involved with the RFL for a number of years and appreciate their support. Mental health is an ongoing issue and many communities have to deal with the tragedies that can result from mental illness. Football/ Netball clubs can be a great support for those who are struggling as they provide not only a team environment but also a social network. Having a feeling of belonging is a key factor in good mental health.

We wish both clubs the best of luck and look forward to presenting the cup to the winning club. Look out for our Riverina Bluebell volunteers, they are more than willing to have a chat about what we do. Look for the purple caps and shirts.

Wagga Tigers v Leeton-Whitton Crows

The latest twist in the Riverina League season saw Tigers upset arch-rival Turvey Park last Saturday, in front of the club's 1993 premiership heroes. It puts Tigers back inside the top five and to say it was a much-needed win is certainly an understatement.

Tigers were quite dominant in the end, restricting Turvey Park to just two goals in a 37-point victory. Tigers welcomed back assistant coach Dylan Morton, Jesse Manton and Shaun Flanigan and didn't it make a difference. Hopefully coach Murray Stephenson isn't too far away either. If Tigers are able to get their best team on the park, or close to it, they're capable of going all the way.

Leeton-Whitton backed up their second win of the year with a disappointing 106-point loss to a much more experienced Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong team. The Crows were only able to manage the two scoring shots but the likes of Blake Ryan and Angus Crelley didn't stop trying all day.

The trip to Robertson Oval shapes as another tough challenge for the Crows, but coach Tom Groves will be hoping they can at least remain competitive for longer periods of the game.

Prediction: Wagga Tigers by 70 points

Griffith Swans v Turvey Park Bulldogs

The top of the table clash will take place at Exies Oval when Griffith play host to the under siege Turvey Park Bulldogs.

While technically two points behind the Bulldogs on the ladder, Griffith are well positioned to finish on top, having played one less game, and can take a giant step towards the minor premierships with a win at home.

Turvey Park have dropped their last two games by margins of 32 and 37 points to Coolamon and Wagga Tigers. They've struggled to score on both occasions, managing just a combined total of seven goals over the eight quarters of footy. There's no doubt they've been slightly undermanned through that period but so have their opposition. It's time for Turvey Park to bounce back and there's no tougher task in front of them than trying to take down Griffith in Griffith.

The Swans continued their fine season by nailing the league's longest road trip with a nine-point win over Mangoplah-Cookardina United-Eastlakes last Saturday. That's four in a row for the Swans and a win here can have them nicely placed heading into a tough five-week period to finish the home and away season.

Griffith teenager Bailey Morrissey starred with four goals last week in just his fourth first grade game so he's one to watch this week, along with the usual suspects like Rhys Pollock, Jack Rowston and Henry Delves.

Prediction: Griffith by 22 points

RFNL PREVIEW

Coolamon Rovers v Collingullie-Glenfield Park Demons

Three wins on the trot has kept Collingullie-Glenfield Park's season alive and they took care of business, as expected, with a 115-point win over Narrandera last Saturday. That has the Demons back within a game of the top five but there is very little margin for error on a tough road home.

The challenges don't come much harder than Coolamon at Kindra Park at the moment, with the Rovers having won five straight to storm into third spot. Coolamon's last defeat actually came against Collingullie back in round six so this will be a good test of just how far they've come. They had a light week on the track last week heading into the bye so they should be nice and fresh for this assignment.

It looms as a battle of the spearheads with Coolamon's Tim Oosterhoff and Collingullie's Sam Stening both locked on 37 goals from 10 games in a share for second spot on the league's leading goalkicking. Both are in great touch at the moment with Stening having bagged 22 in the last three weeks, while Oosterhoff has 16 from his last three outings.

It's a big game for both teams. Coolamon want to try and lock in a top three finish, while the Demons are desperate to stay alive.

Prediction: Coolamon by 10 points

Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions v Mangoplah-Cookardinia United-Eastlakes Goannas

Another high stakes clash that should attract a big crowd to Ganmain Sportsground as the standalone Sunday fixture.

The Lions put Leeton-Whitton away by 106 points last week, giving them back-to-back wins. The signs are good for the Lions with Matt Hamblin, Aaron Proctor, Jacob Olsson and Sam Martyn getting back to near their best form and unsurprisingly that's when GGGM play their best footy.

Mangoplah-Cookardinia United-Eastlakes are well and truly under the pump. Three losses from their last four games has the Goannas now outside the top five and needing a win. They were gallant in last week's nine-point loss to Griffith but as they are finding out, gallant losses don't get you anywhere. The Goannas run home is better than most others but they need a win here to stay in touch with the top five.

