RFNL PREVIEW

Griffith Swans v Collingullie GP Demons

It will be a tough match between the Griffith Swans and Collingullie GP Demons on Saturday. The Swans were solid against heavyweights MCUE in round one, only going down by 19 points in a sometimes-scrappy affair, and they found the line strongly, coming from behind to beat Leeton-Whitton 13.17 (95) to 11.14 (80) on Saturday.

Griffith appear to be a better team than many expected, and while Collingullie GP were predicted to be powerhouses in 2022, the Swans – on their home turf – could give the Demons a run for their money.

The Dees were impressive in round one, belting a Turvey Park Bulldogs side by seven goals, which then came out and beat Narrandera by 16 goals. Collingullie GP are coming off the bye, and while they should win, this could be a very entertaining match.

Location: Griffith Ex-Servicemen's Fields.

Last time they met: Collingullie GP defeated Griffith 11.11 (77) to 8.7 (55) in round 10, 2021.

Prediction: Collingullie by 18.

Narrandera Eagles v Leeton-Whitton Crows

This heated rivalry match between the Narrandera Eagles and Leeton-Whitton Crows will be fuelled by the fact that both sides are searching for their first win of the season.

There is no nice way to describe the Eagles start to the 2022 season, with a young Narrandera squad spanked by Coolamon and Turvey Park in the opening two rounds, with their defence leaking 241 points and 35 goals.

Leeton played their first game of the 2022 season in round two, when going down to fellow rivals Griffith 13.17 (95) to 11.14 (80).

The Crows led in the final quarter but succumb to a fast-finishing Swans, and they will look to make a statement against the struggling Eagles on Saturday.

Location: Narrandera Sportsground

Last time they met: Leeton-Whitton defeated Narrandera 18.15 (123) to 5.2 (32) in round 14, 2021.

Prediction: Leeton-Whitton by 60.

RFNL PREVIEW

Wagga Tigers v Coolamon Hoppers

The Wagga Tigers have been cruelled by having the toughest start to the Riverina League, having lost to GGGM and MCUE in the opening rounds, and things don't get easier on Saturday when hosting perennial powerhouse, Coolamon.

The Black and Golds were well beaten by the Lions in round one but fought back when going down 13.10 (88) to 10.7 (67) to the Goannas on the weekend.

The Wagga side could easily face an unwanted 0-3 start to the 2022 season. Coolamon trounced Narrandera in round one, but they will be smarting after their big loss to the Lions in round two, and in terms of keeping up with the early leaders, a win over the Tigers will be huge for the Hoppers.

Location: Robertson Oval.

Last time they met : Wagga Tigers defeated Coolamon 7.11 (53) to 4.5 (29) in round 14, 2021.

Prediction: Coolamon by 12.

GGGM Lions v MCUE Goannas

While we are only through two rounds of the Riverina League competition, the round three match between the Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions and Mangoplah-Cookardina United-Eastlakes Goannas is a likely finals preview.

It's an early season top of the table clash, and the Lions have roared in their opening matches, with massive wins over fellow heavyweights, Wagga Tigers and Coolamon.

George Alexander seems to be an unstoppable force up front for the Lions, kicking 18 goals across two games, and GGGM could be the real deal in 2022.

The Goannas, while unbeaten, had to tough it out against Griffith in round one, before a good round two win over the Tigers, and they will get a good indication of where they stand this season when making the trip to Ganmain on Sunday.

Location: Ganmain Sportsground.

Last time they met: GGGM defeated MCUE 10.7 (67) to 5.12 (42) in round 14, 2021.

Prediction: GGGM Lions by 24.

"Young Bushpigs hungry for results"

BY JEFF HANSON

According to coach Travis Cohalan, a youthfully exuberant CSU Bushpigs can make a splash in the 2022 Farrer League, and he hopes to see his side playing finals football following a disappointing sixth-place finish in 2021.

"It's an old cliché, but we want to see improvement from last year to this year and finishing sixth last year; it's a logical expectation for us to want to play finals, and I think that would be the same goal for every other club right now," Cohalan said.

"We understand it's week by week, and we need to improve from last year, but with our list, I think we can play finals."

CSU started the season with a good win over Coleambally, and after a bye in round two, they faltered against Barellan on Saturday.

In what was a tough outing, the Bushpigs conceded five goals in the first quarter to trail the Two Blues 34-2 before eventually going down 9.8 (62) to 5.8 (38).

Cohalan said a young group needed to learn from the result and that playing a good four quarters of football was their focus going forward.

"We have a very young team, and something we are trying to eradicate is those lapses," Cohalan said.

"We had one against Barellan last week, and they scored five goals and it set them up for the win, but I think we won the game after that, but that big lapse cost us the result.

"All credit to Barellan; they were a good team, but we know we can be better, and we need to play for all four quarters."

"Young Bushpigs hungry for results"

BY JEFF HANSON

Despite the loss, CSU isn't panicking, and Cohalan hopes his Bushpigs can be competitive in what he believes will be a very close Farrer League competition in 2022.

"I think it is as even as ever,' Cohalan said.

"The writing was on the wall when a number of clubs – ourselves included – missed the top five last season and all the teams from fifth through to ninth recruited well, and improved their lists, and there were not that many easy games last year, there are definitely no easy games this year. "Honestly, anyone can beat any team on their day, and you have to turn up each week expecting a tough game."

