Collingullie GP Demons v Narrandera Eagles

Collingullie GP were big winners in round one of the Riverina League before returning from a bye to defeat Griffith comfortably in round three.

The Demons shape as major players in season 2022, and on Saturday, they host the Narrandera Eagles in a game they should very well win.

The Eagles, who were belted by Coolamon and Turvey Park to open the season in rounds one and two, benefited from the return of Harry Grintell in round three when defeating Leeton-Whitton 15.17 (107) to 11.9 (76).

If Grintell shows again, the Eagles will no doubt be boosted, but the Demons will likely be a tougher task than the Crows and will take some beating on their home turf.

Location: Crossroads Oval.

Last time they met: Collingullie GP def Narrandera 11.6 (72) to 2.8 (20) in round 13, 2021.

Prediction: Collingullie GP by 42 points.

Turvey Park Bulldogs v Leeton-Whitton Crows

Turvey Park enter this contest fresh off a bye, and all being fair, the Bulldogs could be a tough task for the Leeton-Whitton Crows in round four of the Riverina League.

After losing to Collingullie GP in round one, Turvey Park dismantled Narrandera in round two, before getting an early break in round three.

The Wagga club will be solid at home, and they take on Leeton-Whitton, who are fresh off a loss to the previously winless Narrandera Eagles.

Leeton-Whitton showed good signs in their round two loss to Griffith, but struggled against Narrandera, and at the end of the day, the Tricolours are winless through three rounds and will be desperate for a result against the Bulldogs at Maher Oval.

Location: Maher Oval.

Last time they met: Leeton-Whitton defeated Turvey Park 14.8 (92) to 6.11 (47) in round 15, 2021.

Prediction: Turvey Park by 18 points.

Griffith Swans v GGGM Lions

This could be an ugly contest

It's nothing against Griffith, who have shown their worth in the first three rounds thus far, defeating Leeton-Whitton in round two, while competing against MCUE in round one and Collingullie GP in round three.

Still, the Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions are a different beast compared to the rest, and they have made an early statement as the undeniable team to beat in the 2022 Riverina League.

The Lions are three from three and boast a 327-107 for and against and a 305.61 percentage.

Highlighting GGGM's dominance in the early stages in 2022, they defeated heavyweights MCUE 16.14 (110) to 1.9 (15) on Sunday, and in all seriousness, they look hard to beat.

Despite being at home, this is a tough task for Griffith, and if the Lions win by less than 30, it should be considered a win for the Swans.

Location: Griffith Ex-Servicemen's Fields.

Last time they met: GGGM defeated Griffith 10.14 (74) to 6.8 (44) in round 16, 2021.

Prediction: GGGM Lions by 60 points.

MCUE Goannas v Coolamon Hoppers

The round four Riverina League match between the Goannas and Hoppers promises to be something special, with both sides looking to build towards their best football.

MCUE started the season with winning form, beating Griffith and Wagga Tigers, although there was no dominance about their performances.

Then on Sunday, when dealing with a mounting injury toll, they were simply outclassed by the GGGM Lions, when going down 16.14 (110) to 1.9 (15).

The Goannas will be a different beast at home and with players returning, but they come up against a Coolamon side that has all the potential in the world.

The Hoppers have won two from three and scraped home for a win against Wagga Tigers 5.17 (47) to 6.5 (41) on Saturday.

Accuracy has cost Coolamon, who have kicked 26.48 this season, but if they manage to sharpen up in front of goal, they should have enough in the tank to edge MCUE.

Location: Mangoplah Sports Ground

Last time they met:

MCUE defeated Coolamon 14.9 (93) defeated Coolamon Rovers 6.10 (46) in round 13, 2021.

Prediction: Coolamon by 18 points.

'Winning culture' will see Goannas bounce back

BY JEFF HANSON

It is no secret that the Mangoplah-Cookardina-Eastlakes United (MCUE) Goannas are having their mental fortitude tested in the early stages of the 2022 Riverina League season. Following two tough wins over the Griffith Swans and Wagga Tigers, the Goannas were left facing a mounting injury and illness toll as they prepared to play the high-flying Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions in round three of the competition. Visiting the Lion's den in Ganmain on Sunday, the Goannas were mauled 16.14 (110) to 1.9 (15) and were left licking their wounds.

