Our goal is Zero! Let's all support Road Safety Round

Local football players and netballers across southern NSW will have a different goal to aim for this month when they join a new road safety campaign to help their communities team-up Towards Zero.

AFL NSW-ACT and Transport for NSW are promoting Road Safety Round on 14-15 May to encourage everyone to prioritise road safety and remind all road users that driving to conditions and following the rules can prevent crashes and save lives.

Road Safety Round is a first for NSW and will promote a positive road safety culture among football and netball clubs which are represented by many young people who use the roads every day.

Road trauma can have a devastating impact on not only loved ones of those involved but also the wider community. Football and netball teams are at the heart of many local communities and players, supporters and staff spend many hours travelling to and from training and games.

Everybody has a key role to play in preventing death and serious injury on our roads. Road safety is a shared responsibility – everyone needs to make safe decisions on and around the road and prioritise safety.

More than 3300 netballers and footballers in the AFL Riverina, South Coast and Sapphire Coast leagues, involving players from 40 regional centres, will take the field in socks carrying the Towards Zero message to highlight Road Safety Round.

Yellow ribbons – a symbol of the Sarah Frazer 'Safer Australian Roads And Highways' group - will also be available for players and spectators who want to 'Take the Pledge' – Drive So Others Survive. Marc Geppert, Community Football Regional Manager - ACT & Regional NSW, said the initiative was a positive approach to road safety awareness and one AFL NSW-ACT is giving its full support.

"Road Safety Round will be an opportunity to remind our players that like playing sport, no matter how skilled or experienced you are, or how familiar you are with a game plan, or the road you drive every day, it's hard to know what's around the next corner or to anticipate another road user making a mistake," Mr Geppert said.

"Teaming up with Transport for NSW to promote Towards Zero among our players, so we can keep that conversation going into the future, is a step in the right direction and an initiative we would like to grow in our sporting communities across the state."

Road Safety Round is being held as part of National Road Safety Week which takes place this year between 15-22 May. More information can be found at roadsafetyweek.com.au.

RFNL PREVIEW

Leeton-Whitton Crows v MCUE Goannas

An understrength MCUE Goannas were game against the Coolamon Hoppers on Saturday, going down 7.11 (53) to 6.12 (48) in round four of the Riverina League.

The Goannas were missing a myriad of first-grade regulars, while the Hoppers were far from full-strength, and despite the loss, Jeremy Rowe's Goannas will take a lot out of the game as they prepare to visit the Leeton-Whitton Crow in round five of the competition on Saturday.

The Crows have been very disappointing to start the season and remain winless after losing their first three games of the season.

On Saturday the Tricolours were belted by Turvey Park, going down 18.12 (120) to 4.5 (29), and they will need to find another gear if they are to beat the Goannas in round five of the competition.

Location: Leeton Showgrounds.

Last time they met: MCUE def Leeton-Whitton 24.9 (153) to 4.4 (28) in round 9, 2021.

Prediction: MCUE by 24.

Narrandera Eagles v Wagga Tigers

Narrandera are back at home in round five of the Farrer League when hosting the winless Wagga Tigers. The Eagles got on the board in round three when defeating Leeton-Whitton, but the Collingullie GP Demons had their way with Narrandera on Saturday, defeating them 25.17 (167) to 10.4 (64).

The Eagles are on the improve and did kick 10 goals against a strong Demons line-up, and they should find the Tigers an easier assignment.

The Tigers drew the short straw, with what was the toughest first three rounds of the Riverina league draw, losing to the GGGM Lions, Coolamon Hoppers and MCUE Goannas.

Narrandera will be an easier task, and fresh off the bye, the Wagga side should be up and firing for their first win of the season.

Location: Narrandera Sports Ground.

Last time they met: Wagga Tigers def Narrandera 12.11 (83) to 8.5 (53) in round 16, 2021.

Prediction: Wagga Tigers by 30.

RFNL PREVIEW

GGGM Lions v Collingullie GP Demons

The Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions kept their unbeaten run alive on Saturday when demolishing the Griffith Swans 13.15 (93) to 3.10 (28) in round four of the Farrer League.

The Lions simply look unbeatable right now, and before their big win over the Swans, they accounted for good sides such as Wagga Tigers, Coolamon and MCUE in the first three rounds of the season.

Still, the Lions they face their toughest test to date when taking on the second-placed and unbeaten Collingullie GP Demons on Sunday.

The Demons, who belted Turvey Park in round one and Griffith in round three, were emphatic winners when taking on Narrandera on Saturday, booting 25 majors when running out 25.17 (167) to 10.4 (64) winners.

Sam Stening was on target, kicking eight goals in the big win, but his side will need to fire again if they are to defeat the Lions juggernaut in what should be the match of the round.

