RFL PREVIEW

Griffith Swans v Wagga Tigers

The Griffith Swans will be out to officially end the Wagga Tigers run towards the 2022 RFL finals when they meet in round 16 on Saturday.

Griffith were on the bye in round 15, but in round 14 they enjoyed a surprise win over Turvey Park, with the Swans getting up 14.5 (89) to 9.7 (61).

The Swans will be out to land their fourth win of the season as they try and finish the year on a high. For the Tigers, where there is hope there is life, and the Wagga club are hoping they can still finish in the RFL top five.

With three games left, Wagga need to win all three games against Griffith, Turvey Park and Leeton-Whitton, which on paper looks very doable, but they also need the Bulldogs to lose three on the trot, but anything is possible, with the Doggies taking on GGGM, Wagga Tigers and MCUE.

Location: Griffith Ex-Servicemen's Fields

Last time they played: Wagga Tigers defeated Griffith 23.15 (153) to 2.8 (20) in round 7, 2022.

Prediction: Wagga Tigers by 24.

Leeton-Whitton Crows v Coolamon Hoppers

Two teams from different ends of the RFL ladder meet when the winless Leeton-Whitton Crows host the fourth-placed Coolamon Hoppers on Saturday.

The Crows only have three rounds remaining as they search for their first win of the year, and it will be a tough task against the Hoppers after going down to them by a whopping 17.23 (125) to 0.3 (3) when they last met in round 7.

In round 15, they were flogged 20.17 (137) to 3.4 (22) by GGGM and it could be another tough outing on Saturday.

For the Hoppers, they need to win to keep their top-three aspirations alive, and with big matches between MCUE and Collingullie-GP, and GGGM and Turvey Park scheduled for a round 16, they have a good chance to make an important jump into third place.

Location: Leeton Showgrounds.

Last time they played: Coolamon defeated Leeton-Whitton 17.23 (125) to 0.3 (3) in round 7, 2022.

Prediction: Coolamon by 60.

RFL PREVIEW

MCUE Goannas v Collingullie-GP Demons

This round 16 RFL match between the Goannas and Demons has all the ingredients to be an absolute pearler.

The top of the table Collingullie-Glenfield Park were too good for Wagga Tigers in round 15, winning 13.19 (97) to 7.11 (53).

With three rounds remaining in the regular season, a win over the Goannas would help the Demons and their RFL Minor Premiership aspirations.

The Goannas have it all to play for in third place, with MCUE only a game behind the top of the table GGGM, while they are only half a game ahead of Coolamon.

If the Goannas want to finish top-three, they need to knock off the Demons, meaning this game should go down to the wire.

Location: Mangoplah Sport's Ground

Last time they played: Collingullie-Glenfield Park defeated MCUE 12.7 (79) to 7.9 (51) in round 7, 2022.

Prediction: Collingullie-GP by 7 points.

GGGM Lions v Turvey Park Bulldogs

The Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong Lions will be out to make a statement against the Turvey Park Bulldogs in round 16 of the RFL competition on Sunday.

The Lions fired in round 15, belting the Leeton-Whitton Crows 20.17 (137) to 3.4 (22) and with top spot in their sights, they will want to beat Turvey Park heading into the final two rounds.

The fifth-placed Bulldogs are most likely finals bound but they have lost two games on the trot, most recently going down to Coolamon 11.9 (75) to 9.8 (62) in round 15.

The Bulldogs have the ability to match it with the top teams, but they need to start getting results leading into the final two rounds and the RFL finals.

Location: Ganmain Sport's Ground.

Last time they played: GGGM defeated Turvey Park 9.16 (70) to 8.6 (54) in round 7, 2022.

Prediction: GGGM by 12 points.

'Lions ready to roar as RFL finals approach'

BY JEFF HANSON

After nine rounds of the 2022 Riverina Football League (RFL) season, the unbeaten Ganmain-Grong Grong-Matong (GGGM) Lions were a force of nature, with the flag favourites seemingly putting teams away with ease.

Leading into the second half of the season, the Lions were understandably the hot favourites to finish the home and away season on top of the ladder, but they suffered a shock round 10 loss to the Wagga Tigers.