Goannas coach Jeremy Rowe took nothing away from the Lions performance, but he stressed that he was missing upwards of 20 first grader calibre players. "There is no questioning that Ganmain is operating at a high level at the moment, with their hard running and pressure and their structures," Rowe said. "The result shows how well they are going, and we are very respectful of them, but on an absolutely serious note, we honestly had 19 very capable first graders unavailable on Sunday, and then young Bailey Jones went down with an ACL injury, so by half time, we genuinely had 20 blokes unable to take the field.

"That is no disrespect to the blokes that played on the weekend or to Ganmain, because they are all first graders, and all of our players have their capabilities, but from that 20 that didn't play, 11 or 12 were walk on players.

"We had five blokes play that have played less than five games of first grade, which is exciting, but it's also very tough for them to do that and play in those big roles in the early stages of their career, and especially against quality opposition."

Rowe stressed that MCUE would not let the loss to the Lions define their 2022 campaign.

"You are never happy to have your colours lowered to the degree we had on the weekend," Rowe said.

"Despite the number of guys we had out, we went there confident we could compete for much longer periods than what we did but we are no less confident with what lays ahead for us.

'Winning culture' will see Goannas bounce back

BY JEFF HANSON

"It's a tough loss and a tough lesson, but we won't let that result define how our season turns out."

Rowe believes there is a winning culture instilled within the MCUE club, and while his side was 'vulnerable' at the moment, he believes the Goannas will bounce back and be a big threat in the second half of the Riverina League season.

"We are going through a period of vulnerability, and we are open about that within our four walls," Rowe said.

"We have done incredibly well in the trials and first two rounds; we have been able to grind out wins during this period of vulnerability and I think that is a terrific reflection of our culture.

"We have made winning a habit, and we have that winning culture and you can see that, and on the weekend, with all the injuries, and meeting a strong Ganmain, the levee broke but we will get over it, and we know we will be playing good footy towards the back end of the season."

The Goannas will hope to bounce back against Coolamon on Saturday when hosting the Hoppers in round four of the competition at Mangoplah Sports Ground.

Northern Jets v Barellan Two Blues

The fifth-round Farrer League contest between the Northern Jets and Barellan Two Blues could play out as the match of the round on Saturday.

Barellan sit in top spot, while the Jets are proving to be one of the teams to beat in 2022. The Jets are coming off a big 10.6 (76) to 11.6 (72) win over EWK Koorungal Hawks in round four, and on recent results, they are making their case as a genuine top-three contender.

The Alex Lawder-led Barellan are playing out of their skin, and while their coach is the first to admit they need to take it game-by-game, it's hard not to get caught up in the Two Blues fandom.

Now this game doubles as a rivalry match, and there is no doubting both sides will be keen to turn up and turn it on for a massive Northern Jets home crowd at Ardlethan.

Location: Ardlethan Sports Ground.

Last time they met: North Wagga defeated Barellan 13.8 (86) to 2.4 (16) in round 14, 2021.

Prediction: Northern Jets by 8.

EWK Hawks v TRYC Magpies

What a tricky game to predict.

The EWK Hawks have been selected by many Farrer League pundits to be the team to beat in the 2022 season, but they face the real prospect of registering just one win after five rounds.

The Hawks only win of the season came against Temora in round two, and while they have been competitive, drawing with Marrar in round one, before losing to North Wagga in round four, EWK need to fly higher than the Magpies on Saturday.

TRYC will be smarting after losing to Temora 14.6 (90) to 12.6 (80) in round four, but they should up for the contest against EWK, in what could be the most enthralling match of the round.

Location: Gumly Gumly Oval.

Last time they met: EWK defeated TRYC 6.12 (48) to 5.6 (36) in round 10, 2021.

Prediction: TRYC Magpies by 6.

Marrar Bombers v CSU Bushpigs

Marrar bounced back in round four of the Farrer League, defeating the winless Coleambally 13.8 (86) to 8.6 (54).

The Bombers, who boast a top-two line-up on paper, have yet to reach any great heights in their performances this season, but after a solid start results wise, they sit in fourth on the standings.

CSU could be a trap match, and the Bombers will have to be at their best to beat the Bushpigs. CSU were solid against the Northern Jets in round four, and led by 15 points at three-quarter time, only for the high-flying Jets to flash late to win by 10 points.

If a new-look CSU can play a full four quarters, they could very well surprise the Bombers, but it will be a tough task at Langtry Oval.

Location: Langtry Oval.

