RFNL PREVIEW

Leeton-Whitton Crows v Narrandera Eagles

The winless Leeton-Whitton Crows will have nothing to lose when hosting their rivals Narrandera in round 12 of the RFL on Saturday.

The Tricolours went close to beating Griffith in round 11 when going down 10.11 (71) to 10.7 (67) and they will be out to put their best foot forward against the Eagles after going through the first 11 round without a victory.

Narrandera were beaten by the Turvey Park Bulldogs 15.10 (100) to 8.5 (53) in round 11 and following back-to-back losses, the Eagles will be out to land their fourth win of the season in a bid to keep their slim RFL finals hopes alive.

Location: Leeton Showgrounds.

Last time they played: Narrandera def Leeton-Whitton 15.17 (107) to 11.9 (75) at Narrandera Sports Ground in round 3, 2022.

Prediction: Narrandera by 12.

MCUE Goannas v GGGM Lions

The MCUE Goannas will take on the high-flying Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong (GGGM) Lions in what should be the match of round 12 of the RFL.

The Goannas beat the improving Wagga Tigers 10.12 (72) to 10.12 (71) in Wagga on Saturday and they are back at home when hosting a much tougher Lions outfit.

The fifth-placed MCUE will need to be at their best to knock off a Lions side that is fresh off a big win over Coolamon.

GGGM were too good for the Hoopers, winning 11.14 (80) to 7.11 (53) in round 11, and a repeat performance like that win will see the Lions again too good for the Goannas.

Location: Mangoplah Sports Ground.

Last time they played: GGGM def MCUE 16.14 (110) to 1.9 (15) at Ganmain Sports Ground in round 3, 2022.

Prediction: GGGM by 24.

RFNL PREVIEW

Coolamon Hoppers v Wagga Tigers

The Coolamon Hoppers will be smarting after losing to the GGGM Lions 11.14 (80) to 7.11 (53) in round 11, and they meet an ever-improving Wagga Tigers outfit at Kindra Park in a big round 12 clash.

The Hoopers dropped to third after their loss, and they will be out to make a statement at home. The Tigers will be rueing a missed opportunity against the MCUE Goannas on Saturday, with the Wagga side going down 10.11 (71) to 10.12 (72) at home.

Still, the Tigers are on the improve and if they want to keep their finals hopes alive, they need to put their best foot forward against Coolamon.

Location: Kindra Park.

Last time they played: Coolamon def Wagga Tigers 4.17 (47) to 6.5 (41) at Robertson Oval in round 3, 2022.

Prediction: Coolamon by 18.

Collingullie-GP Demons v Griffith Swans

Collingullie-Glenfield Park thrashed Turvey Park 22.9 (141) to 8.5 (53) in round 10 before enjoying round 11 on the sidelines with the bye.

The in-form and second-placed Demons will be back at home in round 12 and they take on the Griffith Swans, who recorded their second win of the season in round 11.

The Swans won a close contest when beating the winless Leeton-Whitton Crows 10.11 (71) to 10.7 (67) at home, but the Demons on the road will be another challenge altogether and if Griffith don't turn up ready to play, they will be lucky to keep within 10 goals of their opponents.

Location: Crossroads Oval.

Last time they played: Collingullie-GP def Griffith 10.13 (73) to 6.5 (41) at Griffith Ex-Servicemen's Fields in round 3, 2022.

Prediction: Collingullie-GP by 60.

RIVERINA

Narrandera 'craving success' as Eagles build towards big finish

BY JEFF HANSON

The Narrandera Eagles will head into the final seven rounds of the 2022 Riverina Football League (RFL) competition with one eye on a strong finish and another eye on the 2023 season. The Shaun Brooker-coached Eagles have won three games, but a young and energetic group have played well in most contests, showing some good signs of things to come.

"Turvey Park are quite young too, but we would be close to the youngest side this season," Brooker explained.

"We have got two 15-year-olds playing, and we don't have those old 28-or-29-year-olds, and that is what we are probably missing but that is the art of coaching and you have to deal with that.

"Still, these guys are growing and developing, and these local guys are craving a bit of success, and we are definitely building towards that."

The Eagles are coming off a round 11 loss to the Turvey Park, going down 16.10 (100) to 8.5 (53), but Brooker was proud of his side's effort, with the undermanned group digging in against a Bulldogs outfit destined to play RFL finals footy in 2022.

"It has been an interesting two or three weeks for us," Brooker said.

"We have had six guys unavailable in first grade, and we knew depth was going to be a big issue, which it has been in recent weeks.

"On Saturday against Turvey Park, we were scraping the barrel to have enough players for both grades, and even though it was tough, I thought we played really well.

"I couldn't be prouder of the boys; they really did have a crack."

Narrandera will be on the road to Leeton on Saturday when taking on the winless Crows in round 12 and Brooker said it was a must-win game for his young group.

Narrandera 'craving success' as Eagles build towards big finish

BY JEFF HANSON

"It's huge," Brooker replied when asked what it meant for the Eagles to potentially beat the Leeton-Whitton Crows on Saturday.

"It is always good playing crosstown rivals, and the boys are really keen for this weekend.

"The boys weren't happy with their play against Coolamon, but against Turvey Park, they didn't like getting beat, but they played well and are building for this weekend against Leeton."

