RFL PREVIEW

Collingullie-Glenfield Park Demons v Leeton-Whitton Crows

Two teams from opposite ends of the RFL table meet when the top of the table Collingullie-Glenfield Park host the wooden spoon-bound Leeton-Whitton in round 17 of the competition on Saturday.

The Demons won a closely-fought contest against MCUE 8.12 (60) to 8.8 (56) in round 16, and with only two rounds left in the home and away season, they will be out to make a statement when hosting the winless Crows.

Leeton-Whitton on the other handle are simply struggling, and were belted by Coolamon 11.12 (78) to 0.0 (0) in round 16.

This is arguably a tougher test for the Crows when playing at Crossroads Oval, and they will need to find something if they are to give the Demons a run for their money.

Location: Crossroads Oval.

Last time played: Collingullie-Glenfield def Leeton-Whitton 17.16 (118) to 6.4 (40) in round 8, 2022

Prediction: Collingullie-Glenfield Park by 90.

Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions v Narrandera Eagles

The high-flying Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions host the struggling Narrandera Eagles in another potentially lopsided round 17 RFL match on Saturday.

The second-placed Lions were too good for Turvey Park 14.9 (93) to 9.2 (56) in round 16, and they can still finish in top-spot, while a win over Narrandera guarantee them a top-three finish, so there is plenty to play for when taking on the Eagles.

For Narrandera, pride will be their biggest motivator, and following big losses to Collingullie-Glenfield Park, Wagga Tigers, and MCUE in recent weeks, the Eagles will need to find another gear or two if they want to match motors with the hard-running Lions.
If the Eagles don't turn up; this could get very ugly.

Location: Ganmain Sport's Ground.

Last time played: GGGM def Narrandera 15.7 (97) to 7.3 (45) in round 8, 2022.

Prediction: GGGM by 60.

RFL PREVIEW

Coolamon Hoppers v Griffith Swans

The Coolamon Hoppers will be wary of the in-form Griffith Swans when they do battle in round 17 of the RFL.

The Hoppers fired in round 16, belting Leeton-Whitton 11.12 (78) to 0.0 (0), and with a top-three position on the line, and still with a live chance of finishing in the top-two and earning a home major semi-final, Coolamon will have enough motivation when hosting Griffith.

The Swans won't be easy beats though, and they have played some good football in recent weeks, beating Turvey Park 12.14 (89) to 9.7 (61) in round 14 and Wagga Tigers 7.14 (56) to 8.2 (50) in round 16.

Griffith don't have anything but pride to play for in 2022, but a win over Coolamon would be a great building block as the Swans start preparations for season 2023.

Location: Kindra Park.

Last time played: Coolamon def Griffith 21.15 (141) to 8.6 (54) in round 8, 2022.

Prediction: Coolamon by 6.

Wagga Tigers v Turvey Park Bulldogs

The Wagga Tigers will be out to heap more misery on the Turvey Park Bulldogs in their round 17 RFL match, as the latter of these two teams prepares for what will be a tough finals campaign.

The Tigers fell to Griffith 7.14 (56) to 8.2 (50) in round 16, which ended their slim chances of playing RFL finals.

One would think the Wagga side will be stinging after the loss and no doubt be out to get one back on the Bulldogs.

The fifth-placed Turvey Park will definitely play finals in 2022 after Wagga's loss to Griffith, but they also lost in round 15, going down to the Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions (93) to 9.2 (56).

In fact, Turvey Park have lost three games on the trot, and with a final round game against the in-form MCUE Goannas, the Bulldogs will be out to land a much-needed win over the Tigers.

Location: Robertson Oval.

Last time played: Turvey Park def Wagga Tigers 14.10 (94) to 8.4 (52) in round 8, 2022.

Prediction: Turvey park by 12.

'Rooettes flying Temora's colours'

BY JEFF HANSON

The Temora Australian Football and Netball Club will boast strong representation in the 2022 Farrer League finals, with up to six football and netball teams set to qualify for the post-season.

The Rooettes have well and truly flown the club's colours this season, with four netball sides currently inside the top-five as they prepare for a big round 18 of action against Marrar, and leading the way is the Meg Reinhold and Ainsley McGrath-coached A-Grade side, which has secured the 2022 Minor Premiership and a second chance come finals.