CSU have been preparing for a big game at home against the Northern Jets on Saturday, who look to be a major player in 2022, and Cohalan believes it will all come down to who turns up on the day.

"I think it is an exciting competition, and it also makes each week a really big challenge for all the clubs," Cohalan said.

"It's all about turning up with the right attitude, and you must be ready for anything in any given week.

"The Northern Jets are strong, and they beat us by 100 points last year, and I expect a tough game when we play them."

In a big weekend of AFL Riverina action, round four of the Farrer League and round three of the Riverina League is set to be played and won.

FFNL PREVIEW

Coleambally Blues v Marrar Bombers

The Coleambally Blues could be up against it when taking on the Marrar Bombers in round four of the Farrer League on Saturday.

Besides a draw against rivals Barellan in round two, Coleambally have been well beaten by CSU and the Northern Jets, and they are still searching for their first win.

It will be a tough ask against the always-strong Bombers, who will be another big step up in class compared to recent contests.

Marrar will be keen to bounce back too, following a shock round three loss to TRYC Magpies at home, with the Red and Blacks going down 13.6 (84) to 8.13 (61).

Accuracy in front of goal cost them against the Magpies, and at the beginning of this season, the Bombers haven't been at their best, and a road trip to Coleambally is never fun, although they should bounce back in this contest.

Location: Coleambally Sports Grounds.

Last time they met: Marrar defeated Coleambally 19.9 (87) to 5.7 (37) in round 16, 2021.

Prediction: Marrar by 236points.

North Wagga Saints v East Wagga Koorungal Hawks

The annual Farrer League derby between the North Wagga Saints and East Wagga-Koorungal Hawks will be a good contest in front of a massive crowd at McPherson Oval on Saturday.

Not many pundits would have predicted North Wagga to be sitting winless after three rounds and staring down the barrel of an 0-4 record.

That winless record could remain for the Saints too, as they prepare to host the second-placed Hawks following losses to the Northern Jets, Marrar and most recently Temora.

The Hawks on the other hand come into this game fresh off a bye, and they are unbeaten, after a first-round draw with Marrar and a good 10.12 (72) to 3.12 (30) win over Temora in round two.

Location: McPherson Oval.

Last time they met: EWK-Koorungal defeated North Wagga 14.8 (92) to 7.7. (49) in round 11, 2021.

Prediction: EWK-Koorungal by 12 points.

CSU Bushpigs v Northern Jets

The Northern Jets will look to continue their hot start to the season in round four of the Farrer League competition on Saturday.

The Jets defeated the North Wagga Saints in round one before belting Coleambally 20.11 (131) to 10.14 (74) at home in round three, but they did falter in round two, falling to TRYC.

At their best, the Jets are hard to beat, but before they are considered a heavyweight in 2022, they will need to prove to their rivals that they can win on the road and that starts at CSU on Saturday.

The Bushpigs won't be easy beats though, and a youthfully exuberant CSU side, who finished strongly against Barellan last round, before going down 9.8 (62) to 5.8 (38), will look forward to hosting the Jets on their own turf.

Location: Peter Hastie Oval.

Last time they met: Northern Jets defeated CSU 22.14 (146) to 4.12 (36) in round 13, 2021.

Prediction: Northern Jets by 18 points.

The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies v Temora Kangaroos

The Rock-Yerong Creek take on a Temora side that could be the big improvers in 2022.

Following a first-round loss to the top of the table Barellan, the Magpies have bounced back, beating the Northern Jets in round two before a huge 13.6 (84) to 8.13 (61) win over the Marrar Bombers in round three.

Temora started their season slowly in round two, when belted by the EWK Hawks, but they surprised many when beating North Wagga at home on Saturday.

Their match against the Magpies when on the road will be tougher, but the Blue and Whites will be in the contest if they can play up to their round two victory.

Location: Victoria Park.

Last time they met: TRYC defeated Temora 13.12 (90) to 11.8 (74) in round 18, 2021.

Prediction: TRYC by 12 points.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Volunteer of the Year Nomination: KELSEY HANLON

Kelsey joined the club in 2018 studying teaching. She has been extremely active in supporting the club, taking on the secretary's role in 2019 before stepping back this year. Whilst she has finished her studies, Kelsey has remained on the committee assisting new committee members with their roles and being our social media guru as well as assisting with organising the canteen. Kelsey has played A grade, being our key goal shooter over the past 3 years as well being part of the Women's football team that won the premiership in 2021. Kelsey has been a great volunteer for the club and is always ready to help no matter what the job is.

RISING STAR NOMINATIONS

NETBALL NOMINATION: AMY BELFANTI

Amy is in her second year with the Bushsows after a stellar year last year. Hailing from Bathurst, Amy played for A grade for Collegians Mystics at Bathurst. A versatile player, Amy has slotted into many positions on the court in style. Her great hands under pressure in defence accounts for many intercepts, crucial to the game. Amy is just as talented as she is moved into mid court positions, taking on the game with speed. At just 20 years old and with a few more years of uni to go studying Veterinary Science, Amy is set to excel both on and off the court during her time with the Bushsows.

FOOTBALL NOMINATION: JOBE STEEL

Jobe has relocated from Warrnambool to attend university and has made a strong impression through pre-season with his speed and skills. He made his senior football debut in Round 1 and has continued his good pre-season form in the early rounds of the season. Only 20 years old and studying vet science he will improve further with experience and be a quality player for the Bushpigs in the years to come.