Location: Ganmain Sports Ground.

Last time they met: GGGM Lions def Collingullie GP Demons 14.16 (100) to 9.8 (62) in round 12, 2021.

Prediction: GGGM Lions by 18.

Turvey Park Bulldogs v Griffith Swans

The Turvey Park Bulldogs host the Griffith Swans in what is a very interesting round five match-up.

The Bulldogs have fired in recent times, landing back-to-back dominant wins, beating Narrandera 20.11 (131) to 4.9 (32) in round two before a bye in round three, which was followed up by a strong 18.12 (120) to 4.5 (29) victory over Leeton-Whitton in round four.

Turvey Park should have their tails up when taking on a Griffith side that is coming off back-to-back losses. The Swans only have the one win to show through the first four rounds of the Riverina League, although they did run into the unbeaten pair of the Collingullie GP and the GGGM Lions in rounds three and four.

Turvey Park should be easier, but the Bulldogs are at home, and they will be out to make a statement against the Swans.

Location: Maher Oval.

Last time they met: Turvey Park def Griffith 12.18 (90) to 5.10 (40) in round 9, 2021.

Prediction: Turvey Park by 12.

'Barellan out to continue fairy tale run'

BY JEFF HANSON

It's hard to imagine that any football pundit outside of Barellan would have envisioned the Two Blues sitting atop the Farrer League ladder at any stage of 2022.

Yet, after five entertaining rounds of competition, Barellan not only sit atop the standings, but they are unbeaten.

Barellan have knocked off The Rock-Yerong Creek, CSU and most recently the Northern Jets, with the only blemish on their near-perfect record being a draw against rivals Coleambally.

Led by Alex Lawder, the Two Blues have been playing very good football, but they face a tough month ahead, which kicks off with a home game against the second-placed Marrar Bombers on Saturday.

Assistant coach Andrew Sidebottom said his side was happy to be playing well but the squad knows some tough fixtures await when taking on Temora in round 7, East Wagga-Koorringal in round 8 and North Wagga in round 9.

"We are not trying to get ahead of ourselves," Sidebottom said.

"So far, we have come up against the teams North West of Wagga and matched it and done better than them, but those teams in and around Wagga; I really rate them.

"Over the next few weeks, that will be the yard stick for us. We will have our backs against the wall playing Marrar, and all we can do is put our systems into place, try and slow them down and put a score on and hopefully get that win.

"Three wins and a draw is a great way to start the season, but we have some of the toughest teams to play and hopefully we come through that period with a couple of wins and halfway through the season we should see where we really stand when it comes to those good teams."

'Barellan out to continue fairy tale run'

BY JEFF HANSON

The town of Barellan is soaking up their club's recent winning run though, with the community getting behind the Two Blues.

"The best part of it is seeing a few locals enjoying the footy," Sidebottom said.

"Over the last few years, they have been happy to be there, but these results have been putting a few smiles on those faces and we are seeing a few more people down there watching."

Lawder and Sidebottom were able to claw the Two Blues from the bottom of the ladder in 2019 to seventh spot last year on the back of three wins.

After adding Luke Patterson, Dean Schmetzer, Hugh McKenzie, Lachlan Killalea, Jack Whitehead and brothers Riley, Mitch and Lucas Irvin, Sidebottom said Barellan were finally starting to click in 2022.

"It's just that sense of belief that I can see amongst the group," Sidebottom said.

"This time last year, someone asked me how I thought we would be going, and I expected last year to be similar to what we are doing now, and for us to win a few more games, but this year we are gelling and coming together.

"A few of the guys have been there for two years now, and we have a few new names there, some good local names and district names back playing for the club, and there is a good feeling around the place."

While talk of finals football and a Farrer League flag are no doubt dominating conversations in and around Barellan, a long season still awaits the club, who will be in action on Saturday when the Marrar Bombers come to visit in round 6 of the competition.

FFNL PREVIEW

CSU Bushpigs v Temora Kangaroos

The CSU Bushpigs will be under pressure to land a second win of the season when hosting the Temora Kangaroos in round six of the Farrer League.

After a big round one win over Coleambally, the Bushpigs have lost three on the trot, and their poor start to the season came to a head in round five when flogged 16.8 (104) to 4.9 (33) by the Marrar Bombers.

CSU coach Travis Cohalan will be hoping his side fires against a much-improved Temora. The Kangaroos, who finished second-last in 2021, when winning only three games, have already won three games, and sit third on the ladder.

Russell Humphrey and his bouncing Kangaroos easily handled Coleambally on Saturday, winning 9.13 (67) to 4.4 (28), and the Blue and Whites should be able to make it four on the trot against the Bushpigs.

Location: Peter Hastie Oval.