Reinhold was simply happy to see so many Temora sides bound for the finals.

"It is great to see all netball grades doing well this year," Reinhold said.

"It has been a while since many of our lower grade teams have been in finals, and to have up to four teams playing finals, that is a great thing for the club."

Temora's under 17s are also top of their table leading into round 18, and with all teams doing so well, and with Temora preparing to install new netball courts at the end of the season, Reinhold said the Rooettes were in a good place as they finished off their current campaign and started preparations for the 2023 season.

'Rooettes flying Temora's colours'

BY JEFF HANSON

"The juniors that are coming through the club are great, and we know we have that future coming up through the ranks, which is really exciting," Reinhold said.

"Plus, we have got our new netball courts coming, which Emma McAuley has done a great job with; she has done a lot of work to get that sorted, and it is definitely a very exciting time for Temora netball."

In A-Grade, the Rooettes certainly look the team to beat leading into the finals, and while Reinhold was happy to admit her side has been the best team throughout the home and away season, she conceded that finals netball would be a completely different beast altogether.

We have only lost once, and that was to North Wagga, but we know that finals can be a very different game," Reinhold said.

"It's going to be tough, and we haven't played finals in a while and whoever we play out of North Wagga or CSU in our first game of finals; it's not going to be easy.

"CSU and North Wagga are both very different teams, but they are good, and both are very experienced when it comes to finals, and Coleambally are going well too, and they got that good win over North Wagga, and they will be a team to watch come finals."

Reinhold believes her side will need to lift again in finals, but she was confident that if Temora stuck to their strengths, they could go all the way.

"I just think we need to keep playing like we have been all year," Reinhold said. "We just need to keep performing and hopefully go that extra mile in finals."

The Rooettes finish off their regular season on Saturday when taking on the Marrar Bombers at Langtry Oval, and with finals positions still up for grabs, there will be plenty to play for ahead of the Farrer League finals, which officially kicks off next weekend.

FFNL PREVIEW

Marrar Bombers v Temora Kangaroos

Marrar have secured the Farrer League Minor Premiership and they are cruising to the finals knowing full well they get to enjoy a week off next week before playing for a spot in the 2022 decider.

Still, winning form speaks volumes, and considering the Bombers haven't lost a game since round three – when going down to TRYC 13.6 (84) to 8.13 (61) – Marrar have won 12 games on the trot, and they will be chasing a 13th as they prepare for yet another finals campaign.

Temora on the other hand will still technically play for a spot in the finals.

The Kangaroos are a win outside of the top-five, but in order to qualify for finals, they need CSU, Northern Jets and Barellan all to lose, and lose well, while they will need to put a score on the Bombers.

Location: Langtry Oval.

Last time played: Marrar def Temora 15.16 (106) to 2.5 (17) in round 9, 2022.

Prediction: Marrar by 60.

Northern Jets v East Wagga-Koorringal Hawks

This is a huge game for both the Northern Jets and East Wagga-Koorringal Hawks in round 18 of the Farrer League.

After defeating rivals Temora 13.9 (87) to 7.11 (53) in round 17, the Jets have given themselves a real chance of play finals footy, but they more or less need to beat the Hawks to make that happen and still hope that the CSU Bushpigs draw or lose.

They will be buoyed by the fact they are playing in Aria Park.

East Wagga-Koorringal on the other hand sit in second-place on the competition ladder and a win will all but seal a home major semi-final against The Rock-Yerong Creek a week later.

The Hawks fired in round 17, basically ending Barellan's chances of playing finals when winning 10.8 (68) to 2.8 (20) and either way this game plays out, it will have major finals implications and it should go down to the wire.

Location: Aria Park Recreation Reserve.

Last time played: EWK def Northern Jets 8.6 (54) to 5.10 (40) in round 9, 2022.

Prediction: EWK by 6

Barellan Two Blues v North Wagga Saints

This is a big game for Barellan when they host a content North Wagga side in round 18 of the Farrer League competition.

The Two Blues dropped from fifth spot for the first time in three weeks when losing to the East Wagga-Koorinal Hawks 10.8 (68) to 2.8 (20) in round 17.

Now for Barellan to make finals, they needed to beat the Saints in round 18, and hope that the Hawks defeat the Northern Jets and The Rock-Yerong Creek defeat CSU.