The Lions are only six points ahead of MCUE and by no means assured of their spot in the top five with a tough run home. A win here though would give them some breathing space and as they've shown a number of times over the years, GGGM know how to time a run at the business end of the season. There have been plenty of positive signs for the Lions over the last couple of weeks and another win here would really have them up and about.

Prediction: GGGM by 14 points

'The future is bright at Temora'

A DECISION to blood the club's next generation has the hierarchy confident the future is bright at Temora.

With finals now out of the equation for Temora's first grade team, the focus of coach Jimmy Kennedy and the club's committee has turned squarely to the future.

Promoting the club's promising youth has been a focus, but more importantly, Kennedy wants to ensure they are establishing good habits that will hold the club in good stead for many years to come.

Bayley Blackwell, Eden Breust, Braith Ruskin and Jimmy Godde have all made their senior debuts for Temora this year.

Jacob Block and Ed Oliver are in their second year of first grade while Liam Sinclair, Joe Morton and Liam McKelvie are in their third.

They are a promising crop of footballers that form Temora's next generation.

"They're the future of the footy club, definitely, and that's what you build around," Temora coach Jimmy Kennedy said.

"Hopefully we can add a bit more personnel at the club next year to put around them. They bring that youth and excitement which the club needs at the moment."

Kennedy said the group have youngsters all boast talent and have shown signs that they'll make it in first grade.

"They have, a guy like Liam Sinclair, he played all last year and he's having an unreal year," Kennedy said.

"Then there's Jimmy Godde, Eden Breust, he's got a lot of potential, and then there's young Bayley Blackwell, he hasn't played for a few weeks but at the start of the year he played some really good games.

"Joe Morton as well, he's only 19 or 20. He's been playing seniors now for three years and would be right up there in our best and fairest. He's an unreal talent.

"There's a lot of young talent out here, but they're still that 16-18 age bracket a few of them, which is good for the future of the footy club."

Kennedy said this year's Temora group is a mix of statesmen and the next generation. He has tried to get games into the youngsters, while trying to keep some experience there to guide them around and help win games of footy.

He believes the youngsters are the key to long-term success at Temora and is determined to bring them through in the right environment with the appropriate standards.

"As long as they're willing to keep doing the good habits, which we're trying to develop that good culture and environment," Kennedy said.

'The future is bright at Temora'

"Having fun off the field but training hard, getting them into good habits and keeping them in those good habits. If they do that then I've got no doubt they'll go on to be good footballers.

"Even the age group under these guys there are some talented kids there and it has that flow on effect, you get them into good habits and they teach the next kids, the age group below, the good habits and hopefully it flows on.

"There's a few kids underneath them coming through you can tell have good ability and if they stick around and stay in good habits, they'll be good first grade footballers, definitely.

"So that's what we're focusing on. Getting games into these kids but more importantly getting them into good habits on and off the field."

First-year Temora president Grant Haigh is a big believer in bringing the next generation through and believes the club is in a strong position because of it.

"It's great for the club," Haigh said.

"We mightn't be performing great in firsts at the moment but the club's in a really good position numbers wise.

"The under 18s, even the junior club, their 15s, 13s and 11s are all getting good numbers there so I'm really happy with the way the club's going."

The current Temora group will get an opportunity to learn from one of the club's most successful eras when the 2013 premiership team holds their 10-year reunion on Saturday.

The 2013 success was the middle year of Temora's premiership three-peat, led by South Australian Mark Kruger.

Temora downed The Rock-Yerong Creek for the second straight year, prevailing by 16 points in the decider.

It was a good day for Temora, who took five teams into grand finals at Maher Oval, coming out successful in first grade football, along with A and B grade netball.

The club hopes with the next generation coming through, days like those are not too far away again.

Netball - Abbey Reinhold

Abbey is a talented young player debuting with Temora Kangaroos A grade team in 2019 at the age of 15, after playing through the club's junior ranks. Abbey has gone on to play over 60 games in the blue & white & has established herself as an integral part of our A grade team.

Abbey is a dynamic player with a high work rate. She provides plenty of speed, great footwork and pin point accuracy in the shooting circle. At only 19 years of age Abbey has been named in the 2021 and 2022 FFNL team of the year and awarded club r/up B & F for the 2022 season. Abbey is an exceptional young player with a bright future.

Football - Eden Breust

Eden is a junior Roo who has now found himself debuting this year under the guidance of coach Jimmy.

The 17year old is having a breakout season after a year off from footy, he now looks right at home at First Grade level. Breust provides the Roos with leg speed either out of the backline or on the wing.