This result was followed by losses to MCUE and Collingullie-Glenfield Park in rounds 12 and 14 respectively, and now GGGM sit in second place behind Collingullie-Glenfield Park and coach Sam Martyn said his side would be content with a top-three finish and a second chance come finals.

"Top-three is what we are aiming for," Martyn said.

"Mathematically it is possible to finish in third position, but we can't control that, and we just want to maintain that advantage of a double chance by finishing second or third, and that is what we are striving to make happen."

Martyn is hoping his Lions learn from those tough losses leading into the final two rounds of the season and the RFL finals.

"We had the double-bye leading into our game against the Wagga Tigers, and as a coach, there was a bit of trepidation, and you never know how you are going to respond," Martyn said.

"We tried to prepare like we were playing footy each week, but we got a wake-up call when getting beaten by the Tigers and it reminded us that we are beatable.

"Plus, we have never traditionally play well at Robbo (Robertson) Oval either, but we know we must play finals there, so we need to get used to it and learn to take that uncontrollable element out of the equation."

Martyn believes the RFL competition is as close as ever, with the six teams still in contention of playing finals more than capable on their day.

"The competition is a lot closer, and I guess it adds that spice, and it is a pretty even top-six, with Wagga Tigers a chance of jumping into the top-five," Martyn said.

'Lions ready to roar as RFL Finals approach'

BY JEFF HANSON

"The race is definitely on to make finals, and for that top-three position too, with Mangoplah rising for the challenge."

GGGM take on Turvey Park on Sunday at Ganmain Sport's Ground before a round 17 home game against the struggling Eagles, and while Martyn admitted that his side should win both matches, he wasn't prepared to take the opposition lightly.

"Every game is crucial, and we have a slightly easier run with the likes Turvey Park and Narrandera over the next two weeks," Martyn said.

"Still, it is that old adage that any team on their day can win and we won't be taking any team lightly as we look to finish the season as high up the table as possible."

Despite some challenges in the second-half of the season, the Lions coach believes his outfit is learning and improving, and with a handful of players returning from injury in the next couple of weeks, Martyn hopes GGGM will be ready to fire when it matters most.

"As long as we are learning and taking things away from these games, I believe we will be ready come finals time," Martyn said.

"We are just tweaking a few minor bad habits that have crept into our game, but we are in a good position and our focus is on the next two weeks.

"Additionally, from our win against Leeton, we have six returning players this week, and you never want to use the victim mentality, but having the best midfielder in the competition in Matt Hamblin not available is costly and having him back is huge as we make our run for finals."

The game between the Lions and Bulldogs headlines a bumper round 16 of RFL action, with the competition well and truly getting towards the pointy end.

FFNL PREVIEW

Temora Kangaroos v Northern Jets

Two arch-rivals come together when the Temora Kangaroos and Northern Jets do battle in round 17 of the RFL.

Incredibly for the Roos, a position in the top-five is still a possibility after registering wins in round 15 and 16, knocking of CSU and Barellan respectively.

If Temora were to beat the Northern Jets on Saturday, they could very well find themselves in fifth position leading into their final round match against Marrar.

For the Jets, they will be rueing some close losses throughout the year, but they still have a chance to play finals, and they need to beat the Kangaroos.

The Jets pushed Marrar in round 16, going down 16.11 (107) to 12.9 (81), and a repeat performance should see them getting the win over their rivals.

Location: Nixon Park

Last time they played: Northern Jets defeated Temora 14.8 (92) to 9.9 (63) in round 8, 2022.

Prediction: Northern Jets by 18.

EWK Hawks v Barellan Two Blues

Both the East Wagga-Koorngal Hawks and Barellan Two Blues have a lot to play for in round 17 of the Farrer league.

With two rounds remaining, the Hawks sit in second place following a dominant 13.19 (95) to 7.6 (48) win over CSU in round 16.

EWK are only just ahead of TRYC on percentages, so the Wagga side will want to put a big score on Barellan.

Despite back-to-back losses to Marrar and Temora, the Two Blues are still hanging onto fifth spot on the competition ladder by the skin of their teeth.