Last time they met: CSU def Temora 15.6 (96) to 9.7 (61) in round 17, 2021.

Prediction: Temora by 24.

Barellan Two Blues v Marrar Bombers

The top of the table clash between Barellan and Marrar in round six of the Farrer League will likely determine just how well the Two Blues are travelling in season 2022.

Barellan are the only unbeaten side through the first five rounds of the competition, and while it is easy to get caught up in their Cinderella-like start to the season, the club is having none of it, with Two Blues assistant coach Andrew Sidebottom coming out this week and admitting his side was unproven against the likes of the Bombers, Hawks and Saints.

Barellan's assistant coach even likened this match to a yard stick and said that this game would say a lot about just how far they have come, and how much they need to improve if they are to be genuine contenders.

The second-placed Marrar are fresh off a dominant 16.8 (104) to 4.9 (33) win over the CSU Bushpigs, and after a somewhat scrappy start to their season, the Bombers look to be firing as they head into this highly anticipated contest.

Location: Barellan Recreation Ground.

Last time they met: Marrar def Barellan 14.7 (91) to 1.5 (11) in round 18, 2021.

Prediction: Marrar by 6.

Coleambally Blues v East Wagga-Koorringal Hawks

The East Wagga-Koorringal Hawks fought back from being four goals down to The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies to win 9.10 (64) to 9.5 (59) at Gumly Oval in round five of the Farrer League, with a Jarrad Boumann goal in the final minutes sealing the win.

While they have been scrappy at times, the Hawks have only lost one game through five rounds and sit fourth on the standings.

EWK meet a struggling Coleambally side, who went down to Temora 9.13 (67) to 4.4 (28) on Saturday. The Blues are winless in 2022 and only boast a draw, which came against the ladder leading Barellan back in round two.

Since then, Coleambally have been well held and they will likely struggle to keep pace with the Hawks on Saturday, although they are always a tougher commodity at home.

Location: Coleambally Sports Grounds.

Last time they met: EWK def Coleambally 7.9 (51) to 0.8 (8) in round 14, 2021.

Prediction: East Wagga-Koorringal by 42.

The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies v North Wagga Saints

If anyone had told me, or most other football pundits, that The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies and North Wagga Saints would be sitting outside the Farrer League top five after five rounds of the competition, I wouldn't have believed you, but that is the current predicament.

North Wagga commenced their season with three straight losses before hitting back and beating EWK in what was a thrilling four-point victory in round four of the competition.

Saints coach Cayden Winter admitted it was a relief to get a win over the Hawks before their round five bye.

On Saturday, Winter's Saints meet another strong team in the form of the Magpies.

TRYC haven't been playing poorly either, with two wins and three losses to show this season, and while they did beat Marrar in round three, they fell to the improved Temora in round four and went down fighting when beaten 9.10 (64) to 9.5 (59) by the Hawks on Saturday.

Either way you look at this game, it is a must-win for both teams, and a loss will put the exclamation mark on a very slow start to the season for the losing side.

Location: Victoria Park.

Last time they met: TRYC def North Wagga 8.9 (57) to 8.6 (54) in round 17, 2021.

Prediction: North Wagga by 6.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Volunteer of the Year Nomination: NOLA MALONE

Nola has been an integral part of BUFNC for many years. Nola tirelessly dedicates her time to the BBQ and the Bar and this year is singled handedly coordinating the set up and pack up each and every home game. Nola also consistently helps in the press box at both home and away games. One could not fit the amount of Napisan in a b-double that Nola has used over the years to wash and scrub so many football jumpers after games. Nola has also served on the committee for the past decade, dedicating time and resources to an uncountable amount of fundraising and catering events for the club. Nola truly encapsulates what it means to be a volunteer and is absolute treasure of the Barellan United Football Netball Club.

RISING STAR NOMINATIONS

NETBALL NOMINATION: KATIE ANDERSON

A fabulous 2021 season saw Barellan's young gun, Katie Anderson, secure the under 17's League Best and Fairest Medal. Katie's ability to read passages of play in combination with her fantastic defensive pressure makes her an presence instrumental on the netball court. Katie's natural ability is bolstered by her eagerness to learn and her sheer determination to be the best.

Her natural talent aside, Katie is a fierce friend, and is quick to support her team mates. Katie's vibrant personality brings positive energy to any team and she is a valued member of Barellan's A-grade netball side this season.

FOOTBALL NOMINATION: LUCAS IRVIN

Lucas has impressed through pre-season to earn a senior spot in Rd 1 2022. Lucas's aggression and physicality for an up and coming player is impressive, he is not afraid of the contest and fronting up to bigger bodies. Lucas has been used in the Ruck, up forward and will play backline also in the future. BUFNC is excited for the future with Lucas at the club improving week to week.