North Wagga have nothing to gain or lose by winning or losing this match, although after a round 17 loss to CSU 12.10 (82) to 10.10 (70), the Saints will want to enter the semi-finals with some winning form.

Location: McPherson Oval.

Last time they played: CSU defeated North Wagga 12.1 (73) to 7.12 (54) in round 8, 2022.

Prediction: North Wagga by 12.

CSU Bushpigs v The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies

This is another match with finals implications when the CSU Bushpigs host The Rock-Yerong Creek Magpies in round 18 of the Farrer League.

CSU have it all to play for, with the fifth-placed Bushpigs potentially bound for finals following their shock round 17 win over the North Wagga Saints 12.10 (82) to 10.10 (70).

Still, with Northern Jets and Barellan breathing down their neck, a win over the Magpies will be their main goal.

It won't be easy though, with The Rock-Yerong Creek still a chance of finishing second, so expect the Magpies to be swooping their opposition in a bid to earn a home ground major semi-final berth.

Location: Peter Hastie Oval.

Last time played: TRYC def CSU 11.7 (73) to 8.6 (54) in round 9, 2022.

Prediction: CSU by 6.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Emma McAuley

Emma McAuley is a valuable member of our club. She initially came to our club as a player, and has moved into roles such as coach, netball official.

As of recently Emma has been successful in obtaining a substantial grant for an upgrade on both senior & junior club netball courts.

Emma spent countless hours of her time researching and submitting grants.

She planned and hosted our first dancing with the stars ball which was an incredible turn out, raising a huge amount towards our club.

Emma goes above and beyond for the Temora Australian Football & Netball Club and sincerely deserves the highest of accolades for all that she does.

All whilst raising a busy little family with her husband Chris, who is also heavily involved within our club. We thank her for everything she has done and continues to do.

RISING STAR NOMINATIONS

NETBALL NOMINATION:

Darcie Manning

Darcie Manning is a young player of the Temora Kangaroos A grade team. Darcie has been playing senior netball with Temora Kangaroos since 2019 and has been a valuable team member in A grade since joining.

Her quick closing speed and ability to read the play in wing defence position has provided to be invaluable to the team.

Darcie is a quiet achiever on the court winning lots of ball for the team in times when it's crucial. Temora A Grade are very lucky to have an athletic, young player as part of our team and can't wait to see how her netball game continues to improve

FOOTBALL NOMINATION:

Liam Sinclair

Liam Sinclair is currently one of our most youngest First Grade players for Temora Kangaroos. Only debuting last year, he went straight into First Grade at just 16 years old. Liam has one of the quickest turns of foot, his ability to chase down or breakaway from a contest makes him a dangerous player.

He is one of our quickest, fittest & most skilled players. Liam has a bright future as a footballer and we are excited to see him improve even more over the coming seasons.

It's great to see Liam get recognised as a Rising Star Nomination. Liam has played a total of 28 senior games.

riverina bluebell

With another year rolling around it will be good to have our Riverina Bluebell Cup without the threat of lockdowns. For those that are unfamiliar with Riverina Bluebell we are a mental health awareness organisation. We partner with sporting clubs and community organisations to raise awareness of good mental health and remove stigma from mental illness. A healthy club environment can be a great support for anyone that is struggling with their mental health and we thank the Mangoplah, Collingullie, Northern Jets and East Wagga football/netball clubs for their involvement again this year. The result on the day involves every player in the club from juniors right through to the top grades and by involving the younger players we hope that this will help them be aware of mental health issues that may affect them in their journey through life and have them better equipped to handle issues as they arise. We wish both clubs the best of luck on the day. When sport is played in the right spirit and with the respect to others it is a great tonic for body and mind. Some of our team will be in attendance on the day, look for the purple shirts and feel free to talk to us. Once again it is great for us to be involved.

Check out our new Website (riverinabluebell.org.au) and I remind you that we can all make a difference.

" Saving lives through conversation"

Steve Matthews, Chairman/Riverina Bluebell

Big Congratulations to MCUE Goannas who took out the 2022 Riverina Bluebell Cup vs Collingullie-GP Demons on Saturday in the Riverina Football Netball League.

Saturday we will see the Northern Jets take on East Wagga Hawks for the Farrer League rights.