The Eagles take on Leeton-Whitton, Griffith, MCUE and Wagga Tigers in the final few rounds with all four teams next to or below Narrandera on the RFL competition ladder.

Brooker, who is already looking ahead to 2023, admitted that more wins on the board would help his playing group and the club springboard into bigger and better things next year.

"Beating those teams around us is a good goal to work towards for the rest of the season," Brooker said.

"It always helps us moving forward with recruiting and generating that enthusiasm for preseason."

While there is still unfinished business ahead of the Eagles in season 2022, the veteran coach explained that Narrandera were certainly tracking nicely into 2023 and beyond.

"We are a club heading in the right direction and I am hoping we can jag a couple of those wins and set ourselves up really well for next season," Brooker said.

FFNL PREVIEW

Northern Jets v CSU Bushpigs

The Northern Jets and CSU Bushpigs have everything to play for in this important mid-table Farrer League round 13 fixture.

The Jets haven't won since round eight, and they lost to the bottom of the table Coleambally Blues 17.4 (106) to 13.11 (89) in round 12.

The Northern Jets are in seventh place because of their poor run of results but are still only one win behind the fifth-placed CSU.

The Bushpigs have won two on the trot following victories over Coleambally and Barellan, and if the Wagga side wants to play finals, they need to be winning this game against the Northern Jets.

Either way this match plays out, it will almost certainly have finals implications for both teams.

Location: Aria Park Recreation Reserve.

Last time they played: Northern Jets def CSU 11.5 (71) to 9.7 (61) at Peter Hastie Oval in round 4, 2022.

Prediction: CSU by 18.

EWK Hawks v North Wagga Saints

The all-Wagga derby between East Wagga-Koorringal and North Wagga has all the ingredients to be a match for the ages in round 13 of the Farrer League.

The Hawks are hard to beat at home, and they come into this match fresh off a bye, meaning coach Matt Hard will likely welcome back some troops from injury and illness.

The Saints did win this fixture back in round 4 when registering their first victory of the season 10.16 (76) to 11.6 (72) and there will be no love lost when they take the field on Saturday.

The Saints are building too, and most recently put the Temora Kangaroos away 12.10 (82) to 7.5 (47).

Finals positions are on the line too, with the fourth-placed Saints only two games behind the second-placed Hawks.

Location: Gumly Gumly Oval

Last time they played: North Wagga def EWK 10.16 (76) to 11.6 (72) at McPherson Oval in round 4, 2022.

Prediction: EWK by 6.

Marrar Bombers v Coleambally Blues

The Coleambally Blues arrive to this Farrer League contest against the top of the table Marrar Bombers with nothing to lose after winning back-to-back games against Barellan and Northern Jets.

The Blues put on a goal-scoring clinic in round 12 when beating the Jets 17.4 (106) to 13.11 (89). Things will be harder against the Bombers, who weren't as clinical in front of goal in round 12 when putting away a good TYRC outfit 11.21 (87) to 10.3 (63).

Still, the Bombers are top of the table and sit two games clear of the next best team for a reason, and when playing at Langtry Oval, they will take some beating as they look to fine-tune their play against of the 2022 finals.

Location: Langtry Oval.

Last time they played: Marrar def Coleambally 13.8 (86) to 8.6 (54) at Coleambally Sports Ground in round 4, 2022.

Prediction: Marrar by 30.

Temora Kangaroos v TRYC Magpies

This could be a trap match for the Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies, who pay a visit to Temora in round 13 of the Farrer League on Saturday when taking on the Kangaroos at Nixon Park.

The third-placed Magpies are fresh off a 11.21 (87) to 10.3 (63) loss to the Bombers, and they lost this reverse fixture back in round four when downed by the Roos 14.6 (90) to 12.8 (80) at Victoria Park.

The Magpies will want to keep their top-three spot but the Roos are desperate for a win after falling to eighth on the competition ladder following their sixth loss on the trot when well-beaten 12.10 (82) to 7.5 (47) by the North Wagga Saints.

Temora are playing for pride at this stage, and with nothing to lose, they could turn into a dangerous commodity at home on Saturday.

Location: Nixon Park.

Last time they played: Temora def TRYC 14.6 (90) to 12.8 (80) at Victoria Park in round 4, 2022.

Prediction: TRYC by 24.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

GREG IRONS

Greg has been with the club for a couple of years now, and is one to always put his hand up to help within the club. He is worthy of been this year Narrandera's Volunteer of the year.

He has rarely missed a game, and is the one who is the goal umpire for the under 17's each week and sometimes back ups to do the goal umpiring for the reserve on the same day. A likeable gentleman, who doesn't complain when asked if he would be able to help out in other areas within the club.

Greg I'm sure will be still assisting the club in future years. All the best.

RISING STAR NOMINATIONS

NETBALL NOMINATION:

Zoe Hutchinson

Zoe is nominated as our rising star for 2022. This is her first year playing A grade netball and she has shown potential in the shooting circle. Her experience is to be commended for such a young player. Zoe's confidence is improving each game & should be congratulated on her efforts thus far in the season. We look forward to seeing Zoe excel in her netball career.

FOOTBALL NOMINATION:

James Smith

James is 17 years of age and has come up from the junior ranks to be a very talented, versatile, fast and reads the ball well player for the NIFNC. He is gaining experience with his older team mates and is a reckoning force to watch in the future. Congratulations James for the hard efforts you have put in so far for this season.