If Barellan beat the Hawks, they deserve to be playing finals footy, but it is never easy at Gumly Gumly Oval and the Two Blues will need to be at their absolute best to register a shock result on the road.

Location: Gumly Gumly Oval.

Last time they played: EWK defeated Barellan 12.7 (79) to 8.5 (53) in round 8, 2022.

Prediction: EWK by 12.

North Wagga Saints v CSU Bushpigs

In another match with potential finals implications, the North Wagga Saints and CSU Bushpigs have it all to play for in round 17 of the Farrer League.

The Saints, who just beat Coleambally 6.15 (51) to 6.8 (44) in round 16, are in fourth position and are guaranteed a place in the 2022 finals but win over CSU will guarantee them a home elimination final, while it would effectively rule CSU out of the equation.

For the Bushpigs, they need to beat the Saints following their round 16, 13.19 (95) to 7.6 (48) loss to EWK. It's a tough road to finals for CSU, who play TRYC in round 18, but a win here will have them heading in the right direction.

Location: McPherson Oval.

Last time they played: CSU defeated North Wagga 12.1 (73) to 7.12 (54) in round 8, 2022.

Prediction: North Wagga by 12.

TRYC Magpies v Coleambally Blues

The Rock-Yerong Creek will be looking for a percentage-boosting win when hosting the bottom of the table Coleambally on Saturday.

The Magpies are in third place but trail the second-placed EWK on percentages with two rounds to go. For a chance at a home semi-final, they must beat the Blues by a good margin as they prepare for a round 18 match against the CSU Bushpigs.

For Coleambally, pride is on the line for the bottom of the table wooden-spooners. Still, the Blues weren't disgraced in round 16, going down to finals-bound North Wagga Saints 6.15 (51) to 6.8 (44), and they will be out to put a serious dent in the Magpies finals aspirations.

Location: Victoria Park.

Last time they played: THRC defeated Coleambally 10.10 (70) to 8.7 (55) in round 8, 2022.

Prediction: TRYC by 30.

VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Kathy Sase

The Ganmain Grong Grong Matong Football & Netball Club have great pleasure in nominating Kathy Sase as our volunteer of the year.

Kathy has played an integral part in the running of the club, her rolls at the club has ranged from club secretary, netball team manager, canteen worker, ground manager, organising after training meals for the footballers & netballers, medical sports trainer & helping with grant applications.

If this wasn't enough jobs for Kathy she has also taken on the job of managing all the Club apparel for the junior & senior clubs over the last 6 years, this is a massive job as we have multiple styles, colours & cuts to accommodate everyone's needs. Kathy always goes that extra mile as she has been caught packing & posting GGGMFNC apparel in the merchandise room late into the night so it can get it to our interstate supporter for Xmas presents for their families!!

Our club is so lucky to have such a happy, hard working person at our club & are honoured to recognise Kathy Sase as our volunteer of the year nominee ..

RISING STAR NOMINATIONS

NETBALL NOMINATION:

Abbey Hamblin

Abbey has been an important player in the GGGM A Grade squad since debuting in 2021. Abbey is an athletic, speedy, centre court player, who is regularly seen to impact games by reading the play and taking vital intercepts. Abbey is a dedicated and determined player, who consistently brings a positive and hard working attitude to training and game day. Abbey is a committed, loyal and passionate member of the GGGM football netball club, having started playing for the Lions at 8 years old.

Recent Personal Achievements:

2022 - A Grade player & club umpire

2021 - Abbey won GGGM U17's B & F & was equal R/U League B & F.

2020 - U17's Premiers, Abbey was awarded Best on Court & GGGM B & F.

FOOTBALL NOMINATION:

Seb Hamblin

Seb Hamblin is a promising junior footballer that has risen through the junior ranks at GGGM. He showed remarkable improvement during a massive pre-season which resulted in Seb debuting in round 1 against Wagga Tigers. Seb has played predominantly in the back line and shown a willingness to take the game on with his run and carry and make good decisions with ball in hand. Seb's form has been that good that he has been able to play in every 1st grade game this year .

At the ripe old age of 17, we look forward to seeing Seb develop into one of the premier defenders of the RFL in the not too distant future and become a staple of the GGGM backline for many years to come.