Last time they met: Marrar defeated CSU 18.9 (117) to 4.4. (28) in round 11, 2021.

Prediction: Marrar by 18.

Temora Kangaroos v Coleambally Blues

There is no doubting the Temora Kangaroos have been the surprise packets of the 2022 Farrer League season.

Following a big loss to EWK Hawks in round two, the Russell Humphrey-led Roos have registered back-to-back surprise wins in rounds three and four, knocking off North Wagga and TRYC respectively.

Temora now sit in third on the ladder and come up against a Coleambally side that is winless through four rounds of the competition.

Apart from a round two draw with Barellan, Coleambally just haven't been good enough, and while their efforts were solid against Marrar in round four, going down 13.8 (86) to 8.6 (54), the Blues will have to be at their best to beat a reinvigorated and potentially dangerous Temora side.

Location: Nixon Park.

Last time they met: Temora defeated Coleambally 15.9 (99) to 11.5 (71) in round 13, 2021.

Prediction: Temora by 16.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Volunteer of the Year Nomination: JESSIE CUNNINGHAM

Jesse was President of our club for two years running during covid (2020-2021) and now holds a general committee position in 2022. At the age of 25, he was the youngest President in the league. What he lacks in experience, he makes up for in determination and courage. He has also just started his own business in 2021 which has added many additional responsibilities. His support to our current president is outstanding.

Jesse has work tirelessly for our club to ensure every job is covered and his attention to detail is exceptional. His passion and commitment to our club and our football community is a credit to him. He spends countless hours ensuring our club is successful both on and off the field and goes above and beyond behind the scenes as a general committee member. He takes on every role with passion and 100% commitment.

Whilst battling his own mental health issues, he has stepped well beyond his comfort zone many times and has enabled a supportive and inclusive club with a huge focus on mental health. He has instigated a Mental health day at our club for two years running in conjunction with Wellways and Active Farmers and the benefits of this to our club have been extraordinary. He has spoken many times to our players, members and supporters where you could hear a pin drop about his mental health battles and his lived experience. He is continually trying to break down the stigma surrounding mental health and with him serving on our committee, has given him the platform to ensure our club provides an inclusive and supportive rural community club, all whilst ensuring his own mental health is not compromised.

He has also instigated various fundraising opportunities within our club being an organiser of Davis Cup Golf day with 140 players, 35 major sponsors and 21 minor sponsors for a local club member battling a rare terminal cancer raising over $50,000; "Doing It For Ed" fundraising auction raising over $70,000 for a player in our club who is battling acute leukaemia, held Brash-A-T fundraisers to raise funds for research into this relatively unknown disease which affects one of our members two children. Prior to his committee involvement, he trekked to Base Camp Mt Everest with a group of MCUE players raising over $250,000 for this cause. His involvement, commitment and desire to help others is extraordinary for a young man his age.

Jesse can be found doing any job required from emptying bins on a Thursday night, tiling the changerooms, handling merchandise, working behind the bar, recruiting/retention, Friday night raffles, organizing our Goanna Lotto and livestreaming every week, mentoring the 17.5 boys, playing, Umpire Coordinator role, chasing up rosters, umpiring or ground manager. His determination and desire to succeed in his role as a committee member and invaluable member of our club has been an inspiration to all that know him.

RISING STAR NOMINATIONS

NETBALL NOMINATION: AVA MOLLER : Age 15

Ava made her A grade debut last year as we chose to qualify her for A in case we required her due to injury for finals. After her impressive performance during these games and within A reserve she has been elevated to the A grade side permanently this year. Ava is an impressive player for her age. Her ability to contest with larger, more experienced bodies is awesome to see. She is also able to sink goals from all distances around the circle. She is certainly one to watch for years to come as she continues to develop even further. She has brought a lot to our A grade side and filled a large hole Sophie Fawns left.

FOOTBALL NOMINATION: BAILEY JONES : AGE 20

After making his first-grade debut in 2018, Bailey endured an extended period of frustration with a serious wrist injury and COVID ruining his chances to continue his first grade career. After putting in his first full preseason in a few years, Bailey has hit the ground running in 2022, impressing in 3 trial games and performing to high standards in our Rd2 win against Tigers. A hard runner and an exquisite ball user, Bailey rarely loses a one-on-one contest and his ability to play half back, half forward or in the middle provides flexibility and options for the first grade side.