He has clean hands and has a reliable left foot kick. He has a big future & we can't wait to watch it unfold in the blue & white.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Cait McRae

Temora Kangaroos would like to acknowledge the hard work of Caitlin McRae, our club's nomination for volunteer of the year for 2023. Caitlin is currently having the year off playing, but she is certainly keeping herself busy within the club.

Caitlin is a netball delegate, the manager of our A & A Res netball teams, she also does all the netball rosters which involves, umpies, scorers, canteen & first aid.

Caitlin also took the lead on organising our brand new netball dresses & football jumpers for the year to ensure we were ready to go for the season. She is ALWAYS the first to put her hand up to help & the queen of spreadsheets!!!

Our netballers certainly couldn't take the courts every Saturday without the organisation Caitlin does behind the scenes during the week. She is the ultimate club woman & most deserving of this nomination.

Northern Jets v The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies

All roads lead to Ardlethan on Saturday for the top of the table clash between Northern Jets and The Rock-Yerong Creek.

Only nine points separated the two teams when they last met, in favour of the Magpies, but this time the Jets will have the home ground advantage.

Both teams will be without key members of their team with Mitch Stephenson the latest to join the Magpies casualty list, joining Curtis Steele, Jordy Kemp and the unavailable Dean Biermann and Liam Lupton. The Jets will be without Jack and Sam Fisher, but should get Ryan Cox back.

It was a wet and miserable day the last time these two teams met and the bigger bodies of the Magpies were too strong. The Jets closed in late but it was always in TRYC's control. The Jets will be hoping for a better day to be able to get their running game up and going.

The Jets' slip up against Marrar a fortnight ago means top spot is no longer up for grabs here but they are keen to make a statement and show they are going to be worthy challengers come finals. The Jets have had no trouble putting away lower-placed sides but get a good opportunity to claim the scalp of the undefeated Magpies here and show they are legitimate premiership contenders.

Prediction: Northern Jets by 14 points

Temora Kangaroos v North Wagga Saints

Temora's up and down season continued with a heavy loss to the undefeated ladder leaders, The Rock-Yerong Creek, last Saturday.

The Kangaroos enjoyed a 99-point win over Coleambally sandwiched between losses of 132 points and 101 points to the top two teams. Jimmy Godde is back for Temora at the moment and has been making an impact, while Joe Morton and Jack Cullen continued to lead the way through a tough period.

North Wagga were unable to test an undermanned East Wagga-Koorringal last week, going down by 45 points. The Saints were without key personnel too and just don't have the depth at the moment to be able to afford that. They should get Lachie Johnson, Luke McGowan and Isaac Crouch back this week.

The Saints led Temora for a large chunk of the game last time before the Kangaroos finished the better to win. Expect North Wagga to again take it right up to Temora, but on their home deck, they wouldn't want to waste another opportunity for a win here.

Prediction: Temora by 35 points

Marrar Bombers v Charles Sturt University Bushpigs

It's third versus fourth at Langtry Oval as CSU will look to bounce back from a loss to Northern Jets against third-placed Marrar here.

It's another opportunity for the Bushpigs to show that they can compete with the upper echelon of the competition and they will take confidence from their last meeting with Marrar earlier in the year where they were the better side for large periods before ultimately going down by 13 points.

The Bushpigs have beaten every other Farrer League team over the past three seasons except the Bombers so that will no doubt be providing motivation. They should be boosted by the return of experienced midfielders Trent Cohalan and Wayde Archibald for the clash as well.

Marrar won't be easy beats and appear to be building momentum at the right time of the season. Their wins over East Wagga-Koorringal and Northern Jets were the best football they've played since this year before doing what they had to in last week's three-goal win over Barellan. With Jordan Hedington and Billy Toy about to make their return, Marrar will be looking to continue that build with a win here.

Prediction: Marrar by 18 points

Barellan Two Blues v Coleambally Blues

All the pressure lies with Barellan here as they look to keep their finals hopes alive with a win at home against Coleambally.

The two teams have played out some close encounters in recent years and Coleambally will again fancy themselves of being able to stick it to the Two Blues. Barellan prevailed earlier in the year by just 14 points.

Coleambally should be able to get a couple back after last week's bye and it was needed as they were getting pretty thin for players, highlighted by a couple of bad losses. If Stanley and John Tipiloura can get going, then the Blues certainly aren't without a hope.

It was another honorable loss for Barellan last week against Marrar, going down by 18 points. They stuck with the Bombers for three quarters, but just weren't able to take the game on when it mattered most. Barellan are getting an even contribution across the board but are probably just lacking a forward that can stand up and take hold of a contest. They get another opportunity to do just that against the Blues.

Prediction: Barellan by 30 points
